Spanish Discussion At Side Today, 4 p.m.

La Charla Espagnola will hold its regular meeting at 4 p.m. today in the back room of the College Side Inn. All those interested in improving their ability to converse in Spanish are urged to attend, according to James Devine, instructor in romance languages.

Two Brunettes, Blonde, Brunette Queen Hopefuls

One blonde, one brunette, and two brunettes make up the first round of finalists vying for the title of Junior Weekend Queen.

SHIRLEY HILLARD

Shirley Hillard, a major in speech "with an eye toward education," is 20 years old, has blue eyes and blonde hair, and is 5 feet tall.

Miss Hillard is not fazed because she is the shortest candidate, but curtly replied, "Remember dynamite comes in small packages."

The Alpha Delta Pi coed is second vice-president of Panhellenic, secretary of the junior class, an AGS representative, past assistant business manager of the Emerald (fall and winter term), and a member of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary, and Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising fraternity.

Bowling, swimming, and salmon fishing in Astoria are her favorite pastimes, while argumentation, discussion, and persuasion, and secondary education are her favorite classes.

JOANNE LEWIS

Joanne Lewis, a member of Delta Zeta sorority, is 5 feet, 7 inches tall, 19 years old, and has brown hair and brown eyes.

The creative writing major is president of Panhellenic and a AGS representative. During her high school days, Miss Lewis was president of the Spanish Club, and of the Women's Athletic Association. Her high school days were climaxed by her selection as valedictorian of her graduating class.

Skiing, swimming, dancing, photography, and golf rate at the top of her entertainment list. All of her writing courses are her favorite subjects, with the emphasis on playwriting.

Miss Lewis attended the summer school session at Hawaii last summer for eight weeks. The summer before, she spent traveling through the South, and spent much time in Atlanta, Ga.

JEANNE HOFFMAN

Jeanne Hoffman, a major in sociology, stands 5 feet, 3 1/2 inches tall. The hazel-eyed, brown-haired Kappa Alpha Theta member is 20 years old.

An active girl throughout her three years at college, Miss Hoffman at the present time is co-chairman of the All-Campus Sing, and president of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary.

"I enjoy traveling, and also taking care of my pet cat, Snuggles, who has families twice a year," Miss Hoffman stated.

Miss Hoffman hopes to work for a public welfare agency after graduation. Her favorite class this term is U. S. — Far Eastern Relations, which is taught by Paul S. Dull, associate professor of political science and history.

LIBBY MILLER

Libby Miller, a 20-year-old brunette miss with brown eyes, stands 5 feet, 6 1/2 inches in height. She recently took over the presidency of Delta Gamma sorority.

Miss Miller's favorite pastimes are "riding the DG tandem-bicycle and learning to drive out of the sorority driveway without taking the picket fence with me."

When asked what her favorite class was, the education major stated, "An education class in which I did some practice teaching at Edison kindergarten."

After graduation, Miss Miller plans to be a kindergarten teacher, and hopes someday to travel to Hawaii.

Installation of Political Science Honorary Set for Tonight in SU

Pi Sigma Alpha, national political science honorary, will be installed on the University of Oregon campus at 6:30 p.m. today in the SU in conjunction with the Northwest Political Science conference, being held here today and Saturday.

This is the first chapter of Pi Sigma Alpha to be installed in the state of Oregon and is the 54th National chapter. Installation will be conducted by Claudius O. Johnson, head of the political science department at Washington State College and president of the Northwest Political Science association.

Also to be installed at the banquet tonight will be Tom Barry, newly elected president of Pi Sigma Alpha; Leslie Tooze, vice-president; Kay Kuckenberg, secretary and reporter; and Doug Ambers, treasurer. Faculty advisor is Charles P. Schleicher, professor of political science.

Other new members of Pi Sigma Alpha include Arthur Atkinson, Jessie Bennett, Margaret Bishop, Ellen Christianson, Roy Eames, Marvin Elenbogen, James Hamblet, Theodore Hammer, Susan Koch, Barry Mountain, Carson Moore, Arlette Minitt, Frank Neuber, Gladys Robinson, Morris Sahr, and Lin Sloan.

Main speaker at the installation dinner will be H. J. VanMook, former governor-general of the Netherlands East Indies and at present visiting professor of political science at the University of California.

Special guests at the banquet will be George Sabine, professor emeritus at Cornell and visiting professor at Oregon, and J. L. Barnett, professor emeritus at the University of Oregon.

Drivers in the under 25 years-of-age bracket make up well under 20 per cent of the total of all drivers, but, in 1950, this group was responsible for more than 27 per cent of 1950's fatal traffic accidents.
