

Ducks Lead Northern Division

Oregon's high-flying Ducks dropped the Washington State Cougars 66-57 Tuesday night in McArthur Court to seize undisputed possession of the coveted first place position in Northern Division standings. Details on sports page.

Navy Board Offers Brass, Exemption

A Naval Reserve Officer Candidate board will interview applicants at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the Naval Reserve Training Center, 1520 13th Ave. W., Lieut. Commander George W. Ennis announced Tuesday.

University students will be draft-exempt if they join the Naval Reserve before they are classified.

The board will interview applicants who are interested in becoming naval officers. University students in their freshman, sophomore, or junior years are eligible to make application for this program.

Applicants must meet the following requirements:

1. Be a United States citizen.
2. Male applicants must have reached their 17th birthday, and female applicants must have reached their 18th birthday on the day of enrollment (about July 1), but they must not be of such an age that they will reach their 27th birthday on July 1 of the calendar year in which the education requirements and two summer training periods will be completed.

3. Must join the Naval Reserve.
4. Be enrolled and be in good standing in an accredited college.
5. Be able to complete two summer training periods not later than the summer immediately following the receipt of a Bachelor's degree.
6. Be pursuing a course of instruction other than that leading to a theological degree, or a degree in medicine and dentistry.
7. Be physically qualified.

Interested students should contact Ennis immediately at the Naval Reserve Center and be present at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the Training Center, as the selection board will be available at this time only.

'Cotton Pickers' Ball' Workers Plan Intermission Entertainment

Intermission entertainment for Saturday night's "Cotton Pickers' Ball" is shaping up as plans for the annual senior-sponsored event move forward.

Tickets to the very-informal affair are on sale at the Co-op and Student Union, and will be sold at the door. Price is $1.75 per couple. Dress has been announced as cotton dresses or print skirts and peasant blouses for the girls, jeans and plaid shirts or anything else appropriate for the men.

Chairman Steve Church will double on piano in combination with Bob Wheelless playing bass to provide a little boogie for intermission. A comedy skit will feature Bob Chambers and Marcia Knosher, known for her Nellie Lutch-like presentations.

A third act on the yet-incomplete slate will feature a group from Carson hall doing what Church termed a "slightly Americanized" version of the Hula.

Letter Contest Winners, Sign Rules Announced

Kappa Alpha Theta and Phi Gamma Delta were named winners in the Dads' Day letter contest Tuesday by Kay Kuckenberg, promotion chairman.

Twelve living organizations went out 100 per cent, causing the final judging to go on a time basis.

Emeralds were available in the "Shack" at 6:30 a.m. Monday for representatives to deliver at their houses. The two winners returned with sealed, addressed letters by 6:55 a.m.

Other living organizations having one hundred per cent are Alpha Chi Omega and Alpha Xi Delta, second and third place winners in the womens' division; and Kappa Sigma and Alpha Tau Omega placed second and third for the men.

Eight other groups with perfect participation are Alpha Omicron Pi, Beta Theta Pi, Chi Omega, Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Delta Delta Delta.

"Over 500 letters clipped from the Emerald were mailed home to dads," Miss Kuckenberg said.

Rules for sign contest judging were submitted by Jeanne Hoffman, decorations chairman. They are as follows:

1. Material expenses are not to exceed $10.
2. Signs are to be two-dimensional.
3. No movable parts are to be used.

Each living organization is urged to plan its sign as soon as possible, although judging will be at 4:45 p.m., Feb. 23. Originality of theme, color, and sentiment will be considered.

Fun House to Offer Booths, Food, Games

"With living organizations participating with booths, especially with the themes they have selected, the WAA Fun House Carnival promises to attain its usual success," stated Sarah Turnbull, promotion chairman for the carnival.

The Carnival which is to be held following the basketball game with Washington University on Friday, Feb. 23, will be located in the unfinished gym of the men's PE building. No money will be exchanged at the booths, but instead scrip will be sold at the door.

"In previous years this annual event was known simply as a carnival but this year with the theme of "Alley of Oopdee-doo" and since it gave more leeway for themes the Fun House idea seemed more appropriate," added Miss Turnbull.

Dads' Day Registration Contest Rules Listed

Awards will be given to living organizations with the highest percentage of fathers registered for Dads' Day weekend, Feb. 23 to 25, according to Sue Huggins, awards chairman.

First prize will be the J.F.C. Merrifield cup, originated in 1950, now held by Pi Beta Phi. The Paul T. Shaw award, a silver tea set, will be awarded the group in second place. Delta Delta Delta now has this prize. Hunter Hall, holder of the O. L. Laargaard cup, will give it to the living organization with the most freshman dads registering.

Presentation of awards will be by the newly-voted president of Oregon Dads at half time of the Washington game Feb. 2. Rules for the contest are as follows:

1. Dads must be registered by 5:00 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 24.

2. The awards shall be based from a list compiled in the Office of Student Affairs which has an accurate count of the number of the students residing in each living organization, to help compute percentages.

3. Only dormitories and cooperatives will compete for the freshman cup, but all groups will compete for the other two awards.

4. Only dads of living organizations are counted. Fraternity men and sorority women living in halls of residence whose fathers are registered will be credited to such halls.

5. Carson Hall will be considered as a whole, rather than by floors.

6. Fraternity men and sorority women who live with parents in Eugene will not be counted.

7. Legal guardians will be considered "Dads" for this contest.

8. Prizes are awarded annually. If a group wins a trophy three times in succession, they may keep the cup. In case of a tie, both are considered winners. They will share the award, each keeping it for one-half of the school year.

9. Winners pay for their own engraving on cups.

Dads' Hostess Pictures Due

Today is the last day to submit photographs for Dads' Day Hostess candidates. Paul Lasker, special events chairman, is closing the contest at 5 p.m.

Any student may enter a picture of a married woman, either a University student or wife of a student.

Photographs must be black and white, with only the contestant in the picture, and must have a return address on the back.

Entries are being received at the ASUO office in the Student Union and at Alpha Tau Omega.

Tickets, Housing Available Now

Housing reservations and tickets to the basketball games and luncheon for Dads' Day weekend Feb. 23 to 25, should be procured now, according to Dave Rodway, general chairman.

All Eugene hotel and motel accommodations have been listed with Ann Darby, hospitality chairman, and arrangements may be made by calling her.

Reserved tickets to the Oregon-Washington games Feb. 23 and 24 may be obtained through Dick Moore, game chairman, for $1.80. General admission tickets costing $1.20 will be available until game time.

Luncheon tickets are being sold by Mrs. Lowe in 216 Emerald for $1.25. The luncheon will be held in the Student Union.

Longevity Formula

WESTFIELD, N. J. —(P)— Mrs. Katherine Greensalde Lyon will be 104 today thanks, she said, to good food, a little walking and a wee nip of whiskey each night before going to bed.

Dull Presents Sharp Theory

A new theory on the success of "Operation Tack" has been brought forth on the campus.

He said later it was just a verbal slip—but Paul S. Dull, professor of political science and history, in explaining to his Far East class the UN plan for disrupting Chinese Red supply lines by crippling their rolling equipment, came out with this one:

"In Operation Tack, United Nations planes have flown over the lines and dropped some 4 million tacks on the Chinese rear position."

Oregana Sales to End

Oregana sales will end at 5 p.m. today, Bob Schooling, business manager, announced. All living organization representatives should turn their money in at the Oregana business office by that time.

The yearbooks are on sale in the Co-op, Student Union, and all living organizations for $6. After today students will be able to order Oreganas in room 307 of the SU.

Alpha Xi Delta and Pi Beta Phi, the first women's organization to reach a 100 per cent quota received free Oreganas. Phi Sigma Kappa and the next men's living organization to hit the 100 per cent mark will also receive Oreganas free.

Legislature Trip Registration Begins

Registration for the trip to the State Legislature being sponsored by the Young Republicans Feb. 22 will begin at 10 a.m. today in the main lobby of the Student Union.

The Salem trip will cost $3.25, including transportation by chartered bus and luncheon, Don Collin, president of the Young Republicans, said. The trip is open to all students, with no restriction in number, he said.

Registration will continue until 6 p.m. today and from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thursday.

Who'd of Guessed? Fewer Jackasses!

SALEM —(P)— The lowly and oft-ridiculed jackass is declining rapidly in numbers.

The house sent to the senate today a bill to repeal the law which requires registration of jackasses and stallions.

Women Slate Dinners Thursday at Houses

Hazel Schwering exchange dinners will be held Thursday, at 5:30 p.m. in women's living organizations.

Women participating will contribute 10 cents each at their own living organization to the Hazel Schwering scholarship fund. The money should be turned in to the Office of Student Affairs by Friday.

The scholarship is awarded in memory of former Dean of Women Hazel Schwering, and is presented to a deserving junior girl each spring term.

Sponsored by Heads of Houses, the dinners provide most of the scholarship funds. Barbara Bates, Schwering dinners chairman, is in charge of group pairings.

Living groups are paired as follows:

Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Gamma; Alpha Delta Pi, Delta Zeta; Alpha Gamma Delta, Gamma Phi Beta; Alpha Omicron Pi, Hendricks Hall; Alpha Phi, Highland House; Alpha Xi Delta, Kappa Alpha Theta.

Ann Judson, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Carson 1 and 2, Pi Beta Phi; Carson 3, Rebec House; Carson 4, Sigma Kappa; Carson 4 and 5, Chi Omega; Carson 5, University House; Delta Delta Delta, Susan Campbell; Ordes, Zeta Tau Alpha.
