

German Rearming Talk Slated Thursday in SU

H. Frederick Peters, current director of the American Institute at the University of Munich, Germany, will speak on "What Do the Germans Think About Rearmament?" at 11 a.m. Thursday in the Student Union ballroom.

Morning classes will each be shortened 15 minutes, with the schedule as follows:

- First period: 8-8:35
- Second period: 8:45-9:20
- Third period: 9:30-10:05
- Fourth period: 10:15-10:50

Peters, formerly of Reed College, is now on his second lecture tour of the United States discussing the critical situation in Central Europe. His campus appearance is sponsored by the University Assembly Committee.

For the past two years he has been director of the American Institute in Munich, the first institution of higher learning specializing in American studies under American professors on the continent of Europe.

Peters will appear at an informal coffee hour at 4 p.m. Thursday, sponsored by Mortar Board and the Student Union Board. All interested students and faculty members may attend.

H. FREDERICK PETERS

At 8 p.m. he will speak on "Can Western Europe Be Defended?" at the Veterans' Memorial Building.

ROTC Head Leaves UO

Col. Frank R. Maerdian, professor of military science and tactics and head of the University military department for the past four years, left Thursday for Camp Polk, La., for troop duty with the 45th Infantry Division.

Replacing Col. Maerdian as professor and military department head is Lt. Col. J. H. Cunningham, formerly an assistant professor of military science and head of the Reserve Officer Training Corps transportation department. Col. Cunningham will serve in both capacities until a replacement is appointed by Sixth Army headquarters.

Col. Cunningham has been a member of the University ROTC staff since the fall term of 1949. He is a graduate of Ohio State University, a transportation corps officer of the regular army, and was connected with the Chief of Transportation's office in the Pentagon at Washington, D. C., before joining the University instruction staff. During the war Col. Cunningham served 29 months in the Persian Gulf Command as a battalion commander at an army ordnance depot.

The 45th Division, Col. Maerdian's new assignment, was one of the first National Guard units to be called into active service during the present crisis.

Col. Maerdian's wife and two children will remain in Eugene.

Dorms to Remain On Same Level

University dormitories will operate on nearly the same level this term, Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, director of dormitories, reported Tuesday. The chief exception is Susan Campbell Hall, which will be closed for the quarter.

Hendricks and Carson will be filled to near-capacity to accommodate Susan Campbell residents. All units in John Straub will remain open and no changes will be made in the Vets Dorms, she said. All units will be open except French Hall, which will continue to be used as a study hall.

"The administration decided more would be gained by leaving all units open," she explained. During winter term, plans were made to close one section of the Vets Dorms.

Hawk Delegate To Conference

Ray Hawk, director of men's affairs, is among the more than 250 delegates to the thirty-third annual conference of the National Association of Deans and Advisers of Men being held Mar. 28 through 31 in St. Louis, Mo.

Hawk will be interrogator for the Mar. 29 group meeting on administration of student personnel programs.

Winter Grades Ready

Grades will be given to students at the registrar's office today for those who did not pick them up at the Student Union Tuesday afternoon the registrar's office announced.

They also reported that since advisers were not given a copy of the grade report, those students who wish to change their registration are to take their copy of the grade report to their advisers.

KWAX Schedules First Broadcast Next Wed. Evening

The first broadcast over KWAX, new University FM radio station, will be at 7:30 p.m. next Wednesday, Jack Vaughn, station manager, has announced.

KWAX will be on the air eight hours daily except Sunday when it will broadcast from 3 to 7 p.m.

The show will climax a long process of steps—State legislature approval of the budget, obtaining a license from the Federal Communications Commission, getting nearly $1,500 worth of equipment from a concern in Illinois, not to mention numerous small complications.

Tape recordings of successful broadcasts over KOAC, from which the University operated previous to their acquisition of KWAX, and congratulatory messages from Oregon stations and University officials will be featured on the first show.

Staff Members

Under Vaughn, station manager, are staff members Dave Strauss, business; Janet Harris, music; George Drougas, continuity; Jira Blue, announcing; Lionel Mathews, traffic; and Dick Hardie, program director.

Anyone interested in working at the station may contact one of the staff members at the Villard Studios, as more students will be needed, according to Vaughn.

High Schoolers Set SU High

Attendance at the Student Union during the state high school basketball tournament was at an all time high, according to Dick Williams, director of the SU.

The food sales averaged over 3,000 per day in the SU, and dances held in the ballroom Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday were attended by many students.

The SU building and its facilities were generally treated with much respect by the students attending the tournament, Williams concluded.

Petitions Called For Publications

Petitions for editor and business manager of student publications have been called for by the Student Publications Board.

All petitions are to be turned in at the office of Larry Davidson night manager of the Student Union, at 102 SU. Examples of petitions may be seen at his office any day after 2 p.m. Candidates must have academic clearance through the Office of Student Affairs.

All appointments will be made by the Student Publications Board the night of the interview.

Petitions for editor and business manager of the Oregonian and editor of the Ore-nter are due by 5 p.m. Apr. 6, with interviews scheduled Apr. 12.

Emerald editor and business manager petitions are due Apr. 20, with interviews Apr. 26.

Deadline for applications for editor and business manager of the Piggers' Guide is May 11. Interviews will be held May 17.

Air Force Selection Team Cancels Visit

The scheduled visit of the United States Air Force Aviation Cadet Selection Team to the campus Apr. 3 and 4 has been cancelled, according to a letter received from the Fourth Air Force at Hamilton Field, Calif.

The selection team system has been completely abandoned by the Air Force, which now provides other programs for the recruiting of cadet aviators and navigators.

Board Acknowledges Several Gifts, Grants

Gifts and grants totaling $125,775.74 were acknowledged by the State Board of Higher Education in its regular session March 13.

A $4,000 contribution from the Oregon State Elks Association in support of the program for visually handicapped children at the University of Oregon Medical School ophthalmology department headed the list. A total of $3,345.74 from various donors was accepted for the University of Oregon Foreign Students Service Fund.

Scholarship gifts to the University included $200 from the Mothers Club and $300 from the Oregon Golf Association, Portland. A $100 gift for dental research was given to the Dental School from the Rose City Study Club.

Dental School Grant
A grant of $1,410 for the Dental School was accepted from the Oregon State Board of Health. The Oregon Division of the American Cancer Society granted $2,490 to the Dental School as a partial payment on a grant for the further development and maintenance of a cancer registry in the school.

The Rockefeller Foundation awarded a $100,000 grant to the University of Oregon Medical School for a research project in constitutional medicine, to be conducted under the direction of Dr. Howard P. Lewis and Dr. Joseph F. Griggs, to extend over a five-year period. A number of other gifts were received by the Medical School.

Sabine Appointed

Under personnel changes, Dr. George H. Sabine was appointed visiting professor of political science. Military leave of absence with active duty in the United States Air Force was granted to Alfred C. Shepard, assistant professor and assistant director of the Portland branch, Bureau of Municipal Research and Service.

Elon H. Moore, head of the department of sociology, was given sabbatical leave, with designation of Joel V. Berreman, associate professor of sociology, as acting head of the department.

Students, Faculty Give $2,300 In UO Red Cross Donation Drive

A total of $2,296.27 was donated during the 1951 campus Red Cross drive, according to figures received from Virginia Kellogg, collections chairman.

Of that amount, students gave $828.27 and faculty members $1,468. Eight living organizations reported 100 per cent contribution. Women's houses were topped by Kappa Alpha Theta which turned in $81. Pi Beta Phi, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Chi Omega were the others in the 100 per cent class.

Beta Theta Pi led men's living organizations with a donation of $56. Sederstrom, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Sigma Alpha Mu also reported unanimous contributions.

Women's houses outdid the men's living organizations, $400.41 to $286.73.

Campus Vodvil Show Act, Representative Names Due 5 p.m. Today

Names of the acts for the All-Campus Vodvil Show to be held at McArthur Court Apr. 14, should be turned in to Joan Dysart at the Delta Delta Delta house by 5 p.m. today. The name of the Vodvil representative for each house should also be turned in.

First eliminations for the show, which is being held in connection with Duck Preview Weekend and the World Student Service Fund drive, will be Apr. 10 and 11. Representatives will be notified by post card of the date and hour of the eliminations.

Rules with which the acts must comply are as follows:

Acts must be limited to five minutes.

There will be an expenditure limit of $10.

All acts must be in good taste.

The maximum number of actors will be 20; the minimum will be 5.

No Previous Entertainment

No act is eligible that has previously entertained on campus as such, but members may participate in other acts.

All acts must go through eliminations; eight men's and eight women's groups will be selected for final eliminations.

Freshmen will participate as part of their present living organizations; dorms cannot combine to present an act.

Costumes and simple props may be used; lighting and public address system will be furnished.

Failure to comply with certain of these rules will either disqualify the act or influence the judges unfavorably.

Tickets, which are 60 cents, will be sold to all who wish to attend. Participants will also be required to purchase tickets, as the proceeds will go to WSSF. High school guests, however, will be admitted free.

Judging Basis

Judging will be based on the following classifications:

Staging (props; sound; costumes; smoothness of beginning and end).

Script (continuity; cleverness; suitability).

Performers (stage presence; actual performance).

There will be a total of 50 possible points for each act.

Petitions for judging and awards for the Vodvil Show should be turned in to Anne Graham at Alpha Delta Pi by 4 p.m. Friday.
