Campus Merry-Go-Round

Compiled by Barbara Rubin
At Alpha Omicron Pi...

The AoPi's were very happy of the marriage of Margaret Smith to Francis Potwin. They are now living in Eugene and attending school. A second marriage was that of Marian Christenson to Sigma Nu Jerry Irion. They were married over spring vacation in Nampa, Ida.

Few girls were left in the house last weekend when the majority of them went to Portland to the wedding of Marian Heath to Glen Warberg, Theta Chi. The couple will live in Eugene.

Recent engagements include Delores Stenerson to Phi Delt Jimmy Howard. Delores announced her engagement at the Medford Country Club Sunday afternoon. Also, Betsy Youmans is now wearing the ring of Walt McClure, ATO.

New house officers are president, Norma Beetem; vice-president, Em Nichols; recording secretary, Mary Ellertson; and corresponding secretary, Lois Kandra.

Lila Mae Popish, spring term pledge last year, rejoined us this term.

At Delta Zeta...

Two DZ's were married recently. Gloria Kraft became the bride of Joe Jensen, Pi Kap, at her home in Grand Junction, Colo., during spring vacation, and Mary Brandt was wed to Lyle Morris, Oregon graduate, last Sunday.

Recently engaged was Edna McCurdy to former Delt and graduate of the University of Oregon, Skip Freeman. Marian Gordon also announced her engagement this weekend at the DZ house. She is engaged to Lester Hukari, formerly of OSC.

Louise Leding was featured soloist with the University Singers on their tour last week and in their program at the Student Union. Joan Jacobs was installed as vice president of Amphibians, women's swimming club.

Maria Ayres, foreign student from Brazil, gave a talk at a house fireside Sunday night. Maria talked on her experiences at the foreign students' seminar in Arizona this summer.

At Highland House...

A good time was had by all the freshman when they trekked to the beach last Sunday. Their party was complete with weinie roast, sunburn, and that never failing accident of one unlucky gal falling, completely clothed, into the ocean.

Helen Jackson is the latest Highland girl to join the ranks of those who are pinned. She accepted Bill Frye's Phi Kappa Psi pin.

At Orides...

Appointive offices have been filled by the Orides cabinet and approved by the group. They are Shirley Olsen, social chairman; Sally Hayden, pledge trainer; Kay Lucas, athletic manager; and Ina Pettis, historian.

Orides Mothers' Scholarships were presented to Ina Pettis and Marge Wyatt last term on basis of scholarship and need.

Marilyn Henderson has announced her engagement to Sam Wilson, a former Sig Ep at Oregon, now in the Air Force.

At University House...

Pinned is Sharon Williams to Don Whitwere, Yeomen.

Recent engagements include Marion Smith to graduate Bill Grieve and Lois Sorenson to Gene Freeman of North Bend.

Mary Swigart received a pin from Frank Bertelot, former Oregon student, now in the Navy.

Newly elected officers are: Sharon Williams, president; Jean Godknecht, vice-president; Helen May, secretary; Betty Obrist, treasurer; and Shirley Shulty, historian.

Censorship Set For All-campus Entertainment

All phases of entertainment affecting the University must be cleared by members of the campus entertainment committee. This censorship policy was approved by the entertainment committee Tuesday, with members being appointed to specific jobs by Chairman Gerry Pearson.

Ann Strowger will be in charge of clearing flying speeches; Nancy Vincent, of campus dances such as mixers; Jean Gould, of rallies and half-time entertainment at games; Jim Watkins, of off-campus entertainment; and Irene Philan, of special events and miscellaneous affairs which arise. Miss Pearson will pass on entertainment for large functions, such as Homecoming and Junior Weekend.
