

Peterson Leads ND Scoring

Bob Peterson and Jim Loscutoff again lead Oregon's scoring parade in the 1951 basketball season.

With two games remaining against Oregon State, Friday in Corvallis and Saturday here, Peterson has the top rung in conference scoring — 181 points.

Loscutoff leads scoring for the total Duck season with 296 points.

Against Washington last weekend, Peterson poured in 40 points, and established a single-game record of 28 points to make a 12.9 points-a-game average.

He scored 7 field goals and sank 14 of 15 gift shots Saturday night to break the former record of Roger Wiley, set in 1949 against Washington.

Peterson and Loscutoff are also on top of the rebound column. Big Pete has picked off 176 as to 155 for Loscutoff. Jack Keller is ahead in assists, with 27.

In shooting average, Mel Streeter leads the Ducks with a .367 mark. Mel Krause is next with .352, and Ken Hunt is third with .337. Peterson has the best free throw percentage, having made .738 of his shots from the gift line. Curt Barclay is next with .731.

Paddle Tourney In Second Round

The University table tennis tourney is in its second round.

Second round matches must be played by 5 p.m. Friday, according to tournament officials. Pairings for the second go are listed on the chart in the Student Union recreation area.

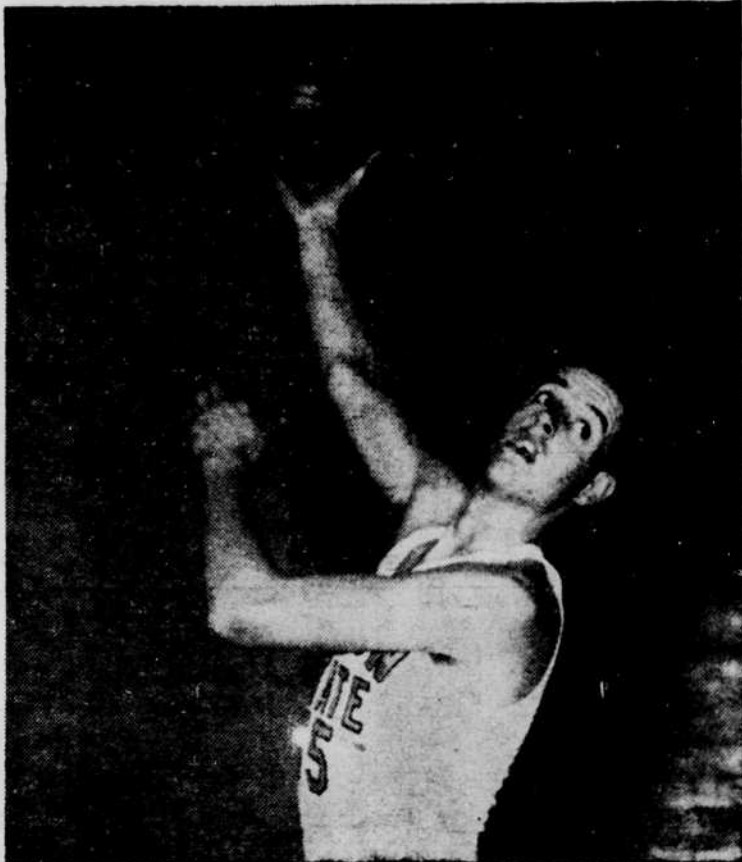

Losers as well as winners must play second round matches. Winners in the second round are to report results to the YMCA office in the SU.

Help Wanted: You

Students interested in being members of the Emerald sports staff spring term will meet at 3:30 and 4 p.m. Thursday in the sports office of the shack. Experience is not a requisite, but it helps. Tentative spring term assignments may be made.

In Spoiler Role

OSC BEAVERS Jim Nau (top), Glen Kinney (above) and Bill Harper will be in the role of spoilers when they meet Oregon this weekend.

Webfoots Prepare For Beaver Foes; OSC Tickets Here

Oregon's Webfoots face the Oregon State Beavers in Corvallis Friday night and in their own McArthur court here in Eugene Saturday.

It will be the first place team (by tie) against the last place team of the Northern Division.

But when Webfoot meets Beaver, standings and pre-game dope go out the window. To stay in or win the ND title, the Webfoots must take OSC twice this weekend.

WSC Preps For Seattle Husky Tilts

PULLMAN—(Special) — Coach Jack Friel's Cougar basketball team will invade the maples of Hec Edmundson pavillion in Seattle to wind up their 1950 season in a two-game stand with the Washington Huskies Friday and Saturday.

Coach Tippy Dye's Huskies, always tough in their own backyard, will be patiently waiting to upset Friel's Cougar crew. Still ranked from their two-game defeat in Pullman, the Huskies will be a rugged team to contend with in Seattle.

In their last meeting this season, WSC humbled the fast-break-Washington series on the Huskies' taking both games, 50-48 and 63-60.

Led by senior guards Bob Gambold, Longview and Leon Mangis, Marysville, as co-captains, Friel's Cougars will attempt the seemingly impossible task of winning the Washington series on the Huskies' portable floor.

Huskies Taller

Although hampered by a lack of height, such as that displayed by Washington's Bob Houbregs and Doug McClary, the Cougar first platoon of Peter Mullins, Sydney, Australia, Eric Roberts, Hollywood, Calif., George Rosser, Bellingham, and Gambold and Mangis, will depend upon their 'tight' man to man defense to halt the Huskies.

Also playing a great role in coming Cougar-Husky series will be the

In earlier games, Oregon trimmed the Aggies twice. Since then the material strength of neither team has changed measurably, except that Oregon has been strengthened by the return of Captain Will Urban to playing fitness.

He has recovered from bone trouble in his right foot, and saw action last weekend against Washington.

Tickets for the OSC game in Corvallis Friday night are on sale today at the Oregon ticket office in McArthur court. These general admission ducats, 750 of them, make up a special section for Oregon fans. Price is $1.50.

In the earlier Duck-Beaver games Oregon won the first, 62-53, and cleaned OSC in the second, 66-47, the latter game being in Corvallis on the Aggie home floor.

So OSC will be out to down the Ducks in the roll of the spoiler. While Ducks and Beavers trade blows, Washington will be playing host to Washington State college in Seattle.

Bowling Picture Featured in SU

Bowling addicts will get a chance to see Ned Day, one of the world's outstanding bowlers, on the screen in the Student Union recreation area this week.

'America Bowls,' a motion picture put out by the National Bowling council, will be screened at 4:30 and 7 p.m. today through Friday and at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in SU room 11.

Nestor Cinder Squad Downed by Phi Delt

Phi Delta Theta moved up the ladder in intramural track yesterday, downing Nestor hall in a quarter-final meet, 39 2/3 to 28 1/3.

Today's meet will feature Sigma Nu against Sigma Chi in what promises to be a tough match.

Nestor's efforts were sharply curtailed in yesterday's meet when Gordy Pynn, runner and broad jumper, had to withdraw from competition after injuring a leg muscle during the broad jump.

The events ended with: Broad jump—Phi Delt Bob Wilcox took first with an even 20-foot jump. Pynn managed second with only one jump, and third was Nestor's Ted Anderson.

High jump—First was Nestor's Don McClure with a leap of five feet, six inches. Three men tied for third place—Nestor's Dale Jolly, and Phi Delt's Lou Urban, Ray Johnson.

Shot put—Mike Sikora of Phi

Delt took first with a toss of 41 feet, 4 1/2 inches. Phi Delt Don McCauley was second, and third place went to Dave Earl of Nestor.

Hurdles—Won by Wilcox of Phi Delt in 6.2 seconds. Second was Nestor's Pete Charlton, and third was McClure of Nestor.

Pole Vault — Jom Jolly went 11 feet to tie for first with Charlton—both men from Nestor. Phi Delt Dick Morse was third.

40-yard dash—Anderson of Nestor was first with a time of 4.7 seconds; Phi Delt's Tom Thorpe and Daryle Nelson were second and third, respectively.

Three-quarter mile—Won in 4 minutes and 7 seconds by Phi Delt Dell Weaver; Chuck Laird was third and Jim Livesay was third—both of Phi Delta Theta.

The Phi Delt's took a token win in the relay in a time of 17.2 seconds. Wilcox, Thorpe, Nelson and Urban ran.
