ecorate Chairman Dewey Wilson and a treasurer's report by Ed Peterson.

Wilson explained activities and plans of the Student Union standing committees and also presented a recommendation by the directorate that the SU resume check room service.

Williams Rejects Proposal

The recommendation was rejected by Dick Williams, Student Union director, on the ground that the costs of maintaining that area of the SU required a reduction of expenditures. Check room service is now being provided for non-student functions only, Williams said. These groups assume checking costs, he explained.

Williams said the recent drop in University enrollment was costing the SU $3,000 and that by discontinuing check room service $2,200 of this amount could be made up.

Graduate Induction Postponement Now 'Legal' Says Headquarters

Official word concerning the choice of service and the 30-day induction postponement for graduates was received Wednesday by Ray Hawk, director of men's affairs, from the state headquarters of the Selective Service System.

This is the first information received locally from official sources regarding the matter.

Quoting a joint release of the Department of Defense and the Director of Selective Service, the state draft headquarters points out that "The Secretary of Defense, General Marshall, issued an order officially rescinding, in the case of college students, the interservice agreement of Aug. 9, 1948."

Under this agreement no armed service would accept voluntary enlistments after a man had been notified to report for his pre-induction physical examination.

Groupings Reopened

At the same time Major General Lewis B. Hershey, director of selective service, announced that he would "reopen, in the last month of the college year, the classification of all students who were ordered to report for induction during the year, but whose induction was postponed" by an amendment to the Selective Service Act, "and who desire to volunteer by enlistment in a service of their choice."

This action cancels all previous orders to report for induction, and renews the right of students to enlist in any branch where openings are available.

No Obligation Noted

In making known his intention to reopen classifications Hershey "emphasized that no change in obligation of students to serve was contemplated."

Text of the telegram received by the state director of selective service from Hershey is:

"Postpone induction for 30 days of all college students who are being graduated at this time and having their statutory postponements terminated for that reason. This 30 days' postponement is to enable such graduates to obtain employment in essential industry. Upon showing of such employment local boards should be requested to reopen the cases of such registrants and consider classification anew."

New Union to Better Dad's Day, Feb. 23-25

By Marilyn Patterson

On Jan. 28, 1950, a male figure could be seen beating his way through snow and wind. He was heavily burdened, and could hardly keep his eyes on the lights of the train depot as he fought his way toward it.

That was "Dad—Oregon's Man of the Half Century," coming down to visit son or daughter and the 299 other fathers for Dad's Day weekend.

In the depot, he met Hostess Bobbie Chambers and some Skull and Dagger men who took care of his luggage. Then off to the campus!

Group to Interview King Candidates

Semi-finalists for the title of King of Hearts, to reign over the YWCA-sponsored Heart Hop, will be interviewed beginning at 6:30 p.m. tonight in the Student Union. Connie Ohlsen and Pat Johnson, co-chairman of the selection committee, have announced.

Six finalists will be selected in tonight's judging. Their pictures and personal interviews will appear in the Emerald as soon as possible. Gretchen Grefe, publicity chairman, stated Wednesday.

Semi-finalists are Pierre Pasquo, Alpha Tau Omega; George McMath, Beta Theta Pi; Dick Fuhr, Campbell Club; Dick McLaughlin, Chi Psi; Fred Schneider, Delta Tau Delta; Jerry Irion, McChesney Hall; Mike Lally, Phi Gamma Delta; Wilson Wilt, Phi Kappa Psi; Martel Scroggins, Phi Kappas Sigma; Merv Hampton, Sigma Alpha Mu; Curt Finch, Sigma Phi Epsilon; and Henry Wedemeyer, Sherry Ross Hall.

Posters regarding the Heart Hop will be distributed to living organizations over the weekend, and flying speeches with the final King of Hearts candidates will continue through Thursday of next week, Jody Greer, promotion chairman, disclosed Wednesday.

Another Mixer Set for Friday

Crowd participation dances and three acts of entertainment will highlight the mixer to be held from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight Friday in the Student Union Ballroom.

Getting more "coed cooperation" is the main objective of the dance, Ralph Hillier, chairman of the SU dance committee explained.

All houses are to announce the dancing during Friday night dinner hour.

Special emphasis is placed on the stags of both men's and women's living organizations to attend, Hillier concluded.

That evening Dad watched our Oregon Webfoots lick Washington Huskies 63 to 60.

Sunday morning church services centered around paternal interests. Even downtown store windows had welcome displays!

Yes, Dad had a good time last year in spite of the snow. The 23rd weekend celebrated in his honor is scheduled for Feb. 23 to 25, and preparations are under way right now to make his stay really packed with interest.

SU Luncheon Site

His luncheon will be in the Student Union—has he seen it yet? He will watch our hoopsters battle the Washington State Cougars Feb. 24.

However, there is work to be done. A contest will be held to award the living organization with the highest percentage of invitation letters sent to fathers. Three cups will be given.

Living groups again will compete in the sign contest. Rules for which will be published in the Emerald later. An award is also offered for this.

Dad will even get a special Emerald.

Have you written your dad yet?
