AWS Issues Constitution

The vice president of AWS shall act in an advisory capacity.
 Sec. 5—Duties

It shall be the duty of the members of the AWS Congress to represent and to express the opinions of their living organizations, to inform said living organizations of all AWS actions and decisions, and to carry out all duties delegated to them by the AWS cabinet.

Article VII—Activity Board

Sec. 1—Name
 There shall be an activity board of this organization to be known as the AWS Activity Board.

Sec. 2—Membership
 Said AWS Activity Board shall consist of the activity chairman from each women's living organization and Orides.

Sec. 3—Meetings
 Regular meetings of the AWS Activity Board shall be held twice a month at the time and place designated by a majority vote of the members.

Sec. 4—Duties
 It shall be the duty of the members of the AWS Activity Board to represent their living organization, bringing all problems and suggestions concerning activities to the board meetings, to stimulate interest in activities at the University of Oregon, and to carry out all duties delegated to them by the AWS cabinet.

Article VIII—Campus Social Chairman

Sec. 1—Name
 There shall be a campus social chairman for the University of Oregon.

Sec. 2—Qualifications and Appointment
 The campus social chairman shall be a senior girl appointed by the President of AWS with the majority approval of the council.

Sec. 3—Duties
 It shall be the duty of the campus social chairman to call and preside over all meetings of the social chairmen of living organizations; to appoint all committee chairmen as the group shall deem necessary; to announce what dress shall be in order for all University sponsored events; and to be a member of the AWS Council.

Article IX—Amendments

Sec. 1
 Amendments to this constitution shall be submitted in writing to the executive council for approval or rejection. If approved, the proposed amendment shall be printed at least twice in the Oregon Daily Emerald, after which it shall be voted on at a special election or at any regular or special mass meetings (at any regular or special election). The Australian ballot shall be used. Of the 100 ballots which must be cast in order to validate an election, two thirds of this said number shall be affirmative in order that the amendment do pass.

Article X—Ratification
 In accordance with the provision for amendments (Article 9, section 1) appearing in the old Constitution for the Associated Women Students of the University of Oregon, this constitution shall take effect, and shall thereafter be the supreme law of the Associated Women Students of the University of Oregon upon submission of this constitution, in writing to the executive council for its approval; and upon approval, the printing of this constitution in the Oregon Daily Emerald at least once; and after printing, the submission of this constitution at an election of the Associated Women Students at which time a special election shall be held and 100 ballots, nominally called Australian ballots, must be cast in order to validate the election, two-thirds of the total number of ballots cast favoring the adoption of this constitution.
