Chairman Urges Faculty, Students to Donate Blood

With the blood donation drive for whole blood for wounded men in Korea only 10 days away, Jan. 22, students and faculty members who have not yet signed pledge cards were urged to do so as soon as possible by Donna Mary Brennan, campus Red Cross chairman, and Herb Nill. Miss Brennan and Nill are co-chairmen for the University blood drive.

The co-chairmen stressed the need for immediate action because of the nearness of the deadline for turning in pledge cards and the parental releases.

Men's pledge cards and releases will be due to Herb Nill by 5 p.m. Wednesday. They may be turned in prior to that time to house presidents, or, in the case of off-campus men, they may be dropped in one of the two boxes which are located in the Student Union lobby and in the Co-op.

Women's pledge cards are due to Leslie Tooze at Kappa Alpha Theta by 5 p.m. Monday. They may be turned in before that time to house presidents, or, for off-campus women, dropped in the aforementioned boxes. The parental releases will be due at the same time as the men's, 5 p.m. Wednesday, also to Miss Tooze. Married women under 21 don't need releases.

Faculty pledge cards may be mailed or turned in to Howard Lemons, assistant to President Newburn, at Johnson Hall in time for him to receive them by Monday.

Any student under 21 who will not be able to have his parental release signed by his parents and returned to him in time for him to turn it in by the deadline may call Miss Brennan at Kappa Alpha Theta in order to make some arrangement to enable him to donate blood Jan. 22.

Tyler Takes Leave

Miss Leona E. Tyler, associate professor of psychology, has been granted one year's sabbatical leave by the state board of higher education.

During her leave, Miss Tyler will continue a research project on children's interests and attend the University of London if the world situation does not intervene.

Veterans Must Sign To Continue State Aid

All veterans on state aid should sign up for the state aid program for winter term if they wish to continue it, the veterans administration office announced Tuesday. Those who do not sign immediately will be dropped from the program.

Campus Mixer on Tap Tonight

The first all-campus mixer will be held from 9 to 12 tonight in the Student Union soda bar.

There will be no admission charge to the optional-date affair, which dance committee members, sponsors of the mixers, say will eventually be held in the ballroom.

Dancing will be featured, with the soda bar juke box supplying the music. Various other types of entertainment will be offered. Checker and chess sets, and all types of playing cards may be obtained at the main desks. Card tables will be set up in the commuter's lunch room at the west end of the soda bar.

The mixers, proposed by the Student Union dance committee, headed by Ralph Hillier, were approved fall term by the Student Union board. They will be held every Friday night for the rest of the term, the last one being scheduled for March 3.

Dimes Chairman Petitions Due Today

Deadline for petitions for chairmanships of the campus March of Dimes campaign is noon today. The petitions are to be turned in to the ASUO office in the Student Union.

The campus chairman will be in charge of directing promotive activities. The drive, held for the purpose of securing funds to fight infantile paralysis and originally founded by the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, begins Monday.
