Improving 'Preview' Discussed

Methods for improving the system of inviting high school seniors to attend the University's Duck Preview Weekend were discussed in a special meeting Saturday.

Present at the meeting were 1951 Duck Preview Chairman Georgie Oberteuffer; Roger Nudd, assistant chairman; Elaine Hartung and Bob Jones, housing cochairmen; Donald M. DuShane, director of student affairs; Mrs. Golda P. Wickham, director of women's affairs; Ray Hawk, director of men's affairs; Lyle Nelson, director of public services; and Les Anderson, alumni secretary.

Personal Invitations

According to Miss Oberteuffer, the group will recommend personalized invitations from living organizations to high school seniors.

In order that no high school senor who desires to come for Duck review be omitted, cards would be distributed in high schools for seniors to send in. Houses would be use of residence cards on file in vote. the Office of Student Affairs for attend the University.

Cut Staff, Up Fees

A $27,707,000 appropriation to run the State Board of Higher Education for the next two fiscal years beginning July 1 was approved Thursday by the House and sent to the Senate.

The amount designated for state universities and colleges is 4 million dollars less than the board

The board said the reduced appropriation would force it to fire 60 to 70 faculty members, and 65 Civil Service employes, as well as

Rep. Rudie Wilhelm Jr., Portland, told the House that the number of students in state institutions of higher learning has dropped to 13,000 from a 1945 peak of 20,000.

The budget cut was recommended by the joint legislative ways and means committee last week.
