

New UO Theater to Hold Tryouts Friday in Villard

Tryouts for the first major in-the-round production of the new University Theater will be conducted by director Otilie Seybolt at 4 and 7 Friday afternoon in room 104 Villard.

"Goodbye, My Fancy," recent Broadway comedy, which will be presented Mar. 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10 in the new "intimate theater" in Villard Hall.

An in-the-round production is one which uses central staging, the audience sitting on all four sides of the acting area. The small theater in Villard, which completes the trio of theaters in the University Theater plant, is now being remodeled for use as an area for major theater productions.

COMING BACK MONDAY?

"So long, Joe—see you Monday." Sure, you take it for granted that you'll be back on the job bright and early Monday morning. Always have been—well, 'most always. There was the time on a picnic when you fell off a rock and sprained your ankle—and oh, yes, the auto accident that put your arm in a sling for a couple of weeks; but nothing really too serious.

Don't count on it! Every year 32,000 workers are killed, over 2,500,000 injured in off-the-job accidents. That's almost double the number of deaths caused by accidents on the job.

It's great to have fun. Relax and enjoy yourself over the week end, holiday or vacation. But remember—somewhere during every two-day holiday, 175 workers will be accidentally killed and 15,000 injured, many maimed for life. One of these could be you. A large part of these casualties will be caused by traffic accidents, but drownings, falls, firearms, poisons, burns and other accidents will help to swell the total.

Coming back Monday? The chances are all in your favor—if you just use plain common sense in what you do and how you do it over the week end.

Think safely on-the-job, off-the-job, always!
