

Truman Cancels Talk for MacArthur

President Truman announced Tuesday that he was cancelling his previously scheduled Thursday speech to the American Society of Newspaper Editors so as not to interfere with Gen MacArthur's day. MacArthur will arrive in Washington on that day to appear before a joint session of Congress.

MacArthur took off from Hawaii for San Francisco early Tuesday morning. He was expected to arrive in the California city sometime Tuesday night.

He received a big send-off from the Hawaiians at the Honolulu International Air Terminal. As he left, he expressed the hope that the next time he came to the Islands again, "Hawaii will be a full-blown state of our nation."

And the Oregon Senate Got Into the Act...

...by paying a 30-second standing tribute to the General. Two of the nine Democratic senators chose to remain in their seats. The objectors were Senators Vernon Bull (D., LaGrande) and Russell Gardner (D., Newport).

The surprise motion for a tribute to MacArthur was made by Senator Warren Gill (R., Lebanon). The motion itself dealt only with honoring MacArthur, and made no mention of President Truman.

In Washington, D.C., The Daughters of the American Revolution gave the General a vote of confidence Tuesday. The DAR president said she was placing telephone calls to San Francisco, hoping to catch the General there and invite him to address the national DAR convention later this week.

A Joint Congressional Committee to Investigate...

...far-eastern policy of the United States was proposed Tuesday by Senate Republicans. The Democrats objected strenuously, saying that the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees were already moving jointly to make such an inquiry.

The First Troops to Leave Korea...

...under the Army's rotation plan took off from Taegu, Korea, Tuesday. They will return to the United States to become instructors.

Two northwesterners were aboard the plane: Maj. Thomas Metcalf, Portland; and Sgt. Morton Dqve, Port Townsend, Wash.

Allied Troops in Korea Meanwhile...

...pushed forward in the battle for the Hwachon Dam, on the east central front.

New censorship regulations, issued by Lt. Gen. Matthew Ridgway, new U.N. commander in Korea, banned all references to the exact size and location of Chinese and Red Korean units said to be massed in the hills north of the dam.

The Reds set up a smoke screen in an effort to conceal their movements from aircraft. But the screen began to lift late Tuesday afternoon, and the U.N. warplanes went back to work.

A Resolution to Declare War on China...

...will be introduced by Senator Harry Cain (R., Wash.) in Congress shortly. His Republican friends in the upperhouse have been counseling him against it.

But he said Tuesday that he had the resolution drafted—and a speech written—and that he would introduce it soon.

Russia Has Completed Another Five-year Plan...

...nine months ahead of schedule—or so she says. She boasts that she has topped her prewar production by 73 per cent, and now ranks second only to the United States in production.

Great gains were made in the most important parts of the plan, said Moscow Radio, but shortcomings in other fields were admitted.

"There was not and there is not now any unemployment in the Soviet Union," the broadcast added. There were over 39 million workers employed at the end of 1950, claimed the Russians.

But Monday night's announcement by Moscow didn't include any figures on non-ferrous—non-iron—metals. This may be significant, since reports have reached the west that Russia is suffering from a shortage of nickel, copper, and cobalt.

A British Submarine Vanished Tuesday...

...in the English Channel with 75 officers and men aboard. The ship has not been heard from since taking a practice dive in the waters off the English coast.

There was some hope that the commander was operating under water, and that the ship was not sunk. British Admiralty officials, however, placed little hope in this.

The U. S. Navy offered two destroyers to help hunt for the submarine; the search was still continuing Tuesday night.

'Every Communist Teacher in Oregon...

...should be hung by his thumbs or heels from the statue of the pioneer on the capitol," Senator Warren Gill (R., Lebanon) told the Senate Education Committee Tuesday.

He is the sponsor of a bill to make school teachers sign non-Communist affidavits. The bill would then allow school boards to decide whether or not to fire those who do not sign or who sign false statements.

Gov. Douglas McKay Will Not Seek to Fire...

...the State Liquor Commission Administrator William W. Hammond. The governor said he had no intention of asking the commission to dismiss Hammond, a move recommended by the Multnomah Grand Jury after an investigation into Oregon's liquor control setup.

"There have been no indictments, nor charges of corruption or dishonesty, after this tremendous job (the grand jury's investigation) was completed," McKay said.

But he agreed that strict law enforcement is needed, and said that an effort is being made to better conditions.

"But with only a small force in the employ of the commission, any lack of rigid enforcement cannot be placed entirely on the doorstep of the commission," he added.

AGS Meet; Plans Laid For Votes

Associated Greek Students met Tuesday afternoon at Chi Omega to discuss plans for the student body elections May 2.

"We've received a great number of petitions for student body offices—many more than last year," said Bill Carey, AGS president.

He told the group that Friday noon would be the deadline for submitting petitions for offices to the party. These petitions may be picked up in Emerald Hall or the ASUO offices, and may be turned in to Carey, Phi Kappa Psi, or to Mary Gillham, Alpha Chi Omega.

He urged anyone wishing to run on the AGS ticket to petition.

Carey also announced that the AGS policy committee will meet Friday afternoon to screen the petitions. Their recommendations will be submitted to the delegates at a Monday afternoon meeting, and final selection of party candidates will be made that night.

"The ASUO Executive Council has done a fine job in choosing the polling places," Carey stated. "By having four locations around the campus, it will be easier for everyone to vote."

He explained briefly the preferential voting system, and said that the party would distribute sample ballots to all the houses in AGS.

Dave Rodway, AGS Senior Representative on the ASUO Executive Council, explained a few changes in student government in the new ASUO constitution, under which campus officers will be chosen in the May 2 elections.

IFC Schedules Business Meeting

The Interfraternity Council will meet at 7 p.m. Thursday at Sigma Nu. Main item of business on the agenda is the election of officers.

Nominations for officers were made at a previous meeting. Up for president are Ken Ball, Norm Peterson, and Dick McLaughlin. Larry Dean and Fred Baltz are nominees for vice president and secretary-treasurer respectively.

Alaskan Teaching Positions Available

Teaching positions are available beginning next fall at Anchorage, Alaska in elementary and secondary schools.

A wide variety of positions are open, ranging from principal to elementary teachers, according to Earl Pallett, director of the teacher placement bureau.

Anyone desiring information concerning living conditions, positions available, and travel may contact Miss Wilma Foster or Pallett at Teacher Placement Bureau.

Fifty-seven per cent of last year's fatal accidents occurred during hours of darkness.
