Lop-Sided Victories Dominate IM Softball; Delt Reading Allows Hit

Tau Kappa Epsilon, Campbell Club, Delta Upsilon, Yeomen, Theta Chi, and Delta Tau Delta won hard fought games in Wednesday intramural softball.

Pitcher Jack Reading of the Delts, who had previously hurled two no hit games, allowed one hit and one run to McChesney Hall. His teammates clubbed the McChesney hurler for 9 hits, winning easily, 8-1.

In another excellent pitching performance, Hebard of Theta Chi turned back Chi Psi 11-3. Maxwell was the losing pitcher.

'Awaken, O Ye Fishermen, To the Call Of the Trout'

PORTLAND—(AP)—The trout season opens Saturday in Western Oregon streams.

The state game commission pointed out that stream conditions are excellent, the weather forecast favorable—and 222,000 Oregon fishermen had licenses last year.

That number won't be out in full force Saturday, the commission implied, in calling attention to the restricted area for the first day's fishing. Only coastal streams and the drainages of the Willamette, Sandy and Hood Rivers are open Saturday.

The Rogue and Umpqua watersheds will be opened April 28. Eastern Oregon waters—except in Lake County—will be opened May 20.

Since March 1, 250,000 yearling trout have been placed in Western Oregon waters. Most are fall-spawning Rainbows averaging 8 inches in length.

Coed Bowlers Finish 9th in Tourney

The University Coed Billiard Team placed ninth in the ten team collegiate competition Tuesday, according to Louie Bellisimo, Student Union recreation director.

South Dakota State placed first with a score of 151 points. Zoe Hager was high scorer on the Oregon squad, with a point total of 24. Donna Wilcox was second with 13.

"The girls made a very good showing, especially for their first competition. They will undoubtedly do better next year," Lou said.
