Campus Groups Should Select Weekend Songs

Campus living organizations planning to participate in the Junior Weekend All-Campus Sing should select their songs by the first of spring term, according to Marilyn Thompson and Jeanne Hoffman, co-chairmen of the Sing. Titles will then be submitted to the Sing committee.

The announcement was made Wednesday at the Junior Weekend "Kick-off Luncheon" which officially started proceedings for the weekend activities. Present at the luncheon were the junior class officers, weekend chairmen, Mrs. Golda P. Wickham, director of women's affairs, Olga Yevtich, Student Union program director, and Dick Williams, Student Union director.

Football, Parade Films Set for SU

A special movie of the East-West football game and the Pasadena rose parade will be shown at 4 p.m. Thursday in the Student Union ballroom. The showing is free of charge.

Rudolph Valentino in "The Son of the Sheik" will be presented Sunday at 2:30 and 4:15 p.m. in the ballroom. Charge will be 30 cents. This will be the last SU-sponsored movie this term.

SU Record Concert Scheduled March 27

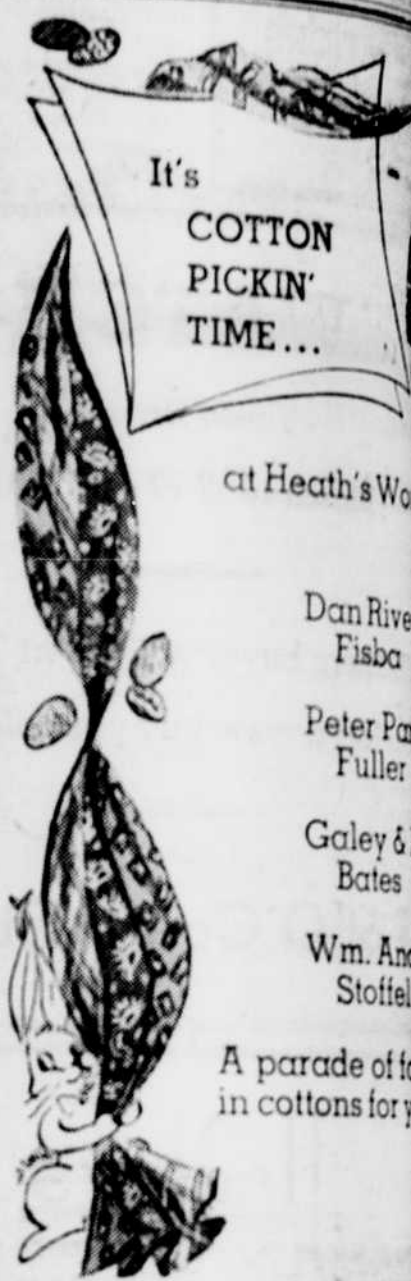

Tuesday, March 27 is the date set for the next record concert in the music listening rooms of the Student Union.

The program, under the direction of Jim Krueger, will include such selections as Concerto in A Minor for harpsichord, flute, violin, and string by Bach, and Oxford Symphony No. 92 in G major by Haydn.

Extra Performance Set

An extra performance of "Good-bye, My Fancy" will be presented next Monday evening in the Arena theater of Villard. There are still some tickets available, because of cancellations for performances this week, Business Manager Virginia Hall announced.
