

Huskies Enter Webfoot Territory Today, Work Out on Igloo Maple

Washington's Huskies will arrive in Eugene at noon today for their two-game series with the Oregon Ducks tomorrow and Saturday nights.

Coach Tippy Dye's men will work out in McArthur court at 5 p.m. It will be the first time this season the Huskies have used a basketball on the Igloo maple.

Meanwhile, Oregon Coach John Warren gave his Webfoots a light workout yesterday in preparation for the important series, which may well determine the winner of the Northern Division this year.

Light Session Today

The Webfoots went through a rigorous session Tuesday night. Practice today will be of light variety.

Against the Washington squad, the Feathered Five faces several serious offensive threats. The basket-hitting skill of Frank Guisness is a threat from any part of the court.

Guisness usually plays on the right side, out front. From there, he can drive in rapidly for set-up shots, or stay outside and pot long shots. Guisness is number three in ND scoring.

Houbregs Threat

Another threat in Purple and Gold colors is Bob Houbregs, the 6-foot, 7-inch Husky center. Houbregs specializes in a mean hook shot from the key. Most coaches consider that the only way to stop him is to keep the ball out of the key.

Houbregs at present is second in division scoring, behind Oregon's Bob Peterson.

The rest of the Washington threat lies in Doug McClary, another 6-7 man, in the forward position with Guisness. The latter plays out front most of the time.

Also out front is a little man well-known in Mac court—Louie Soriano, playing his last year for Washington. Soriano is a dangerous set-shot artist, and generally starts the Washington plays.

LaDon Henson fills out the Seattle lineup at the other guard position. He played forward last season, but Dye has moved him to the front.

Urban Ready

Good news in the Oregon camp is that Captain Will Urban is ready to go back into action at last. Urban has been laid up a good part of the season with bone trouble in his right foot.

Urban could be used this weekend as a replacement for Forwards Curt Barclay or Bob Peterson. It is doubtful if the lanky senior will start either game.

Minturn, ATO Victors In Tight IM Contests To Advance in Playoffs

By Jim Mendenhall

Highly touted Minturn hall barely edged out Sigma Alpha Mu by one point in a class "A" intramural basketball semifinal contest Wednesday.

Alpha Tau Omega also had trouble before stopping Sigma Nu in a B semifinal clash, 22-21.

Sigma Alpha Mu apparently hadn't heard that Minturn was favored to beat them easily because the Sammies came within a hair of winning before finally bowing 36-35.

Kappa Sigs Fall In Cinder Meet; Shot Record Set

Alpha Tau Omega powered over Kappa Sigma yesterday in intramural track, 46-22.

Kappa Sig Tom Novikoff established a new record in the IM shot put, when he tossed the steel ball 42 feet, 3 3/4 inches.

He beat the former record held by ATO Jerry Shaw by a fraction of an inch. Shaw took second.

Third in the shot was ATO Jerry Moshofski.

The other events resulted in:

Broad jump—ATO took all three places. Harold Brainerd was first with a jump of 18 feet. Second was Dave Crockatt, followed by Ken Torgessor.

Hurdles—Kappa Sig John Martel won in a time of 5.8 seconds; second was ATO Dan Cudahy and Kappa Sigma yesterday in intra-Kappa Sig Ken Sweitzer took third.

40-yard dash—ATO swept this event, with Brainerd winning in 4.9 seconds, Jack Bonner taking second, and Mel McDaniel third.

High jump—First was a tie between ATO Cudahy and Kappa Sig Martel. Height was 5 feet, 9 inches. Tied for third were ATO's Monte Brethauer and Gay Krahn.

Three-quarter mile—ATO Joe Kennedy took first with a time of 3 minutes, 48.7 seconds. Brethauer took second and Kappa Sig Eldon Bushnell was third.

Pole vault—Pete Trim of Kappa Sig and Ron Reeves at ATO tied for first with a leap of 10 feet. Bushnell was third for Kappa Sig.

ATO won the relay event with a team of Brainer, McDaniel, Crockatt and Bonner.

IM Cinder Slate

Intramural track today will feature Sigma Alpha Epsilon against Sherry Ross hall. Scene of the battle will be the unfinished area of the men's P.E. building.

Led by Jerry Ginzberg's 15 point performance, the Sammies were the surprise of the season when they came from behind a 33-21 deficit in the third period to nearly tie the score.

After barely leading 12-11 in the first half and 26-21 at the start of the fourth period, the Minturns began to find the net and rolled up a 12 point lead early in the stanza.

Ginzberg then retaliated with a pair of field goals to end the scoring drought and the Sammies were off to the races. Leading 36-33 with a minute to play, the winners began to stall but Ginzberg stole the ball and broke through for a lay-up to make the final score 36-35.

Tom High Winner

Joe Tom was the man who saved the day for the otherwise cold Minturns as he dropped in 12 counters and was a brilliant play-maker. Ginzberg's 15, however, was high for both sides.

Ray Coley scored nine for Minturn and Jerry Barde potted eight to gain runnersup honors for SAM.

It took an overtime period to do it, but Alpha Tau Omega pulled through with a 22-21 victory over Sigma Nu.

Neither team seemed to have luck in finding the hoop in the rough fouling contest.

Hull Game Tight

With the count tied up at 21-21 at the end of regulation playing time, it was up to varsity footballer Larry Hull to sink the lone free-throw that iced up the contest.

Both quints were overly cautious in the overtime period and took a few shots.

After Hull had dropped in his gift toss the ATO's went into a stall for the remaining minute and 30 seconds.

Sigma Nu was trailing 21-20 with one minute to play in the fourth quarter but Carlton Moran was fouled by an over-anxious ATO and came through with the point that deadlocked the contest.

Leigh Campbell led scoring for ATO with 7 counters while Irwin Schoonover sank 6 for Sigma Nu.

Duck Skiers Off for WSC, ND Slat Meet

Five members and the adviser of the Oregon ski team leave today for the Washington State college Ski Bowl near Emida, Ida, where they will participate in the Northern Division ski meet Saturday and Sunday.

The four-way meet will feature cross-country racing, the slalom, the giant slalom, and jumping. Oregon, Idaho, Oregon State, Washington, and Washington State will compete in the meet.

The Oregon squad, advised by Professor Frank Lacy, includes Neil Mathison, Saul Zaik, Stewart McCollom, George McMath, and Dick Portwood.

Duck Gets Orders

Another Oregon skier, Clay Foster, received orders last Tuesday from the Air National Guard outfit in Boise and probably will miss the meet.

The Ducks took part in their first meet of several seasons last weekend in Reno. Oregon placed fifth, finishing ahead of UCLA and the College of Pacific.

The Washington schools are expected to finish high on the list in the ND meet. The Huskies and Cougars are well-equipped with Scandinavian stars.

The jumping event will feature the famed Torbjorn Falkanger, representing Washington State, and Christian Moen, unofficial 1950 world champion now enrolled at Seattle.

WSC athletic officials rate Cougar Allan Fisher as the outstanding cross-country skier scheduled to compete, and Washington's Gene Brady is considered to be Fisher's chief competitor.

PKP Trips ATO In IM Pin Meet; Keg Movies Set

Bowling movies will be featured in the Student Union recreation area at 4:30 and 7 p.m. today. Another series will be shown next week.

In intramural bowling last night, results were:

Pi Kappa Phi knocked the pins from under Alpha Tau Omega, 31-. Sid Swearingen of the winning squad had a high series of 467. ATO

Steady Replacement

KEN HUNT, steady Webfoot replacement, will be out to help Oregon crowd the University of Washington Huskies down the Northern Division ladder when the two teams tangle in McArthur court tomorrow and Saturday nights.
