Cars to Carry Jr. Week Court

The Junior Weekend queen and four princesses will each ride in a separate convertible during the Weekend parade Saturday afternoon.

The Junior Weekend float committee had formerly decided to construct a float with the help of campus living organizations on the top of an army jeep as in last year's parade, but finally junked this plan in favor of a motorized procession of new convertibles.

Living organization float chairmen will meet for final consultation before Saturday's parade at 4 p.m. Thursday in the Student Union.

"Parade chairmen should bring itemized expense accounts for the floats to Thursday's meeting," commented Junior Weekend float Chairman Lillian Schott. "Chairmen are reminded that not more than $70 is to be spent per float." DELT TRIO

The Delt Trio Plus One, campus entertainers, will play night clubs in Portland and Vancouver this summer, according to Fred Schneider, manager.

The Trio has added a new member to their quartet, he announced. Jerry Cray, junior in liberal arts, will replace Paul Barrow, junior in speech. Cray has entertained on campus, worked professionally in California on television, and will sing bass and play the ukelele in the act.

The group recently traveled to Portland to participate in the city's first experimental television show. They also played at several Portland night spots as part of the floor show.

Fred Schneider, junior in journalism; Jim Bradford, junior in pre-law; and John (Billy) Eckstein, freshman in liberal arts, are the dells in the group. Cray will become the plus one.
