Wesley's Visitor To Talk on India

David Levering, regional traveling secretary for the World Students Service Fund, will be guest speaker at Wesley Foundation at 4 p.m. Feb. 25. Marian Briner is in charge of his visit.

Levering will speak on conditions in India. "He has first-hand knowledge of student needs in Southeast Asia," Miss Briner said yesterday.

While in India Levering worked for the World Student Service Fund. While on the Oregon campus he will help outline plans for WSSF Week which will be held here in April.

He was graduated from Redlands College in 1950 and since that time has been distributing funds among students in Asia in connection with WSSF.

All students are welcome to the address.

Footsore, Moitle? It's Your Goidle!

OKLAHOMA CITY, (AP)—Women, take it from an expert, your girdle may cause your feet to ache.

That is what Dr. H. L. Collins told the Southwest Chiropody Congress meeting in Oklahoma City Wednesday.

Dr. Collins says women would have fewer foot worries if they didn't hook their nylons so tightly to their girdles. The tug curls up their toes, the foot expert claims, causing ingrown toenails and other disorders.

Collins advises buying hosiery a half size too big and fastening supporters closer to the top of the stockings.

"It's better to be a girdle-hitcher than a cripple," Collins said.

H. K. Newburn, ASUO President Barry Mountain recommended the appointment of Miss Kellogg to replace ASUO Vice-president Herb Nill, who had previously resigned.

Moore replaces Robeson Bailey, associate professor of English, who is not on the University faculty this term. Scroggin, as new business manager of the Emerald, is an ex-officio member replacing Don Thompson, who was business manager the first half of the year.

Duck Track's

when he led both quintets with 13 recoveries.

Loseutoff saw 30 minutes of action; the famous Don Barksdale, rated as the outstanding amateur hoop star in the nation in 1949, played for 40 minutes and took only 12 rebounds.

Barclay, Peterson, Krause, and Streeter also can be expected to provide strong backboard competition for the Washingtonians. The Duck-Husky games should rank among the top local hoop performances of the season.

Architect Conference Schedules Discussion Of A.I.A. Problems

The Northwest Regional Conference of the American Institute of Architects opens today on the University campus, with Sidney W. Little, dean of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts, as host for the one-day meet.

The conference, which is one of ten scheduled throughout the country, is designed to supply information for the benefit of the commission for the survey of education and registration for the AIA.

Edwin Burdell, director of Cooper Union in New York City, will preside over the general discussion session.

University men participating in the conference, in addition to Little, are H. K. Newburn, University president, and Frederick Hunter, chancellor emeritus of the Oregon State Board of Higher Education.

Ralph Walker, president of AIA, will outline the purpose of the survey and nature of the problems of the architecture profession at 11 a.m. in the Student Union.

A discussion session will be held during the afternoon, and during the evening dinner session the members will have the opportunity to amplify upon any points and reach possible conclusions.

Candidates for Hostess Reduced to Six Finalists

Mrs. Bernie Tiland, Mrs. Richard Smart, and Mrs. Gene Rose are the three finalists for Dads' Day Hostess chosen from photographs at a meeting of the judging committee at 4 p.m. Thursday in the Student Union.

Paul Lasker, special events chairman, notified the winners Thursday afternoon and scheduled a meeting for 8 p.m.

Mrs. Smart, the former Beverly Zamsky, thought the phone call was a practical joke and replied to Lasker's congratulations, "Oh, that's fine." Smart, a fifth-year architecture student, submitted his wife's photograph unknown to her.

An Oregon student for two years, Mrs. Smart was enrolled in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts and was affiliated with Alpha Phi sorority. She is now a stenographer at Winn, Shinn, Snyder and Co.

This contestant is a 23-year-old brunette with dark brown eyes who looks forward to Dads' Day because "Dick's father is coming down."

Another architecture student's wife is ex-Oregon Stater Helen Roth Tiland, whose husband is a senior.

Mrs. Tiland is 21 and 5 feet 6 inches tall. She has long brown hair and a ready smile, and is employed as a food cost accountant for the Student Union cafeteria and soda bar.

Mrs. Rose, the third finalist, was unavailable Thursday night.

Judges were A. L. Peiterson, assistant professor of business administration; K. W. Onthank, graduate placement director; Capt. N. N. Mihailov Jr., assistant professor of air science; Mrs. Edith R. Jacobs, counselor for women, who substituted for Golda P. Wickham, director of women's affairs; Sidney W. Little, dean of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts; the Rev. Wesley Nicholson, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Eugene; and Jack Foster, Eugene businessman.

One of the finalists will be chosen by dads' vote at registration, Feb. 24.

Tickets for the Washington basketball games Feb. 23 and 24 are available in the general admission section for $1.20 and may be obtained at the McArthur Court ticket office.

Luncheon reservations at $1.25 may be made with Mrs. Lowe in 216 Emerald.

Physics Assistant Receives New Post

E. Ben Nehr, graduate assistant in physics, has accepted a position with the engineer research and development laboratory, Fort Belvoir, Va., where he will work under Dr. Fred W. Paul, former associate professor of physics at the University.

Nehr, who left last week for his new job, was in his final year of work towards the doctor's degree, and was doing research in microwave spectroscopy under W. V. Norris, professor of physics.

B'Ball Assembly Planned Friday

A special basketball assembly will be held next Friday in the Student Union, Barry Mountain, ASUO president, announced Thursday.

Plans for the assembly are not complete yet, he said. However, President H. K. Newburn, Coach John Warren, and the basketball team will probably be on hand.

Senior Ball

Decorations for the dance will be in line with the "Cotton Pickers" theme. Chairman Bonnie Birkemeier and committee have arranged a "typical" cotton pickers' back porch on the ballroom's stages as a band platform. Walls will be decorated with cartoon figures picking cotton from cartoon cotton bushes.

Entertainment, with added acts to come, will feature several comedy skits and a boogie combo of Steve Church on piano and Bob Wheelless on bass. Bob Chambers and gravel-throated Marcia Knosher will present a comedy routine, a group of Carson girl will give a "slightly Americanized" Hula, and Jack Faust and Cy Newman will add corn to the fire.

"The committee wishes to repeat that all classes are invited to this dance," Church said. "We feel that in presenting a low-cost dance with appropriate dress the students will be given a dance that should be a lot of fun even if not traditional."

Chairmen of committees for the dance included Joe French; chaperones; Rog Nudd, promotion; George Oberteuffer, programs; Virginia Kellogg, tickets; Bonnie Birkemeier, decorations; Stan Turnbull, publicity; Donna Mary Brennan, Leslie Tooze and Emily West, entertainment. Class officers working on the dance were Church, Vice-president Bob Pierce, Secretary Leslie Tooze, and Treasurer Florence Hansen.

Three Firms List Job Opportunities

News of job opportunities in three concerns has been received by the graduate placement office. The jobs offered include sales personnel and display advertising work for graduates or other students.

A major rubber company is looking for graduates interested in sales careers, and a meat packing concern also lists several openings.

Two rental display advertising personnel are being sought by a western Washington newspaper.

Further information about the jobs and application blanks for them may be secured from the graduate placement office, Emerald Hall.

The happiest time of the holiday season is when the last guest has gone home.

Petitions Due By 8 Sunday

Petitions to fill vacancies on the campus Red Cross Board should be turned in to Donna Mary Brennan at Kappa Alpha Theta by 8 p.m. Sunday instead of Monday as previously announced.

Offices to be filled on the board include those of president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary, publicity chairman, disaster chairman, chairman in charge of entertainment tours to the Veterans' Hospital in Roseburg, and chairman for Red Cross blood drives.

The disaster chairman helps the Lane County chapter of the Red Cross accomplish its work on the campus.
