

Duck Gridders To Scrimmage

The Oregon football team will perform Saturday for high school seniors on the campus for the annual Duck Preview.

Coach Jim Aiken says he will dress one squad in green and one in white for the game-type scrimmage. The starting lineups will appear in Friday's Emerald.

Practices Monday and Tuesday have seen the squad work hard on passing drills, and Aiken said the line was beginning to round into shape. Line Coach is former Idaho line mentor Gene Harlow.

Aiken mentioned the tackle spot as one where next year's Ducks will be especially deep. They have six big, rough men at that post. Tuesday night right tackles Bill Bates and 250 pound Jerry Shaw did potent work. Hal Simmons, holdover from last year's squad, also shone on defense. Other tackles in there fighting for regular berths are Mike Sikorra, Jerry Moshofsky and Len Deiderichs of last season's Duck team.

At the right end post two men were looking sharp according to Aiken. They were transfer Leroy Campbell, and tall holdover Wayne Johnson.

The Duck team is allowed thirty practice workouts under Pacific Coast Conference rules.

Norm Van Brocklin, quarterback of the 1948 Cotton Bowl team, this year's leading passer in the National Professional football league, is helping Aiken. Also augmenting the Duck staff is towheaded Brad Ecklund, center on the 1948 team who now plays professional football.

Trackmen To Meet Huskies On Saturday

Oregon's Cinder Ducks went through running event time trials a day early yesterday in preparation for the Washington Huskies in Seattle Saturday.

Trials for field events will be run off today on Hayward field. The Washington dual meet will be the first Northern Division competition for both squads this spring. The Webfoots are fresh from taking honors in last weekend's Willamette Relays in Salem.

A strong, chilling wind swept the length of Hayward field yesterday to impede runners, but results, all at "three-quarter" distance, were generally satisfying.

Oregon appears especially strong in the distance events. With Walt McClure in the 880-yard run, Jack Hutchins in the mile, and Art Backlund in the two-mile event, the Ducks stand a fair chance of sweeping these events. The Huskies, however, are also powerful in these divisions.

Washington two-miler George Abbey is devoting all his time to the long event this year, according to Seattle news sources. Other Husky eight-lapper is Fred Bock.

In the sprint events, the Ducks are loaded with depth. This includes the 100, 220, and 440 events. The serious Oregon weakness comes in the high hurdles and pole vault divisions. In weights, Bob Anderson and Chuck Missfeldt are expected to hold up their end of the deal with the discus and javelin, while the shot appears slightly weaker.

Mixed Doubles Bowling League Action Continues

Play continued in mixed doubles bowling leagues at the Student Union alleys Tuesday night. Results were as follows:

In League One, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Darlington topped Nancy Huddleston and Jack Reading, 4-1; Muts Wada and Ned Takasumi won over Jean Cave and Cameron Thom by a 3-1 margin; Connie Lowery and Bob Hanberg took a 3-1 decision over Zoe Hager and Vern Thompson; Nancy O'Conner and Clarence Naapi defeated Nelda Vogel and Warren Woodruff, 3-1.

Bob Hanberg led the league with a 569 series and a 205 game, followed by Ned Takasumi with a 516 series, and Pete Darlington with a 539.

In League Two contests, Molly Blifernich and Ken Ireland shut out Joan DeBenedetti and Jack Smith, 4-0; Bev Hart and John McAloon fashioned a 4-0 win over Barbara Williams and Don Thompson; Maggie Powne and Don Collin won 3-1 over Kaydo Striker and Dick Thompson; and Marilyn Schultz and Dave Sarazen earned a 3-1 decision over Carol Broeren and Mert Meeker.

Ken Ireland was high with a 525 series and 208 game.

Knute Rockne Is Named All-time Greatest Mentor By Associated Press Poll

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 12—(AP)—Notre Dame's Knute Rockne, acclaimed yesterday as football's greatest coach of all time, was 10 years ahead of the game in his era. And if he were living today, his scheming still would be 10 years in advance of coaching rivals.

Both claims came today from former players who helped Rockne reach the pinnacle of coaching success in the 1920's—the fabulous Four Horsemen, canny Frank Carideo and the present Fightin' Irish coach, Frank Leahy.

Along with an all-time, All-America eleven named in a nationwide poll by the Associated Press, Rockne, became a ranking candidate for the National Football Hall of Fame planned at Rutgers University. Also nominated in the poll for the hall were second and third teams and coaches Pop Warner, Stanford, Carlisle, and Alonzo Stagg, Chicago, runners-up to Rockne. The first-team selections were:

Ends — Don Hutson, Alabama, and Bennie Oosterbaan, Michigan. Tackles—Bronko Nagurski, Minnesota, and Wilbur (Fats) Henry, Washington and Jefferson.

Guards—W. W. (Pudge) Hefflinger, Yale, and Robert Suffridge, Tennessee.

Center — Adolph (Germany) Schultz, Michigan.

Quarterback—Walter Eckersall, Chicago.

Halfbacks — Harold (Red) Grange, Illinois, and Jim Thorpe, Carlisle.

Fullback—Ernie Nevers, Stanford.

UO Ski Team To Sponsor Santiam Trip

Oregon's varsity ski team, established as an official Duck inter-collegiate representative by the action of the ASUO Executive Council Monday night, will sponsor an invitational ski meet early in May at Santiam Pass, according to Duck Captain Saul Zaik.

Oregon State, Lewis and Clark, and other Oregon colleges will be invited to send teams to the meet.

The Webfoots won fourth place in the Warren Vanderbilt Meet at Norden, California, during the past weekend. George McMath captured first place in the jumping event, and the Ducks also placed first in the slalom.

The members of the Oregon team include Captain Zaik, Stu McCollom, George McMath, Larry Black, Dick Portwood, and Neil Mathison. Athletic Director Leo Harris is the squad's adviser.

According to an announcement made during Monday's Executive Council meeting, Gene Harlow will coach the skiers next winter. He will be assisted by Les Anderson.

Two No Hit Games In IM Action

A pair of no-hit games highlighted intramural softball action Tuesday.

Phi Delt Bob Taggesell pitched his team to a 5-0 win over Phi Kappa Psi and Gene Hilfiker hurled Nestor to a 4-0 nod over Sigma Nu. Neither pitcher allowed a safe blow.

Led by the hitting of Brad Fullerton and Jack Keller, the Phi Delt reached the slants of Lemon, Phi Psi pitcher for five runs.

A pitching duel between McBee of Sigma Nu and Hilfiker of Nestor was terminated in the third inning when the Nestorites pushed three runs across the plate to ice up the contest.

Alpha Tau Omega batted around in the first inning of their battle with Philadelphia house and scored five runs. The final score was 7-1. Bob Ward allowed only three hits for the winners. One of these blows came in the last inning when Jim Cummings of Philadelphia house smashed a liner over the left field fence for a home run. In the first inning Gay Krahn lashed out a circuit wallop to deep right-center.

Jim Calderwood allowed one hit in chucking Sigma Chi to a 10-0 win over Lambda Chi Alpha. At the start of the fourth inning the score was 5-0 but in the fifth Sigma Chi found the pitching of Laughton to their taste and crossed the plate four more times.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon chalked up a 7-1 victory over a winless Sherry Ross team behind the pitching of Dick Bloom. SAE played a fairly tight fielding game and came through with some timely hitting in chalking up their lopsided win.

Cherney almost battered home plate into the ground in romping to a 18-4 victory over Phi Sigma Kappa. Most of Cherney's counters came in the first two innings as they led 15-1 at the end of the second stanza. Gene Beck scattered the Phi Sig hits and held them to four runs.

Over 250 Schools Get Entry Blanks For Relays

April 9 — (AP) — More than 250 high schools in Oregon, Washington and California have received entry blanks for the 14th annual Hayward Relays to be held at the University of Oregon April 20-21.

April 16 is the deadline for filing entries, Ray Hendrickson, general chairman, said.

All defending champions are expected to be on hand. They are Medford, Class A; Ashland, Class B; and Pleasant Hill, Class C. More than 750 competed in the two-day event last year.

Ballantyne Named Rsoeburg Mentor

ROSEBURG, Apr. 10 — (P)— Dick Ballantyne, former Oregon State College basketball star, will be the new basketball coach at Roseburg High School, announced Superintendent Paul Elliott.

Ballantyne, a Baker High School product played three years of varsity basketball under "Slats" Gill at OSC, was hired by the Roseburg District Board to replace Jack Newby who resigned. He will also serve as an assistant football coach.
