

CLASSIFIED

Place your ad at the Student Union, main desk or at the shack, in person or phone ext. 319, between 2 and 4 p.m. Monday-Friday.
 Rate: First insertion 4c a word; subsequent insertions, 3c per word.

ST: $10 reward for a man's watch wrist watch left in the men's rest room in recreation area of the Student Union at 4:45 p.m. March 10th. Please contact the main desk of the Student Union. Leroy Hewlett. 107

SUMMER JOBS: Mountaineers attention: There are some excellent jobs available for men with mountaineering experience. For information call Bill Byrd 4-6560. 107

RENT: CHARMING redecorated unfurn. apt. Lovely kitchen eating area. Fine location. Priv. bath. Adults $52.50. Ph. 4-0270 or 4-7181. 108

SALE: Remington Razor. Fairly good condition. $5.00 and electric razor. W. L. W. 4-6604 Emerald after 5:00. 107

WANTED: Companion: long, red-haired shaggy dog. Slightly unconventional and shy. Contact Dee Witherspoon 5-1775 after 5 p.m. H. Dec. 108

SALE: OREGANA for 1920. Good $4.50 Ppd.; OREGANA for 1931. Fine $4.50 Ppd. Prouty's Antiquarian Bookstore, 1254 Wilamette Eugene, Oregon. 107-112

SALE: Satin wedding gown. Size 18. Original cost $100.00. Will sell for $40.00. Phone 43890. 108

Political Science Group to Meet

Some 75 political scientists from the Pacific Northwest and California will gather Saturday and Sunday for the annual meeting of the Pacific Northwest Political Science Association.

The principal address, "The Strategy of the Soviet National Policy," will be given by Julian Rotter of the University of California, who is an authority on Russian politics, government, and strategy.

Other speakers include Hubertus Van Mook, onetime lieutenant-governor of the Netherlands and now on the faculty of the University of California; and Charles E. Martin, for 25 years head of the department of political science at the University of Washington.

A round table discussion of the present program and reconstruction in southern and eastern Europe will include Charles Schleicher, University of Oregon; Paul G. Leber, Washington State University; Kline H. Swygard, Oregon State College; Warren J. Tomlinson, College of Puget Sound; and Van Mook and Martin.

Visiting Librarian Likes UO Open Stack System

The University of Oregon library addition shows successful planning. This was the opinion expressed by an expert in the field, Robert B. Downs, director of the University of Illinois library, after a tour through the structure Wednesday morning.

Downs said the building was "most attractive." He commented upon the striking use of color, the excellent lighting, and the acoustically treated ceilings. The general impression of openness—no barriers between the reader and the books—was also praised by Downs.

Any May Use Stacks
 The librarian was also impressed by the fact that any student or faculty member who wishes to use the stacks may do so. Downs said that he had visited several other libraries on the Pacific Coast, but that none were more successful than Oregon's in making books available.

In very large institutions, Downs said, that there are inherent difficulties in use of the open stack system due to the fact that many people in a large city are not members of the university family, hence certain restrictions must be set up. Columbia University was cited by Downs as an example of such a situation.

Honor System Good
 In Chicago, Downs further explained, students are not as dependable and it becomes harder to establish an open stack system. The same is true in other major cities, the library director said. However, at Oregon the honor system seems to work very well, he reported.

Downs expressed the opinion that although new developments in the library field, such as audio-visual aids, do not have a close connection with traditional library material, a receptive attitude should be held toward such improvements.

"I like the browsing room atmosphere," Downs said at the conclusion of the Emerald interview held in the Student Union. "It's good for recreational reading."

Downs will visit the University of Washington in Seattle before his return to Chicago.

Expert to Probe

An expert on Japanese politics, Nobutaka Ike of Stanford University, will be one of the four featured speakers at the five-day institute on nationalism in Russia, the Far East, and the United States, to be held next Monday through Friday on the University campus.

Ike is the author of "The Beginnings of Political Democracy in Japan," published in 1950, and reviewed in the spring issue of the Pacific Historical Quarterly by Paul S. Dull, associate professor of political science and history.

Problems of the Far East and particularly of Japan will be discussed by Ike on Apr. 25 and 26.

Why did the moron throw the alarm clock out of the window? He wanted to see time fly.

Schroff' Works To Be Exhibited

A memorial exhibition and sale of paintings, honoring the memory of the late Alfred H. Schroff, for many years a member of the faculty of the University's School of Architecture and Allied Arts, will be held Apr. 29-30 in the Little Art Gallery on the campus.

Proceeds of the sale will be used to increase the gift made to the Art Student Loan Fund by Schroff's widow, Louise Barrows Schroff, upon her death in 1946. Her gift was made in memory of her husband.

Schroff was an accomplished craftsman in many techniques, including etching, lithography, architectural design, and stained glass.

Schroff received his early training in Boston, and in later years he studied in Paris and London, receiving in 1924 a diploma for his work in fresco at the Fontainebleau school in France. He also received a medal for work shown at the World's Columbian Exposition in 1903.

Disc Show Airs Requests

KWAX, the "Voice of the Ducks," has instituted a "Friday Night Request" show of recorded music. The program will be heard each Friday at 8 p.m. and will last two hours and 50 minutes.

Students requests for selections may be made by telephoning Ext. 407 or by sending a postcard to the Music Director of KWAX. The music will be selected from the Studio's record library.

College boy's invitation to a dance. "Come on worm, let's wiggle."

Job Interview To Be Held This Week

Job interviews in four occupational fields will be held this week, it was announced by the graduate placement office. Appointments for interviews may be made at the graduate placement office in Emerald Hall.

The schedule for the student-employer discussion of job opportunities is as follows:

Today—E. L. Miller of the personnel department of Sears-Roebuck Co. will explain the company's college beginner program in a general meeting, followed by individual interviews.

Wednesday—A representative of the U. S. Gypsum Co., E. H. May, will interview students interested in general sales work with the company, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Miss Margaret White, personnel director of the state public welfare commission, and Gordon Gilbertson, director of social work for the Multnomah County public welfare commission, will talk to students who are not sociology majors but are interested in the Oregon public welfare field. The interviews will be held Wednesday afternoon in Emerald Hall.

Thursday—Miss White will speak to classes of J. R. Parsons, assistant professor of sociology, Thursday morning. She will conduct interviews in the afternoon in Oregon Hall for students taking sociology classes and interested in social work.

Sociology students may register for the Thursday interviews at Parsons' office, 205 Oregon.

Representatives of the United States National Bank of Portland will speak to men and women interested in the bank's senior trainee program Thursday. The trainee program consists of on-the-job training in various departments.

Mrs. Berreman: Gloria, can you tell me the use of cowhide?

A British poll organization that feels the public pulse on timely topics, recently asked members of the middle class: "Given a one-tenth reduction in income, where would you make your cuts." Replied one dismal country parson, "Across my throat."

HEILIG Dial 4-9311
 Spencer Tracy
 Joan Bennett
 Elizabeth Taylor
 "Father's Little Dividend"
 "Hit Parade of 1951"

MAYFLOWER Dial 5-1022
 Judy Holliday
 "Born Yesterday"

LANE Dial 4-0431
 Paul Henreid
 "So Young So Bad"
 Myrna Loy
 Richard Green
 "If This Be Sin"

McKENZIE Dial 7-2201
 Jane Powell
 Fred Astaire
 "Royal Wedding"
 Alexis Smith
 Scott Brady
 "Under Cover Girl"

VARSITY Dial 7-3403
 Pat O'Brien
 "Johnny One-Eye"
 Dan Duryea
 "The Under World Story"

CASCADE Drive In Theatre
 Esther Williams
 Howard Keel
 "Pagan Love Song"
 "Winter Wonderland"

SUMMER DRESSES

- Picolay
- Pure Silks
- Chambrays
- Gingham
- Linen Weaves
- Rayons

$8.95 to $19.95

Also skirts and blouses to match or mix . . .

Towne Shoppe

527 Main Springfield

Keep the memory alive with

FINIAN'S RAINBOW

ON COLUMBIA "LP" RECORDS

STARRING THE ORIGINAL BROADWAY CAST

• ELLA LOGAN • DAVID WAYNE • DON RICHARDS

OF THE EXCITING -MEMORABLE MUSIC YOU'LL HEAR IN THE UNIVERSITY THEATER PRODUCTION ON ONE COLUMBIA LONG PLAYING RECORD.

Graves MUSIC-ART $5.45

1235 WILLAMETTE Ph. 4-9252