

Ducks Divide Utah Openers; Meet Bruins Here on Friday

Three games are on tap this week for Oregon's Webfoot cagers who skimmed Utah State 66-64 in Salt Lake City Saturday night. The win gave the Ducks a split in their 1950 season openers as it came on the heels of Friday night's 59-39 loss to University of Utah.

Coach John Warren's five will make their McArthur Court debut this Friday and Saturday when they entertain the defending Pacific Coast Conference champion UCLA Bruins in a two game set. Tomorrow the Ducks journey to Portland to meet the Portland University Pilots at the Ice Arena.

Crowd In Uproar

Against Utah State, the Ducks ran up an early lead and then spent the rest of the night fighting off Farmer attempts to take it away. The 4500 home fans turned the Ute Field House into a bedlam as the Farmers erased all but two points of the 65-50 lead Oregon held with five minutes left.

The Ducks put together free-throw accuracy, backboard control, a smoothly functioning fast break, and a .358 shooting average for their win. Forward Will Urban paced the Webfoots with 19 points but Ladell Anderson of the losers carried off honors for the evening with 26.

Center Jim Loscutoff and Guard Jack Keller followed Urban with 16 and 14 respectively. Loscutoff and Forward Curt Barclay were the big factors in Oregon's backboard control.

It was accuracy from the free-throw line that spelled victory for the Ducks as they hit on 20 out of 26 while the Farmers connected on 14 out of 23. Utah State outscored Oregon from the floor 50-46.

Webfoots Fold

In Friday night's opener, the Webfoots stayed close until five minutes into the second half when Utah led 32-27. At that point Oregon went on a prolonged drought while the Redskins ran the count to 47-28 with three minutes left.

Barclay, playing his first varsity game, was Oregon's top scorer with 13 points. He was also the only Webfoot to hit double figures as Urban followed with 9. Forward Glen Smith garnered 24 for Utah.

In their home opener, the Ducks will be up against a Bruin squad which includes six lettermen from

Rams Dump Packers

Sparked by the passing of Bob Waterfield and Norm Van Brocklin, the Los Angeles Rams romped to a 51-14 win over the Green Bay Packers yesterday, assuring themselves of at least a tie for the National Football League National conference championship.

last season's championship quintet. Sparkplug of Coach John Wooden's quintet is guard and captain Eddie Sheldrake, a 5 foot 9 inch ball of fire. Sheldrake was second high man in UCLA scoring last year with 282 points in 31 games.

Noe May Return

In the Portland engagement tomorrow night, the Ducks hope to have Chet Noe, 6 foot 7 inch center, back in action. A frosh sensation last season, Noe was declared ineligible for the Utah trip because of scholastic deficiencies.

The Oregon frosh will open their season tomorrow when they meet the Portland frosh in a preliminary to the Duck-Pilot tilt. Coach Don Kirsch's Ducklings will meet the Linfield frosh and Oregon College of Education in preliminaries to the UCLA games. Prelim starting time will be 6:15.
