

KWAX Initiates Schedule

KWAX stepped over the threshold from the dream of a campus FM radio station to materialization after making its initial broadcast in the form of a special dedicatory program Wednesday night.

At 5 p.m. tonight KWAX will begin its regular schedule at 88.1 megacycles, broadcasting from Villard Hall.

The campus station will be on the air tonight with recorded "Piano Mood." The "United Nations" program will be called "A Whale of a Story" this week. It will be followed by news gathered in the school of journalism.

"There's Music in the Air" will be a recorded session of semi-classical dinner music. "Through the Bookshelves" will be a discussion of current, popular novels by Avis Jones, freshman in speech.

News Program Included

Doug Ambers, junior in political science, will give a news commentary on world affairs. "Radio Workshop" is a transcribed radio program produced by Oregon students. A run-down on the weekend activities in the Eugene area will be the essence of "What's Going On?" by Tru Vosberg, senior in speech.

"Tunes from the Times," folk music from various countries, will be arranged by Elmarie Wendel, junior in speech. Selections from recordings by Mel Torme will be featured on the program "Time for Torme." "Campus Classics," produced by Karl Harshbarger, freshman in speech, will contain only classical music. Following will be recorded semi-classical music as a background for studying, called "Serenade to the Student."

Music, Sports Featured

Next over KWAX will be the "News We Almost Forgot," featuring little-known happenings in the news, by Eddie Artzt, senior in journalism. Disc-jockeys Jim Blue, junior in liberal arts, and Al Hicks, junior in speech, will dispatch popular music over the program "Anything Goes." Following will be a sports round-up by commentator Keith Harry, senior in speech. News from Friday's Emerald will be previewed on "The Emerald of the Air." KWAX will close its schedule with "A Tune to Say Goodnight."

Sports Show to Feature Four Boxing Matches Friday Night

Four boxing matches are on the schedule for Sports Night, scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday in McArthur Court. The event will occupy the second half of the entertainment.

Two University basketball players, Bob Peterson and Jim Loscut-off, will fight one of the matches, according to Barry Mountain ASUO president. Other boxers scheduled to fight during the program are:

Bob Wilcox vs. Joe Kaiser
Joe Richards vs. Charles Oyama
Tom Stratton vs. Neil Tardio
"All these boys are excellent boxers," said W. P. Rhoda, boxing instructor, who has been training

Installation of Lights Nears End

Installation of lamps and standards, the final step in the new campus lighting program, has begun on the first of two new circuits.

The 40 lights on the circuit should be completely installed and the included area should be lighted by Friday night, H. D. Jacoby, assistant superintendent of the University physical plant, said Tuesday.

The circuit will serve the area adjoining 13th Ave.—the old campus on one side, and the west side

Oregon Daily EMERALD

VOLUME LII

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1951

NUMBER 100

UO Singers Will Present Tour Concert Tuesday

The University Singers, 40-voice mixed chorus, will present their tour concert on the home campus at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Student Union Ballroom.

Directed by Donald W. Allton, assistant professor of music, the program will feature Louise Leding, soprano, and the University Male Quartet.

The program consists of classical, sacred, and secular works by such composers as Bach, Brahms, Macfarlane, Beethoven, Palestrina, Gattcherinoff, Gounod, Robyn, Henschel, Loomis, Funes, Klein, Byrn, Cole Porter, Rodgers and Hammerstein, Warren, Niles, Cooper, Treharne, Cain, Weill, and one home-ground work, "Kyrie" by Milton Dieterich, assistant professor of music.

The male quartet is composed of Gary Donlon, senior in business; Robert Henry, junior in business; Malcolm Norton, freshman in music; and Harold Weeks, graduate student in liberal arts. Their contribution is entirely their own, as they practice it outside of regular tour work.

Incidental solos will be sung by Walter C. Martin, baritone, junior in music; Joy Grimstad, soprano, senior in music; and Robert Henry, tenor, junior in business.

Tomorrow's News Tonight on KWAX

Friday morning's news will be heard tonight at 10:50 over KWAX on a five-minute show called "Emerald on the Air."

This evening summary of campus news will be sponsored by the Daily Emerald Monday through Thursday every week. It will include news and features which will be published in the following morning's paper.

Tom King, associate editor of the Emerald, is organizing the show.

Morning Assembly Features WSSF Speaker from India

Dr. Victor Huga Sword, adviser to the Indian Government for students studying abroad; Track Coach Bill Bowerman, and Baseball Coach Don Kirsch will head the bill for this morning's ASUO assembly to be held at 11 in the Student Union ballroom.

Classes will be shortened with the following schedule in effect:

- First period, 8:00-8:35
- Second period, 8:45-9:20
- Third period, 9:30-10:05
- Fourth period, 10:15-10:50
- Assembly, 11:00

Barry Mountain, ASUO president, will introduce Dr. Sword, who will speak on conditions in India where he was a resident for 20 years. His speech will be arranged under the auspices of the World Student Service Fund drive committee, the funds which are to go to students in Assam, India.

During his years in India, Dr.

Dr. Hugo Victor Sword

Better Teachers...

is one of the subjects which will be discussed in a forum on improving education at the University of Oregon. The forum will appear on the Emerald editorial page Friday.

Sword became acquainted with the Indian point of view in education and shifted his interest from architecture to administrative and student work. When he first went to India, Dr. Sword was eminent in the construction of hospitals, churches, residences, school buildings and tea processing factories in Assam.

Dr. Sword has recently completed a lecture and forum tour of the Northwest, speaking on the educational phases of international relations. While in India he became acquainted with such political notables as Prime Minister Nehru, Madame Pandit, and the late Mahatma Gandhi.

"Spring sports" will headline the second part of the assembly. Both Bowerman and Kirsch will give a run-down on baseball and track respectively and members of both teams will be introduced.

USAF to Call Twenty Seniors

Approximately 20 University seniors will go on active duty with the United States Air Force upon graduation this year. Maj. N. N. Mihailov, public information officer of the UO military department, announced Wednesday.

These men will be among 800 Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps seniors from eight western states who will go into active service immediately following graduation.

According to present Air Force policy only students who are graduated in both ROTC and regular college courses will be ordered into active military service. Students with prior military training or those who are taking special courses may receive their reserve commissions before their college degrees and will be given the choice of continuing towards a degree or being ordered into active service.

Five members of the local group reporting for duty in June will go directly to flight schools for pilot training. The remainder will report to the Air Force base at Lackland, Tex., for training.

Maj. Mihailov reported that the names of the students involved will be released at a later date.

Registration Hits 4,260

Registration had climbed to 4,260 students as of Monday evening, according to Registrar Clifford L. Constance.

Constance commented that this was doing "nicely." No comparative figures were available.

Vodvil Auditions Set; Schedule Announced

Auditions for the All-Campus Vodvil Show Apr. 14 will take place at 7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday in McArthur Court. Scheduled times for the acts to appear are as follows:

- Scheduled for Tuesday night at 7:10—Yeomen; 7:20—Ann Judson; 7:30—Theta Chi; 7:40—Sigma Kappa; 7:50—Tau Kappa Epsilon; 8:00—Pi Beta Phi; 8:10—Sigma Phi Epsilon; 8:20—Orides; 8:30—Pi Kappa Alpha; 8:40—Kappa Kappa Gamma; 8:50—Phi Kappa Sigma; 9:00—Kappa Alpha Theta; 9:10—Lambda Chi Alpha; 9:20—Highland House; 9:30—Delta Upsilon.

Wednesday night at 7:10—Campbell Club; 7:20—Hendricks Hall; 7:30—Beta Theta Pi; 7:40—Gamma Phi Beta; 7:50—Delta Zeta; 8:00—Delta Gamma; 8:10—Chi Omega;

Piano Duet to Perform Tonight In Last of Concert Series

Luboshutz and Nemenoff, famous piano duet, will play a return engagement at 8 p.m. tonight at McArthur Court for the Civic Music Association. Students will be admitted on presentation of student body cards.

The two-piano concert will feature Johann Sebastian Bach's "Sicilienne," Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's "Sonata in D Major," Johannes Brahms' "Variations on a Theme by Haydn," Vittorio Rietti's "Suite Champetre," and Johann Strauss' "The Bat," a fantasy on themes from "Fledermaus."

The last time the musical team from Russia and France, recently dubbed "The Peerless Team," was in Eugene was during the 1944-1945 season.

These pianists have made appearances and return appearances with many major orchestras, such as the Boston Symphony, the Philadelphia Orchestra, and the New York Philharmonic.

Playing under the baton of Eugene Ormandy of the Philadelphia Orchestra and with the Little Orchestra Society of New York last season, the piano team played the premiere of the new concerto for two pianos written by Bohuslav Martinu and dedicated to themselves.

Music festivals from Massachusetts to California welcome them

- ga; 8:20—Alpha Delta Pi; 8:30—Alpha Chi Omega; 8:40—Delta Delta Delta; 8:50—Alpha Xi Delta; 9:00—Alpha Phi; 9:10—Alpha Omicron Pi; 9:20—Alpha Gamma Delta; 9:30—Sigma Nu.

From these acts six men's living organizations and six women's living organizations, instead of eight as previously announced, will be chosen to enter the final performance at 8 p.m. Apr. 14. Judging will be done on a 40-point system based upon staging, script, and performers.

Living organizations which have not submitted themes and whose acts are not scheduled, may turn in their themes to Joan Dysart, Delta Delta Delta, for their listing. This must be done by Friday of this week or they will not qualify.

Oregana Position Petitions Due

Petitions for editor and business manager of the Oregana and editor of the Ore-nter are due by 5 p.m. Tuesday. Interviews are scheduled for Apr. 12.

All petitions are to be turned in to Larry Davidson, night manager of the Student Union, at 102 S.U. Applicants must have academic clearance through the Office of Student Affairs.

Appointments will be made by the Student Publications Board the night of the interviews.

Spanish Club to Meet

Members of Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish honorary, are asked to meet at 4 p.m. today in 312 Friendly, according to Anne Insell, senior in foreign languages.