Senior Ball Positions Open to All Classes

Petitions for Senior Ball committee chairmanships and memberships may be submitted by members of any class, not only by seniors, Class President Steve Church said Monday.

Deadline for applications is 5 p.m. Wednesday. Petitions may be turned in to Church at Theta Chi or to Flo Hansen at Alpha Omicron Pi.

Promotion, publicity, decorations, tickets, clean-up, programs, chaperones, and intermission entertainment chairmanships and committee positions are open.

Architects Host To Conference

The school of architecture and allied arts will be host to a Northwest Regional Conference sponsored by the American Institute of Architects Feb. 16.

Dean Sidney W. Little of the school of architecture and allied arts, regional director for the AIA and a member of the survey commission, is planning the conference which will be held in connection with a survey concerning the education necessary for the practice of architecture.

Attending the conference will be numerous practicing architects who will supply the information demanded by the survey as well as many distinguished individuals not members of the profession. Dr. Edwin Burdell, director of Cooper Union in New York City, will be the chairman of the conference. Ralph Walker, president of AIA will also attend.

Newmans to Hold Initial Discussion

A special Newman Club discussion group will hold its first meeting of the term from 7 to 8:30 p.m. tonight in the Student Union.

The program is under the direction of Lou Geiselmann, graduate student in philosophy, who will base the discussions on Father Conway's "The Question Box."

Designed to meet the needs of Catholic students who wish to learn more about their religion, the discussion group meeting is being planned as a weekly event.

As soon as a political campaign is over it's no longer sporting to call a man a horse thief.

W.A.A. Carnival Petitions Due

Petitions for positions on Women's Athletic Association carnival committees are due at 5 p.m. Wednesday, according to President Bonnie Gienger.

She said all University women interested in working on the annual carnival should submit petitions to her at Hendricks Hall or to Vice-president Phyllis Rich at Rebec House.

The carnival is scheduled for Feb. 16.

Positions open are co-chairmen and chairmen of committees on decoration, finance, food, publicity and promotion, cleanup, and booths.

Co-chairmen of the entire carnival will be chosen Wednesday night by the executive committee of the WAA council. The co-chairmen will choose their committee heads, and all petitioners will be used on the committees, Miss Gienger explained.

House Librarians Meet For Business Today

House librarians will hold a business meeting at 4 p.m. today in the browsing room of the Student Union, according to Secretary Katherine Black.

Committees will be appointed, and fees will be collected for the Oregon.

It's amazing, says a federal man, that people don't more readily recognize counterfeit money. If we saw more of the genuine it would help.

MAKE THE TOBACCO GROWERS MILDNESS TEST YOURSELF...

YES... Compare Chesterfield with the brand you've been smoking... Open a pack... enjoy that milder Chesterfield aroma.

And—tobaccos that smell milder smoke milder. So smoke Chesterfields—prove they do smoke milder, and they leave NO UNPLEASANT AFTER-TASTE.
