Letter To Dad

Eugene, Oregon
February 12, 1951

Dear Dad,

You've heard of Queen for a Day, no doubt. Well, I've got news for you. There may be no long red carpet or heralds to sound their trumpets, but we've chosen you Oregon's King for a Day.

The reception you'll get here on campus will be nothing short of a royal greeting. And wait till you see the "palace"! The Erb Memorial Student Union building is new this year, and elegant in every sense of the word. Plate glass windows and designs in marble will take the place of embroidered tapestries and big brass statues, but we'll wager any past monarch would give his crown jewel for a peek at the ultra-modern "S.U." Yes sir, and we'll have a luncheon for you in style there.

You'll be able to see the grand ballroom, art gallery, bowling alleys, anything your royal heart desires (and under one roof!). The Student Union building is the hub of everything on campus. My friends go there for coke dates, committee meetings, lectures, concerts, dances, movies, and just plain "browsing" in a room full of books for that purpose. It's one part of a wonderful school that you should get acquainted with as I have.

As King, you'll be called upon to cast your vote for one of three lovely princesses, who will reign over your stay as Dads' Day Hostess. I'll go with you to the luncheon Saturday, and we can see our Webfoots battle University of Washington hoopsters in the evening. Of course, you'll have official duties, such as attending business meetings and electing officers for the coming year.

Your entire domain here on the campus is buzzing. Dad, in preparation for your weekend Feb. 23 to 25. Please try to make it, won't you? Fill the gas tank on the royal chariot, Your Majesty, and roar down here! We're expecting you.

Your loyal subject,

Inter-Racial Fraternity Elects Burger President

Theodore W. Burger, junior in journalism, has been elected pledge class president of Alpha Phi Alpha, student inter-racial fraternity recently established on the Oregon campus.

De Norval Unthank, graduate student in architecture, is vice-president of the group and Chester Daniels, senior in business administration, will serve as secretary-treasurer.

The national charter for the new social organization is expected to arrive this week.

A petition of students wishing to organize a chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha on the Oregon campus was approved last week by the Student Affairs Committee. There will be no living group connected with the new fraternity.

Students who petitioned the committee were Burger, Unthank, Phillip Moore, Daniels, W. E. Johnston, Theodore H. Martin, and Gideon W. Jean-Jacques.

Music Honorary Takes Inspection

Donald W. Allton, assistant professor of music and province governor of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, men's music honorary, inspected chapters of the fraternity on his trip to Seattle and Tacoma last weekend.

While on the trip, Allton organized a planning meeting for the province convention to be held in Seattle this spring.

Conservative Policy a 'Must' For Co-op Store, Says Henson

"We must use a conservative policy in buying books," G. L. Henson, manager of the Co-op, stated Tuesday, when asked why books in demand by the students are often late in arriving from the publishers.

The fault does not lie with the Co-op, but with the publishers, who usually allow only a 10 to 20 per cent return value on books not bought by the students, Henson continued.

The Co-op often receives word from the publishers that a certain book will be ready for publication on a certain date. When the date arrives, the publishers do not have the books ready. This negligence on the part of the publishers results in late arrival of the books, the Co-op manager explained. The Co-op bases its estimates for purchases on past years, or on reports submitted by professors. However, sometimes the professors' estimates are not wholly accurate, Henson said.

"A professor may say that he will have 80 students in a class; then 50 students will show up," the Co-op manager said.

The surplus of books left over, with no market, results in a loss to the Co-op, because the books cannot be returned to the publishers at full value.

"This situation causes the price of books to rise to offset the loss suffered by the Co-op, so we follow a conservative policy when ordering books to protect both the students and the Co-op," Henson concluded.

Skull and Dagger Votes on Change

Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary, will meet this week to vote on proposed changes in membership rules.

The changes have been tentatively worked out by a three-man committee appointed at last week's meeting.

Music Majors To Present Joint Recital

Ellen Liebe, violinist, and Joyce Everson, pianist, both seniors in music will present their joint public recital at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the School of Music Auditorium.

LaVerne Watts, junior in music, will accompany both women.

The first number is a contemporary violin-piano duet by Hindemith, "Sonata," in two parts, "Ruhig bewegt," and "Langsam Sehr behaft."

Miss Everson will play the next two numbers, Bartok's "Mikrokosmos," including movements entitled "Ostinato," "From the Diary of a Fly," and "Dance in Bulgarian Rhythm," and Debussy's "Preludes," entitled "Voiles" and "La Serenade Interrompue."

Miss Liebe, accompanied by Miss Watts, will present Bach's "Sonata" with "Allegro," "Adagio ma non tanto," "Allemanda," and "Gigue." Then Miss Everson will give three Brahms numbers, "Ballade in G minor, Op. 118, No. 3," "Intermezzo in A Major, Op. 118, No. 2," and "Capriccio in B minor, Op. 76, No. 2."

Miss Liebe and Miss Watts will end the concert with Wieniawski's "Concerto No. 2 in D minor, Op. 22," the Allegro movement.

Admission is free to the public.

Regardless whether you plant radish, beet or lettuce seeds the same kind of weeds seem to come up.
