

Campus Autos Need Stickers By Wednesday

Student parking stickers must be displayed on cars by next Wednesday or a $1 fine will be levied, Mike Adams, chairman of the Student Court, stated Wednesday following a regular session.

Cars must be registered at the Office of Student Affairs to receive a sticker, he said.

Ten students appeared before the court Wednesday night, with one plea of "not-guilty" entered. This case was referred to the student affairs office with a guilty recommendation. The owner of the car was not driving it at the time of citation. He will appeal the case.

Adams pointed out that according to law the owner is responsible for his vehicle at all times.

A total of $11 in fines was collected by the court. A number of students had previously forfeited bail at the student affairs office.

Soprano, Baritone Perform Tonight

Florence Vanderwicken, soprano, and Herman Gelhausen, bass-baritone, will present a faculty recital at 8:15 p.m. tonight at the School of Music Auditorium. The singers will be accompanied by Stacey Green and William Woods, of the Music School, and the University String Quartet.

Miss Vanderwicken and Gelhausen will sing as duets Bach's "Mein Freund ist mein" (from the cantata "Wachet Auf"), Purcell's "My Dearest, My Fairest," and Handel's "Piu amabile belta" (from "Julius Caesar").

The second portion of the program will consist of "Nacht und Traume" by Schubert, "Ye Now are Sorrowful" (from "Requiem") by Brahms, "Der Schmied" by Brahms, and "Las Locas por Amor" by Turina, sung by Miss Vanderwicken.

Gelhausen, accompanied by the University String Quartet, will sing Toch's "Poems to Martha," including the "Eventide," "In the Train," "Spring," and "Farewell," for the third part of the program.

Miss Vanderwicken and Gelhausen will conclude with Chausson's "La Nuit," Brahms' "Phanomen," Franck's "The Virgin at the Crib," Brahms' "The Sea," and Schumann's "Awaken, My Darling."

Members of the University String Quartet are George Boughton, first violin; Mary Kapp Allton, second violin; Edmund A. Cykler, viola; and Milton Dieterich, cello.

Next event on the School of Music calendar is a senior recital in violin by Ann Kafoury, Feb. 22.

Portland is the only city in Oregon which has a mayor-commission form of government.

McCall to Speak at Firesides

Roy McCall, head of the speech department, will speak at the third of a series of Alumni Firesides at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union.

One of the top men in the field of speech correction in the nation, McCall carries on a constant crusade to help people express themselves better.

As head of the speech department at the College of Pacific in Stockton, Calif., he was instrumental in obtaining finances and beginning the speech clinic there.

The subject of speech correction is one of his primary interests, and he can imitate with his voice 17 common speech errors. One person in three has these defects, McCall has noted.

These informal firesides are designed to bring alumni members closer to the University faculty by presenting discussions of mutual interest. A coffee hour will follow the talk.

Board Discusses Cost of Food In SU Cafeteria

Current food prices in the Student Union cafeteria were discussed in a regular meeting of the SU Board Wednesday night.

ASUO President Barry Mountain, a member of the board, said that he has heard many comments on the high food prices at the cafeteria. He suggested a cut in quality to bring down costs.

Mountain's statement was answered by Dick Williams, SU director, who maintained that cafeteria and soda bar patrons were really more interested in quality than low prices.

Williams cited the recent cut-back on the price of doughnuts as an example. He said that more doughnuts of the 8-cent variety were sold than the 5-cent type now offered.

Williams went on to say that prices in the SU foods area are actually lower than most places in Eugene. Other than the increase in the cost of coffee, there has been no price rise in the SU since President Truman's declaration of a national emergency, he said.

The director ended by saying, "Our policy is defensible because we insist on serving food of the highest quality."

AGS to Meet Today

Members of the Associated Greek Students will meet at 4 p.m. today at Delta Gamma.

The group will discuss the new constitution, and the preferential voting system.

IFC Meeting Called Off

The Inter-Fraternity Council will not meet tonight due to the appearance of the Harlem Globetrotters in McArthur Court. IFC president Bill Harber said Wednesday.
