

Ducks Clip Idaho; Nab Second In ND

By Phil Johnson

Coach John Warren's high-flying Oregon Ducks rose from the depths of the Northern Division cellar to smash the Idaho Vandals 60-56 and 62-56 Friday and Saturday nights in McArthur Court, and move into a second place tie in the ND standings.

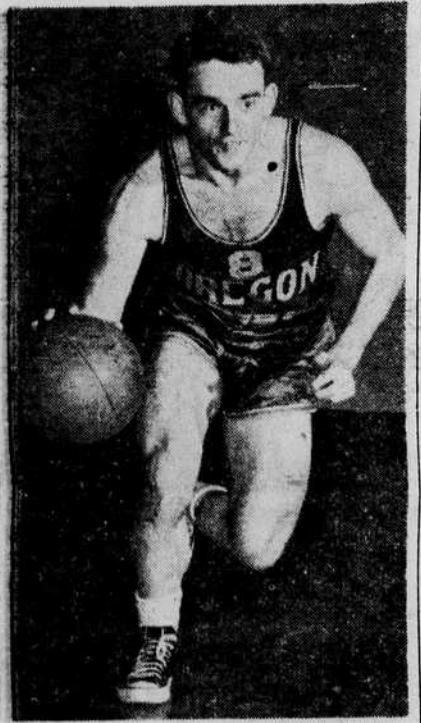

Although they were forced to overcome a 27-18 Vandal halftime margin in the opener, the Webfoots seized an early lead during Saturday's clash, and they never relinquished that advantage.

Friday's slow-starting battle saw Idaho with a slim 1-0 lead at the end of the initial four minutes. Moments later, Duck Center Jim Loscutt sank a field goal to give the Webfoots a 2-1 margin.

Vandals Lead at Half

The Ducks pushed ahead 13-10, but the Vandals outscored them 17-5 during the remaining minutes of the first half. Reserve Center Hartley Kruger was the big gun in this Idaho barrage as he tossed in four field goals.

The 27-18 Vandal intermission lead was gradually decreased during the opening minutes of the second half. After Idaho pulled ahead 39-33 on Vandal Forward Herb Mead's second and final two-pointer of the contest, the Ducks began to close the gap.

JACK KELLER

A field goal by Oregon Guard Jack Keller, another two-pointer by Loscutt, and a free throw by Forward Bob Peterson reduced the margin to 39-38, setting the stage for another Loscutt field goal which gave the Ducks a 40-39 advantage.

Reed Bothers Ducks

The Ducks scored another ten points before Idaho Forward Dick Reed calmly swished a perfect gift toss to deadlock the score at 50-50. Reed, the high scorer for the evening with 16 points, despite the fact that he was the sole Vandal under six feet, swished another field goal to give his squad a 52-50 margin.

Peterson knotted the count at 52-50, Idaho Center Bob Wheeler bounced in one free throw and swished another, Reserve Oregon Center Jim Vranizan again tied the score, and two Vandal gifters provided Idaho with a short-lived 56-54 margin.

Mel Streeter, Duck substitute forward, tied the score at 56-56 with his second two-pointer of the half, and then the victory hopes of the gigantic Vandals were killed when Jack "The Giant" Keller swished a perfect one-hander from just outside of the key.

Barclay Sparks Ducks

Saturday's tilt featured an early

3-0 Vandal lead, achieved by a Sam Jenkins free throw and a beautiful set shot from the corner by Reed. After 4 minutes and 45 seconds had elapsed, the Ducks finally reached the scoring column when Sophomore Forward Curt Barclay terminated a fast break play with a lay-in field goal.

Barclay added a free throw, and the score was deadlocked 3-3. Peterson's field goal a few moments later gave the Ducks a lead that was never overcome by the Moscow hoopsters. Oregon pulled away, 9-4, 20-11, 28-21 (halftime), and 47-33.

Sparked by Reed, the Vandals rallied and cut the margin to 54-52. At this point, Jack Keller again delivered the death blow to Idaho victory hopes as he sank a gifter for a 55-52 Oregon margin and a long one-hander to make the count 57-52.

Ducklings Split Pair With Rooks

Although the 13-game Oregon Frosh winning streak was smashed by 48-43 by the Oregon State Rooks Friday night in McArthur Court, the Ducklings bounced back to easily defeat the Baby Beavers 61-51 Saturday night on the same floor.

Friday's loss was the sixth setback in the last 44 games for Coach Don Kirsch's powerful Ducklings. All six losses were received at the hands of the Rooks.

Frosh in Early Lead

Although the Frosh took a 27-23 halftime lead in Friday's ill-fated encounter, the Rooks later knotted the score at 36-36. Two free throws by Duckling Barney Holland, who had been shifted to forward from his former guard position provided a 38-36 lead for Coach Kirsch's Frosh, but the Rooks gradually pulled ahead 43-40.

Two more Duckling gift tosses narrowed the advantage to 43-42, but Rook Guard Ron Fundingsland broke the Oregon hopes with another Baby Beaver field goal. The final score was 48-43.

Saturday's battle was only 25 seconds old when Rook Guard Bob Frantz potted a free throw for a 1-0 lead. The Frosh came back with a free throw by Forward Ron Phillips, and field goals by Forwards Kenny Wegner and Bob Hawes.

Rooks Close Gap

Increasing the lead to 17-5 and 21-9, the Frosh held a comfortable but short-lived advantage. With slightly more than two minutes remaining in the half, Fundingsland stole the ball and sank a field goal to put the Rooks ahead 31-30.

The Frosh gained a permanent lead just before the intermission when Hawes sank a 15-foot one-hander for a 35-33 Frosh advantage.

The Ducklings increased the margin during the second half and won with ease, 61-51. It was their fifth triumph in six starts this season.

Intramurals See Stitzer In 12-11 Win

By Jay Fournier

Intramural basketball wound up another week of action as six games took place on the P.E. course Friday. Walkaway scores were the order of the day, with Stitzer Hall's 12-11 squeeze over Phi Kappa Psi the only tight contest.

Other games Friday saw Lambda Chi Alpha toppling Delta Upsilon 24-11, Phi Gamma Delta outdistancing Gamma Hall 27-14, Alpha Hall edging Pi Kappa Phi 13-8, Sigma Alpha Mu crushing Chorney Hall 24-6, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon drubbing the Legal Eagles 20-11.

Lambda Chis Rally

Scoring 18 points in the final half after leading 6-4 at the intermission, the Lambda Chis drove to an easy win over the DUs. A combination of a fast-breaking offense and a stout defense enabled the winners to gain their wide victory margin. Green and Doolittle each scored five points to lead the winners, but the Dus' McConnel paced all scorers with six.

Failure of the Phi Psis to score when they had control of the ball in the final seconds of the game gave the Stitzer team its narrow win. The game was close throughout, with the score tied at six-all at the half. Stout scored five for the winners, while Cooley had eight for the losers.

Trailing 8-7 at halftime, the Fijis canned 16 points in the third quarter to coast to an easy victory over Gamma. During that torrid period, the Fijis scored 13 points without interruption. Blunt of the Fijis led all scorers with nine tallies.

Alpha Nips Pi Phis

A scoring lapse in the third quarter on the part of the Pi Phis enabled Alpha Hall to pull away for an eventual 13-8 win. Marshall with six for Alpha and Musgrove with five for the Pi Phis were high scorers.

Jumping to a 10-0 lead over Chorney Hall, the Sammies bounced their rivals 24-6 in a not too exciting game. Dominance of the backboards played a big part in the Sammies' victory.

In a game that was a cross between football, ice hockey, and soccer, with a little basketball mixed in, SAE won out over the Legal Eagles. Dignan netted seven points for the winners, and Rose had four in a losing cause.

Three Oregon Football Stars Picked in Pro Player Draft

Three University of Oregon football players—two seniors and one junior with a year of eligibility remaining—were chosen in the National Football League's player draft in Chicago Thursday and Friday. The teams thus gain exclusive pro bargaining rights with the players involved.

Earl Stelle, three-year letterman, quarterback, and Dick Daugherty, junior lineman, were picked by the Los Angeles Rams, while the San Francisco 49ers obtained rights to Ray Lung, stellar guard and a standout lineman in the last East-West Shrine All-Star game in San Francisco.

The Rams already have two former Oregon stars, Norm Van Brocklin and Woodley Lewis, on their roster.

The Emerald was unable to learn last night whether any of the Oregon players would accept a pro contract if offered one.

Other Northwest players picked in the draft included LaVerne Torgeson, Washington State, and John Thomas, Oregon State, New York Yankees; Roland Kirkby, Washington, Los Angeles; King Block, Idaho, Los Angeles; Gordon Hanson, Washington State, Detroit.

Unbeaten Teams Now Cut to Two

NEW YORK—(P)—College basketball emphasis moved out of the district attorney's office today and back onto the hardwood where chief interest was focused on Long Island University's ambitious trip west.

There were no new developments over the week-end in the latest New York "fix" scandal. The big shock instead came from Norman, Okla., where top-ranked Oklahoma A. and M.'s 18-game, two-year winning streak was snapped last night by Oklahoma, 44-40.
