The Oregon Ducks strengthened their stranglehold upon first place in the Northern Division baseball standings Thursday afternoon as Right-hander Stan Aune tossed a three-hitter to feature Oregon's 5-3 triumph over the Idaho Vandals on Howe Field.

The Ducks took advantage of mental and physical errors by Vandal Center Fielder Glenn Darnell to score all five runs in the first frame.

Coach Don Kirsch's Webfoots collected six of their ten hits during that first inning. Shortstop Joe Tom opened festivities with a ground single to Idaho's Third Baseman Joe Zavesky, Jim Livesay's single to center, a "Darnell Special" triple to center by Second Sacker Daryle Nelson, and a Darnell Round-Tripper by Earl Averill, Jr., contributed to Oregon score.

Darnell also accounted for Idaho's runs, blasting a triple to center with Jerry Ogle and Joe Zavesky on base in the seventh.

Oregon Tennis, Frosh Baseball Teams Busy

Oregon's tennis and Frosh baseball squads have scheduled a busy weekend for the local athletic courts and diamonds.

The Duck tennis team will meet the powerful Washington Huskies at 3 p.m. today on the local courts. It will be the Northern Division opener for the Webfoots. Washington is seeking its 12th consecutive Northern Division dual meet crown and 12th straight Northern Division championship meet title.

Coach Hal Zurcher's Duckling diamond squad will meet the Oregon State Rooks for a doubleheader at 2 p.m. Saturday. The undefeated Ducklings have won two, lost none.

COLONEL BILL HAYWARD, Oregon track coach for 44 years, will be remembered once again today as high school athletes from 58 schools compete in the 14th Annual Hayward Relays. Hayward's coaching success, and his great sense of personal honor and devotion to the ideals of sportsmanship, stand as monuments to the youthful athletes participating in today's events.

BILL BOWERMAN, Duck Track coach, was a student of Colonel Bill Hayward's system during the 1930's.

Annual Cinder Meet Draws 58 Prep Teams

A packed field is assured for the running of the 14th annual Hayward Relays on Hayward Field today and tomorrow. Fifty-eight class A, B and C teams will be set to go when the first field events get under way 12:30 p.m. today.

Teams entered include many from Oregon, Washington and California. Class A schools will compete tomorrow, while other events will begin today. Schedule for today is as follows:

12:30—Field events, including pole vault, high jump, broad jump, shot put, javelin and discus.

1:30—Class C distance medley.

1:45—B distance medley.

2:05—C 440 yard relay.

2:20—B 440 yard relay.

2:40—C sprint medley.

3:00—B sprint medley.

3:20—B shuttle hurdle, three men. This event will be run this year at the new distance of 100 yards.

Tomorrow, with the running of class A events, the field events will begin at 11 a.m. when broad jumpers begin competition. The next events will be at 12:30 p.m. when the other field events will be run off.

Running events will begin at 1:30 with the 440 relay. Other running events in class A Saturday will be:

1:50—Two mile relay.

2:05—880 relay.

2:20—Distance medley.

2:40—Shuttle hurdles.

3:00—Mile relay.

Teams entering class A events are Albany, Bend, Benson of Portland, Coos Bay, Corvallis, Eugene, Franklin, Grant, Grants Pass, Jefferson of Portland, Klamath Falls, Lincoln, Medford, Roosevelt, Salem, Springfield and Washington.

There rarely is a Galloping Ghost on a football field, but there are plenty of field ghouls.

Webfoots Drop Eugene Club

The Oregon varsity golf squad defeated the Eugene Country Club 16-11 Thursday afternoon and will meet the Washington Huskies on the same course, the Eugene Country Club, this afternoon.

However, Coach Sid Milligan learned last night that Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner Vic Schmidt has ruled that Oregon's No. 3 man, Dick Estey, is ineligible for college competition.

The ruling was based upon the fact that Estey won the Oregon state junior golf tournament title at the age of 15 and again one year later and received a scholarship award from the state golf association. This "professional" remuneration eliminated Estey's amateur status.

Coach Milligan plans to start Captain Ron Clark as his No. 1 man for today's Northern Division dual meet opener with the Washingtonians. Other Duck competitors will include Bob Atkinson, No. 2; Fred Mueller, No. 3; Fred Strebel, No. 4; Jim Hoogs, No. 5; and Dave Frey, No. 6.

Clark shot a 73 Thursday to tie Coach Milligan 1½ to 1½ in the feature match of the Oregon-Eugene clash. Milligan carded a 74.

Other singles matches included a 2½ to 1½ victory over Atkinson by Don Neal of Eugene; a 1½ to 1½ deadlock between Mueller and Eugene's Wendell Wood; Strebel's 3-0 shutout triumph over Rod Taylor of Eugene; Frey's 2½ to 1½ win over Eugene's Virgil Snodgrass, and a 1½ to 1½ tie between Webfoot Hoogs and Eugenean Prentice Black.
