

Linguists Plan 2-Act French Play For Feb. 16-17

"Le Corsaire," a two-act comedy by the contemporary French playwright Marcel Achard, will be presented by the foreign language department at 8 p.m. Feb. 16 and 17 in the new Experimental Theater in Villard.

The play, which was first performed in Paris in 1938, is a parody on the Hollywood film industry. The production is divided between scenes of actual historical happenings and Hollywood's effort to re-produce them.

The play will be presented in French under the direction of R. L. Picard, professor of romance languages.

Stage sets will be done by James Ivory.

Kings of Hearts To Be Questioned At 'YW' Dinner

Kings of Hearts and a "heart specialist" will be featured at a YWCA Sophomore Commission dinner at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday in Gerlinger Hall.

House representatives are requested to turn in their money and pick up tickets by 5 p.m. today at the YWCA, according to Chairman Mary Alice Baker.

Finalists for the King of Hearts contest will be interviewed as to their qualifications for the crown by Dr. O. R. Chambers, speaker for the current Marriage and Family Series, as a special feature of the program.

Planning the dinner are Mary Ellen Burrell and Karen Eremeef, membership; Mimi Jones and Sue Lichty, dinner; Janis Evans, program; and Harriet Vahey, tickets.

The dinner is open to all sophomore women.

The Oregon Supreme Court meets in both Salem and Pendleton.

Portland is the only city in Oregon which has a mayor-commission form of government.

Books from the Oregon State Library are loaned without charge, although the borrower pays all postage costs.

Kappa Highest, Phi Psis Second In Dimes Drive

The March of Dimes wound up its 1951 campaign on the Oregon campus with a total collection of $431.74. Phi Kappa Psi and Kappa Kappa Gamma topped the living organizations in contributions.

Bob Wilkins, Phi Kappa Psi representative, collected $30.50 and Sally Stone, Kappa Kappa Gamma representative, collected $38.

Carson Hall placed second in the women's group with $30.16, Joanne Forbes is the representative; Sigma Kappa was third with $13.60, Diana Ketteringham, representative.

Sigma Alpha Mu was second high in the men's group with $29, Merv Hampton, representative; Pi Kappa Alpha, third, $20.33, Dick Graves, representative.

Contributions turned in by the various living organizations Thursday sent the total amount reported soaring close to last year's collection. Some houses have not reported their contributions, and Lillian Schott, chairman of the drive, asks that representatives turn the money in to her at the Sigma Kappa House or to Joyce Rathbun at the Delta Gamma house.

Miss Schott stated that she is very satisfied with the results of the drive.

University collections will be added to the Lane County fund, constituting .9 per cent of the county goal of $50,000. According to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, 50 per cent of the funds collected will remain in the chapter for treatment of local victims.

Cold Weather Halts SU Flagpole Work

The current cold weather spell is holding up construction of the new flagpole in front of the Student Union, I. I. Wright, superintendent of the physical plant, reported Thursday.

The foundation will be poured for the pole, which will be about 60 feet tall, as soon as the temperature is high enough for concrete pouring, Wright said.

A hole about three feet in diameter and approximately eight feet deep, has been dug for the foundation, at the spot where the flagpole will be located—next to the walk leading to the SU front entrance and to the University Post Office.

Senior Rides

7. Men must be released on public domain.

8. Anything obviously detrimental to the good standing of the University or the fraternity system will be considered a violation of this code and the fraternity involved will be fined $50 by the Inter-Fraternity Council.

The exclusion of drinking on senior rides was felt by the council to guarantee the senior ride tradition. If not forced to drink, men would be able to think more clearly and the danger of physical injury would be removed, the council agreed.

Bad publicity and destruction of private property resulting from senior rides were cited by the council as major reasons for the abolishing of alcohol.

Members of the committee which drew up the modification resolution were Will Urban, Hap Englebart, DeWayne Bills, Chuck Olson, Jim Bernhart, and Bob Welsh.

In other IFC action Glenn Holden and Will Urban were appointed by president Bill Harber to investigate the possibilities of raising the fraternity GPA through the exclusion of graduate students' grades from the men's averaging process.

The group also heard discussion concerning the high cost of intra-mural bowling.

The compromise between the Inter-Fraternity Council and the Inter-Dorm Council regarding freshman pledges will be the central issue when the IFC meets Feb. 15 at Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Sabine on Regional Staff

Members of the Oregon Association of Journalism Advisors will hold a regional conference in The Dalles today.

On the staff for the conferences are Gordon A. Sabine, dean of the Oregon School of Journalism, and Miss Florence Sweet, OAJA president and advisor of the Pendleton High School paper.

Other regional meetings will be held at Milwaukie Feb. 8, and at Salem Feb. 9.

ROTC Begins to Select Deferrable Students

The process of selecting freshman and sophomore Reserve Officer Training Corps students for draft deferments has started, according to Col. Frank R. Maerdian, University military department head.

Col Maerdian anticipates that final selection of basic students for the advanced program will be completed by March 1.

Enabling freshmen to apply for advanced ROTC training is a recent change, with such application previously limited to sophomores. Both Army and Air Force students are affected.

Final selection of basic applicants for the advanced program will depend upon the individual's academic grades, ROTC grades, high school and university leadership records, and applied Army and Air Force mental potential tests. Student applicants selected for deferment will be required an agreement stating completion of the course they will:

1. Sign an advanced tract.
2. Attend a six-week camp at the end of the year.
3. Accept a commission as a Second Lieutenant in the Air Force reserve upon completion of prerequisites.
4. Serve two years as a commissioned officer call from the Secret Army or Air Force.
