Sammies Drop Eagles In 'A' League Action, ATO Outscores Jets

Sigma Alpha Mu, Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Chi and Delta Tau Delta won their "A" league basketball games on Tuesday, while Stan Ray Hall and the Yeomen defaulted to Sigma Phi Epsilon and Theta Chi respectively.

The Sammies defeated the Legal Eagles 22-9. The first half was close with the Sammies ahead 13-7. In the second half the Sammies took complete control of the game from the tiring lawyers, holding them to two points while scoring nine. Ginsberg of the Sammies was high man with eight points while Landerholm scored four for the losers.

Jets Downed

The ATO's swamped the Jumping Jets 44-11. Ahead 20-3 at the half, ATO coasted in the second half to its lopsided win. Ernie Baldini scored 20 points, the year's highest total, followed by Ken Torgeson with 12.

Sigma Chi outran Hunter Hall by a 24-15 margin. Hunter was ahead 3-2 at the end of the first quarter, but lost its lead to the Sigs in the second frame, 6-2. However, in the second half, Sigma Chis speed and height was too much for Hunter. Sigma Chi Jim Calderwood was high man with 11 points.

Behind 6-5 at the half, the Delts rallied to a 17-10 victory over Sherry Ross hall. Superior height of the Delts was the main cause of the victory. Jack Kearns of the Delts was high man with six.

In handball Sigma Chi won from Sigma Alpha Mu, 2-1. Mr. E. D. Perry, Director of Intramurals, said "This marks the end of a five-year domination of handball by the Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity. May the new champion be as worthy of this honor as the ex-champs."

Kirsch Schedules Baseball Meeting

Order of 'O' to Meet

Order of the "O" President Don Peterson announced Tuesday that there will be an O. of "O" meeting at noon today at the Delta Upsilon house. All members are asked to attend.

Cinder Man Sets Record In IM Meet

Ray Packwood of McChesney Hall set a new intramural track record in the 40-yard hurdles as Campbell Club took a narrow 36-31 win over McChesney Monday afternoon.

Packwood finished in 5.5 seconds, clipping one-tenth of a second from the former mark. He was followed by Jack "Flying" Sausser of McChesney and Campbell's Ron Dysinger.

Packwood also took a first in the pole vault as he topped the bar at the 11-foot mark. Kay Williams of Campbell Club was second and teammate Homer Bowman finished in third place.

Elvin Riddle of Campbell Club captured first place in the broad jump with a leap of 18 feet, 6 inches. Second place was seized by Wagner of McChesney, and another dormitory lad, Al Martin, finished third.

In the other aerial event, Sausser flew to a height of five feet, three inches in the high jump. Dysinger took runner-up honors.

The Cooperative boys took first place in the shot put when Don Witercraft hurled the spheroid 33 feet and 11 inches. McChesneyite Franklin Kincaid was second and Campbell's Don Kalberer third.

The three-quarter mile run was won by Jack Loftus, who was the captain of Salem High's state cross-country champions in 1948. Fred Owens of McChesney was second and John Sharkey of Campbell Club third. The winning time was 4 minutes and 4.9 seconds.

Halftime Deadlock Severed by Ducks, Second Tilt Today

By John Barton

Oregon's Ducks jumped into undisputed first place in Northern Division basketball standings with a 66-57 win over Washington State college in McArthur court last night.

Webfoot Forward Bob Peterson was admitted to the University Health Service shortly after last night's game. Health service officials declined to comment on his condition, saying only that there was a good chance he will be released early today.

The Cougars were practically two different teams in the first and second periods of the game.

In the first half, the visitors shot a phenomenal .560 average, hitting 14 of 25 attempted field goals. But in the second half, Washington State was a changed outfit, and hit the hoop for a low percentage of .212.

For Oregon, Sophomore Curt Barclay "found" himself in last night's game. The lean forward made eight

ND STANDINGS

	W	L	Pct.
OREGON	7	4	.636
Washington	6	4	.600
Wash. State	5	4	.556
Idaho	5	7	.417
Oregon State	4	8	.333

field goals and seven free throws for a total of 23 points. Peterson and Center Jim Loscutoff each grabbed 15 points.

Half-Time Tied

The game at half-time was tied at 35-35, and it was anybody's ball game. In the first half, while Washington State had been hitting .560, the Ducks weren't exactly cold, hitting for .400. Each team took 14 field goals, but Oregon shot more.

But when both squads returned for the second half, Oregon immediately took the initiative and built up a 42-35 lead before WSC got a single counter. That was with 3 minutes and 45 seconds gone in the half—Bob Gambold turning the trick with a quick spinning layup.

Oregon then went on to make it 47-37 before the WSC second platoon went in and Pat Streamer managed a free throw on a foul by Henry Bonnemann.

Webfoot Coach John Warren fought the Jack Friel two-platoon system last night by using two platoons of his own. Each time the second Cougar unit came off the bench, Warren waved his hand and five new Ducks would go into the game.

Second Crew Gains

Actually, the Cougars gained a few points each of the four times that the second platoons were inserted into the game. But an advantage was seen by the Webfoots, in that the insertion of a Lemon and Green second unit held the number of personal fouls on the first five to a minimum.
