

Stanford Trip

The one-dormitory plan for freshman men. Students composing the University dormitory committee are Anita Holm, Stan Turnbull, Dick Dahlberg, Nancy Allison, Jackie Pritzen, Barbara Bates, Bill Clothier, Bob Schooling, Leslie Tooze, and Mountain. Howard Lemons, administrative assistant to President Newburn, will also take the trip to Stanford.

At the present time a committee headed by P. L. Kleinsorge, professor of economics, is making a study of the fraternity situation under the present national emergency. An alumni group will visit the University campus later this spring to observe the deferred living-in plan at Oregon

Snake Talk Will Feature Live Model

A. S. Lockley, instructor in biology, will talk on "Snakes, Their Biology and Ecology" at the Sigma Xi lecture at 8:15 p.m. Monday in 103 Deady.

Before the lecture the local chapter of the science honorary will hold a business meeting at 7:15 p.m. in 105 Deady. New members will be elected.

Lockley is an authority on snakes and at his lecture will exhibit a live, five foot boa constrictor.

Frosh Women To Attend YWCA Sophomore Meet

All freshman women are invited to a YWCA sophomore cabinet meeting in order to get acquainted with their officer, at 4 p.m. today in Gerlinger Hall, according to Ancy Vincent, president.

The officers will explain the spring program of activities, and the meeting will divide into five groups, consisting of those interested in the following activities: YWCA freshman picnic, kiddie carnival, posters for drives coming up spring and fall terms, the duckling counselor program, and Red Cross.

General chairmen of four committees, posters, kiddie carnival, picnic, and decorations for the Junior-Senior Breakfast, were appointed by Miss Vincent at a meeting of the cabinet at noon Tuesday. They are, respectively, Barbara Swanson, Kathy Tribe, Jean Gates and Jean Webb, and Jean Mauro.

Chairmen for the remaining committees will be chosen from freshmen members, perhaps Thursday.

"The entire success of the term's program depends upon interest shown by freshman women, and their help. By attending the meeting we hope to get things under way as soon as possible," said Miss Vincent.

Geology Majors Broadcast Set For April 26

A debate on the origins of ore deposits will be held by six geology majors as part of a seminar debate and lecture at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in 301 Condon.

A second feature of the program is a talk on diamonds by Mrs. Gladys Hannaford, who has an extensive knowledge of the diamond industry. She will exhibit some real stones.

All geology and geography majors, Condon club members, and friends may attend. An informal social meeting of Condon club will follow the lecture. Refreshments will be served.

Insurance Meeting Set

The University of Oregon Insurance Society will hold its monthly business meeting at 3 p.m. Thursday in room 7 Commerce.

All members of the group and other individuals interested in the insurance field are urged by Secretary Don Bowman to attend the meeting.
