

Red Offensive may be 'Big Spring Push'

Compiled by Larry Hobart

From the wires of Associated Press

United Nations troops pulled back as much as 15 miles under the impact of a major Red offensive which raged along 100 miles of the Korean front Monday.

In other sectors the Allies stopped the Communists cold. Where the Allies withdrew it was in orderly fashion.

A Tokyo headquarters source said the orderly retirement was to the south bank of the Hantan River on the west-central front from the previous Allied positions just south of Chorwon, a big Red base.

The Communists, with nearly 700,000 men facing the front, launched their attack at 7:30 p.m. Sunday night behind their heaviest artillery barrage of the war. Their assault eased in daylight Monday, but was renewed with fresh vigor Monday night.

One intelligence officer called the attack the Reds' "major effort." But another spokesman said Monday that it is still too early to tell if it is the Reds' long-expected big spring push.

Close censorship delayed news of the offensive 14½ hours. Then it permitted only a fragmentary picture of the battle.

Eighth Army censors deleted distances from field dispatches, but the 15-mile figure was termed as "realistic."

Ex-Minister of Labor...

...for the British government Aneurin Bevan declared Monday that he quit the Labor cabinet because Britain has been "dragged too far behind the wheels of American diplomacy." He is protesting arms expenditures in Britain's new budget.

Against the backdrop of a deepening crisis in Britain's Socialist government, the fiery Welshman told the House of Commons that arms production in the United States will gobble up raw materials at such a rate that "the civilian economy of the Western world outside America will be undermined."

Many officials and London newspapers reported that Harold Wilson, 35-year-old president of the Board of Trade, had also resigned and that other junior ministers might follow. Labor party circles believed that Prime Minister Attlee's shaky government might undergo defeat in the budget debate this week. This would bring on a general election.

Bevan resigned as Minister of Labor in protest against the government's 1951-52 budget. He objected to cutting free medical services in favor of rearmament.

General Douglas MacArthur...

...will visit Chicago Thursday and the nation's second largest city is all set for a super welcome.

A crushing crowd of 3,000,000—about 75 per cent of Chicago's population—is expected to take part in the mammoth celebration for the general, his wife, and their son, Arthur, 13.

Soldier Field, the lake front open-air arena, has been reserved for a mass civic reception Thursday night.

In Washington Monday President Truman and his Congressional leaders talked over the administration's controversy with MacArthur.

House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex) and Senate Democratic leader McFarland (Ariz) would not give any details when they left the White House after Mr. Truman's regular Monday morning conference with his legislative leaders.

Successor to the Senate Position...

...of the late Arthur H. Vandenberg will be Blair Moody, Washington correspondent for the Detroit News, it was announced by Michigan's Governor Mennen Williams.

The 49-year-old Moody has been assigned to the News Washington bureau ever since 1933. During World War II, he served as war correspondent for the News and the North American Newspaper Alliance.

"Senator Moody is a Democrat," Williams said in announcing the appointment. Moody's political affiliation was not generally known before, but an associate on the Detroit News described him as "a New Dealer from the start."

Moody's appointment gives the Democrats a four-vote margin in the Senate. Vandenberg was a Republican.

The House Un-American Activities Committee...

...voted Monday to ask the House to issue arrest warrants for nine missing witnesses in the Committee's probe of Communism in Hollywood.

Rep. Kearney (R-N.Y.) told reporters the committee plans to issue a subpoena for Hollywood columnist Hedda Hopper to testify about a radio broadcast last Sunday. The columnist was reported to have named some movie people as Reds and accused the committee of "white-washing" the investigation.

The committee's decision to ask for the arrest warrants was announced after a hearing at which movie "tough guy" John Garfield denounced Communism as "tyranny." He told the committee he is not and never has been in the Communist party.

Detroit's Humming Production of Cars...

...and military vehicles was slowed today by a strike that cleared the streets of all city buses and streetcars.

Although all the operators have been off the job since early Saturday morning, the full impact of the strike was not felt until today.

The auto industry's "big three" producers reported early absenteeism up to 20 per cent compared with a normal for Monday of 4 to 6 per cent.

Leaders of the 3,700 striking AF of L operators and officials of the municipally-owned transit system appeared far apart on a bitter wage issue when they broke up all-night peace talks.

The Subversive Activities Control Board...

...in Washington ruled Monday that it had full power to hold hearings on registration of the Communist party although its members lack Senate approval.

The legality of the board was challenged at the outset of the historic hearings by former Rep. Vito Marcantonio (ALP-NY), one of three attorneys representing the party.

At issue is whether the party must register with the government as an organization controlled from abroad. Attorney General McGrath has charged it is bossed from Moscow.

New Audition Date For Campus Sing

Eliminations for the All-Campus Sing have been changed to May 1 for men and May 2 for women due to unforeseen conflicts, according to Jeanne Hoffman and Marilyn Thompson, co-chairmen.

A meeting of all songleaders will be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday in Gerlinger Lounge. At that time the songleaders will turn in the dress which their group will wear and will draw for positions in the eliminations. No costume or decorative dress will be allowed, and suits or slacks and white shirts will be in order for the men.

Collisions with pedestrians in the United States in 1950 killed 9,400 and injured 299,500 persons.

The sum of America's 1950 traffic victims was 30 times greater than the total number yet dead, wounded, or missing in Korea.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 18...THE RACCOON

"They can't trick an old grad like me!"

Shades of the roarin' 'Twenties! All duded up in his ancient benny — but he has modern ideas on testing cigarette mildness! He's tried every "quicke" cigarette test in the book — and they're not fooling him one bit! He knows for dang-sure that cigarette mildness can't be determined by a cursory sniff or a single, quickly-dispatched puff. He doesn't have to go back to school to know that there is one real test — a test that dispels doubt, fixes fact.

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke — on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis. No snap judgments needed. After you've enjoyed Camels — and only Camels — for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), we believe you'll know why...

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
