

Placement Office Tells Job News

E. L. Miller of the Sears Roebuck Company personnel department will be on campus today interviewing students interested in the firm's college beginner training program. The interviews will take place in Emerald Hall.

Appointments for interviews may be made at the graduate placement office in Emerald Hall.

In addition, the placement office has announced that Joe Richards men's clothing store is looking for a man to fill a vacancy in retail selling. Further information may be obtained at the office.

Applications for interviews for the B. F. Goodrich Tire and Rubber Company are now available at the office. The interviews will be held some time in May, but the applications must be filled out and returned to the office immediately.

Old Business, New Line

MEDFORD, Apr. 16 —(P)—Carl Steven McKinney of Prospect today confessed he stole a telephone line—about eight miles of it.

He pleaded guilty to snipping the copper wire from Forest Service telephone poles between Butte Falls and Prospect. State police said he apparently used pruning equipment to do the snipping.

McKinney is to be sentenced at the next session of Federal Court here.
