Hunter Hall, Phi Delts, and Sigs Capture Wins in IM Competition

The Hunter Hall "A" team managed to eke out a 22-18 victory over Sherry Ross in the most interesting of three intramural basketball contests Wednesday afternoon.

Phi Delta Theta shifted its potent "B" machine into high gear to win 34-9 over Sherry Ross.

Sigma Chi experienced little trouble with an outmanned Sigma Phi Epsilon squad, winning 23-4 in another "B" game.

Dorm Competition Rugged

The Hunter-Sherry Ross tilt saw the two well-matched teams tied 10-10 at the half and 15-15 at the three-quarter mark, with little more than a minute to play, the score stood 19-17 in favor of Hunter.

Sherry Ross Forward Cameron Thom hit a free throw to narrow the margin to a single point but Hunter pulled ahead again on a basket by Dick Stearns and a free throw by Tom Moss, winning 22-18. Hunter Forward Don Hull caged 10 points to lead all scoring and also did yeoman duty on the backboards.

Ron Strickling of Sherry Ross accounted for seven points, while his teammate, Lee Jackson, hit six. Play was spirited and rough in all stages of the game.

Phi Delts Start Slowly

The Phi Delt "B" team, which is loaded with tall, talented athletes, was off to a slow start against the Sherry Ross "B" squad, and the best the fraternity men could do at the half was a 12-5 margin.

As the third period started, the Phi Delts began to roll. They flashed precision shooting and ballhandling to fashion a 14 point third quarter; the score was 26-7 going into the final canto.

The Phi Delts then coasted in to a 34-9 decision. Jim Livesay checked in with 12 for the winners, and tall teammate Rod Slade was close behind with 10. Center Joe Almond earned seven of those nine Sherry Ross points.

S. C. Gridder Active

The Sigma Chi team was made up of several who looked like football players. It turned out that one of them really was—Bob Sanders, All-Coast Duck fullback in 1949, and late of the professional Philadelphia Eagles, played forward for Sigma Chi. He played good basketball, too, scoring six points and showing considerable ball-handling ability.

His teammate, Swede Johnson, was high for the game with eight points. Sigma Chi could muster only a 7-2 lead at the half, but their superior height and heft made a runaway out of the second half, and they trounced the fighting Sig Eps by a 23-4 score.

Yong, Yun, Chil Axed by Boston

Among the eight marathon trainees listed were Ham Ki Yong, Song Kil Yun, and Choi Yoon Chil, who finished one-two-three here last year. In 1947, Yon Buk Suh was the first Korean victor.

An army travels on its stomach, but some individuals travel on their gall.

Duck Hoop Artists Head for Moscow

Oregon Ducks, their fate in the current Northern Division basketball fight in the balance, entrained for the Palouse hills at 9:45 p.m. yesterday in Portland.

Captain Will Urban was left behind in Eugene. Physicians and Urban's coaching staff decided that the risk of permanent injury, to Urban's ailing foot did not justify his making the trip.

Doctors said, however, that the tall forward will be completely in shape for the Washington State series here Feb. 13 and 14.

Frosh Met OCE Late Last Night

Winners of 15 out of their last 16 games, the University of Oregon Frosh battled the Oregon College of Education varsity hoop aggregation last night in the OCE basketball court at Monmouth. The score was not available as the Emerald went to press.

Coach Don Kirsch's Ducklings met the OCE quintet in McArthur Court last December and walked away with a 66-55 decision.

The Wolves also lost a 56-52 skirmish with the Oregon State Rooks, who have dropped two out of three games with the Oregon Yearlings. The Frosh defeated the Rooks 46-42 and 61-51, and the Rooks captured a 48-43 triumph in the other encounter.

Duckling Guard Kenny Wegner is the highest scorer on the Yearling squad, although he tallied only four points against the Lebanon High Warriors Friday night to raise his season's total to 82.

Wegner is followed by Forward Barney Holland, who was an all-state guard for the Marshfield Pirates in 1949. Holland, who has scored 59 points, dropped in 12 of them against Lebanon.

Guard Bob Hawes is third in the Oregon scoring parade with 48 counters, half of which were scored during his last two appearances—against the Oregon State Rooks and Lebanon.

Forward Ron Phillips closely follows Hawes with 44 points. Other Frosh scorers include Forward Don Siegmund, 31; Center Doug Rogers, 26; Center Leon Keefe, 19; Guard Ron Keil, 8; Guard Clark Hollis, 6; Center Phil Barter, 4; Guard Gene Beck, 4; and Forward Don Hedgepeth, 3.

Athletic department officials commented yesterday that, while Urban would undoubtedly be of high value to the team in the Idaho and WSC games, "he'll need his right foot for walking long after the next four games are over."

Coach John Warren took with him 12 players. They will stay in Pullman over the weekend, traveling Friday and Saturday to Moscow for the Vandal games.

The regular starting five for Friday's contest will probably be Forwards Curt Barclay and Bob Peterson, Center Jim Loscutt and Guards Jack Keller and Mel Krause. Keller will be floor captain for the Webfoots.

Also making the trip to the high country are Centers Henry Bonemann and Chet Noe, Forwards Mel Streeter, Jim Vranizan and Keith Farnam, and Guards Ken Hunt and John Neeley.

FBI Agents Follow

BOSTON—(P)—Unable to do it with one, the FBI will have two of its agents trying to break Don Gehrman's 36 consecutive mile victory streak in the Boston Athletic Association's indoor track meet Saturday night.

Twice in as many weeks, Agent Fred Wilt has been unable to beat Gehrman, a Milwaukee insurance specialist, to the tape. Now Wilt has called upon Horace Ashenfelter, attached to the Boston FBI office, for help.

Ashenfelter, one of the best of the current two-milers, has agreed to drop down to the mile and attempt to force Wilt to do 3.05 for the first three-quarters. Wilt hit that point of last week's Millrose Mile in 3:06 and was exactly a second behind when Gehrman finished in 4:07.5.
