

Ducks Test Huskies In ND Crucial

Oregon's Ducks square off against the Washington Huskies at 8 p.m. today in McArthur Court. Tied for first place in the Northern Division, the two teams will be out to dislodge one another.

Probable Washington starting line-up tonight will be Forwards Frank Guisness and Doug McClary, Center Bob Houbregs, and Guards Louie Soriano and LaDon Henson.

Oregon Coach John Warren is expected to begin the games with his regular starting quintet of Forwards Bob Peterson and Curt Barclay, Center Jim Loscutoff, and Guards Jack Keller and Mel Krause.

The games may also be a scoring battle between Peterson and Houbregs. Peterson, leading ND scorer, is currently two points ahead of the tall Husky.

The powerful University of Oregon Frosh hoop squad faces the Salem High Vikings at 6:15 tonight in the McArthur Court preliminary to the Oregon-Washington clash.

Near Forfeit In SAE Track Win;

Sigma Alpha Epsilon squashed Sherry Ross Hall 67-1 in Thursday's intramural track meet.

The 2-man dorm team was no match.

Len Diederichs erased the oft-broken shot-put mark as he tossed the ball 42 feet, 8 inches for SAE.

Newburn Bans Long Distance Info

University telephone operators have been instructed to refuse information on collegiate basketball game results to long-distance callers in an effort to curb long-distance wagering on college basketball.

Instructions went to the operators from University President H. K. Newburn after an appeal from the Eugene Register-Guard sports department. The newspaper office already enforces the policy, and four local radio stations are being asked to do the same.

The move follows close on the heels of the nationwide scandal concerning basketball game "fixing".
