

Far Away Places' Weekend Theme

Oregon Daily
 EMERALD

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, FRIDAY, APRIL 6, 1951 NUMBER 101

Dance Title Contest Won by Kappas

"Far Away Places" has been chosen as the theme for this year's Junior Weekend, according to Merv Hampton, junior class president and general chairman of the weekend events.

The winning theme, submitted by the Kappa Alpha Theta junior class, was selected from a large assortment of entries, and was selected by the Junior Weekend chairman and class officers.

The theme and orchestra for the prom will be determined by the prom committee and announced at a later date.

Johnny Lusk's band, from Eugene, has been secured for the Terrace Dance, the All-Campus Sing, and the luncheon.

Tug-of-War Set

The annual Freshman-Sophomore Tug-of-War has been scheduled for Wednesday, May 9, this year. If the freshmen should win this event, they will not be required to wear their rooster's lids the remainder of the week. The committee has designated the sidewalk past the flag-pole in front of the Student Union as "Hello Walk," another tradition of the weekend this year. "Hello Walk" was formerly between Fenton and Villard Halls.

Committee sub-chairmen announced Thursday are as follows:

Cleanup: Muriel Hagendoorn, Barbara Keelen, Dolores Brice, and Dolores Tritt.

'Sing' Committeewomen

All-Campus Sing: Bernice Gartrell, Aileen Betschart, Jean Burgess, Mike Lally, Nancy Gloege, and Bobbie Howard.

Junior Prom: Bonnie Birkemeier, Barbara Metcalf, JoAnne Hewitt, and Kathleen Stryker.

Float Parade: Lou Ann Chase, John Otto, Joan Jacobs, Nancy Galbreath.

Promotion: Virginia Kellogg, Marcia Eagleson, Denise Thum, Frances Baum, Donna Pastrouich, Cathy Swick, and Fran Neel.

Dance to Follow Sports Activities

"It Might as Well be Spring" is the theme for a dance to be held in the Student Union ballroom tonight following Sports Night activities in McArthur Court. The dance is scheduled from 10 p.m. until midnight.

At the same time he announced the theme, Ralph Hillier, SU Dance committee chairman, said that the oft-proposed talent contest has been postponed indefinitely. Originally it was set up on a five-week schedule with entertainment planned at each mixer and the best of all acts presented during this period to be given awards Junior Weekend.

Hillier said the lack of contestants was responsible for the suspension of the plan. He also pointed out that attendance at the last mixer was so poor that his committee has decided to hold their Friday-night dances in the Fish-bowl.

Entertainers who signed up to participate in the contest will perform on a non-competitive basis at future dances, including the one tonight.

KWAX Plans New Shows For Tonight

"The Voice of the Ducks," FM station KWAX on the campus, started on its spin of regular programs Thursday night. At 88.1 megacycles, seven new programs will be presented tonight from the studio in Villard.

"Guest Star" will be transcribed music by Ella Login, vocalist; Lou Brink and his orchestra; and Del Sharbutt, vocalist and master of ceremonies.

"Table Hopping" will be a program springing from tape recorded interviews in the Student Union Tuesday morning by George Douglas, junior in speech.

The activities of campus religious organizations and national religious news will be reported on "Religious News."

This week's "Campus Interview" will feature Louis Armstrong, band leader and trumpeter, interviewed by George Douglas. The program was tape recorded when Armstrong appeared at the Eugene armory last week.

"Dixiography" will be selections of Dixieland music handled by disc-jockey Dave Strauss, junior in speech.

Of special interest to philosophy students will be "Castell Speaks," a half hour lecture by Dr. Albury Castell, head of the philosophy department.

The "Friday Night Request" will be the "Music You Want" selected, at student request, from the KWAX music library. Selections may be made by postcard or by telephoning during the show. The station number is Ext. 407.

Sunday "The Voice of the Ducks" will be heard from 3 p.m. until 7 p.m. The broadcast will begin with

Sports Night Entertainers

"CLEATS, FELLAS..." Left to right are three varsity track men—Albert Bullier, Dennis Sullivan, and Jack Smith—talking over their roles in tonight's Sports Night, 8 p.m. at McArthur Court. Sullivan is pointing out that tennis shoes will be required equipment for the races—cleated track shoes wouldn't be appreciated on Mac Court's maple floors.

Hawk Tells Draft Policy IFC Meet

The highest college enrollment history is expected as a result of the new draft deferment policy, Director of Men's Affairs Ray Hawk said Thursday at a meeting of the Interfraternity Council.

Hawk said that as the draft deferment tests will not be given until a person enrolls in college, anyone who wants to stay out of service will start to college. Students with high accumulative grade point averages will be deferred without taking the test. This will bring many of the present students back to school, Hawk said.

The percentage of students to be deferred on scholastics as announced by Hawk, would be the one-half of the freshmen class, one-third of the sophomore class, one-quarter of the junior class, and one-half of the seniors wishing to go on to graduate work.

Hawk stressed the fact that the average for deferments would be computed only from the average grade of men students. Primarily women students have contributed to a higher overall average.

The intelligence score on the deferment test, said Hawk, would be 70 or better for a student to be deferred. This corresponds to a higher overall average.

ASUO Sports Night Show Opens at 8 in MacCourt

Sports Night, "the biggest show on the campus," comes to McArthur Court at 8 p.m. tonight, with seven acts of top-notch entertainment. Tickets will be on sale at the door, and also today, at booths in the Student Union and the Co-op. Prices are $1 for townspeople, 50 cents for students.

For the outdoor sports fans there will be several track events. Coach Bill Bowerman will present a preview of the Duck track team in such events as pole vaulting, shot putting, high jumping, and sprints and distance runs.

For those who enjoy boxing, there will be four matches. Jim Loscutoff will take on Bob Peterson, Bob Wilcox will battle Joe Kaiser, Joe Richards will fight Charles Oyama, and Tom Stratton's opponent will be Neil Tardio.

There'll be music, too—supplied by the University band. Two vaudeville acts—an animal act and a musical group—will fill out the program.

Funds from the student-sponsored show will go to the ASUO—to be used "to provide funds for student government, to finance University student groups and worthwhile programs for the University," according to ASUO president Barry Mountain.

Doors will open at 7:00 p.m.

Less than 100 tickets for Sports Night had been sold at 5 p.m. Thursday, according to Joanne Fitzmaurice, ASUO secretary.

'Ugly Man' Competition Benefits Go to WSSF

Sandwich signs, Emerald ads, and campus posters were asking this week, "Who is the campus ugly man?"

The campus ugly man contest, as revealed by World Student Service Fund Drive Chairman Jackie Wilkes and Alpha Phi Omega Contest Chairman Rod Smith, is a form of personality contest, the benefits from which will go to the WSSF drive.

APO, which is sponsoring the contest for the WSSF drive, stipulated in its meeting Monday that "although the nature of the contest is to find the ugliest man on campus, the main objective is to use campus personalities as a method of promoting the WSSF drive. Contestants should consider the theme of the contest in a lighter vein than a serious elimination."

The procedure of the contest, Smith announced, will begin with

Council Petitions Due

Petitions for the vacant position of senior class representative on the ASUO Executive Council will be accepted until 5 p.m. Monday. Petitions may be turned in to the ASUO office.

Petitioners for the student body job will be interviewed at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

each women's living organization selecting its candidate for the ugliest man on campus. The contributions from the women's living organization as well as the contributions from the house in which the candidate lives will be considered as votes for that "potential ugly man." Ugly man potentials will be listed in Monday's Emerald.

Voting will take place in the Co-op where money should be turned each day by 4:30 p.m. all next week. Milk bottles will be used for money deposits, with one milk bottle for each Ugly Man contestant. Money may also be turned in to the WSSF office in the SU before 4:30 p.m. every day. Tabulations will be made at 4:45 p.m. daily.

The six contestants drawing the most contributions will be named in Thursday's Emerald. Carica-
