

Don't let the weeds keep your lettuce from getting a head.

HEILIG Dial 4-9311
 "Inside Straight"
 David Brian, Arlene Dahl also
 "The Painted Hills"
 Lassie, Bruce Cowling, Cary Grey

MAYFLOWER Dial 5-1022
 "Harriet Craig"
 Joan Crawford, Wendell Corey also
 "Great Man-Hunt"
 Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

LANE Dial 4-0431
 "Rogue River"
 Rory Calhoun, Peter Graves also
 "Call Me Mister"
 Betty Grable, Dan Dailey

McKENZIE Dial 7-2201
 "Sugarfoot"
 Randolph Scott, Adele Jergens also
 "Three Husbands"
 Emlyn Williams

VARSITY Dial 7-3403
 "Covered Wagon Raid"
 also
 "Blues Busters"

SPRINGFIELD'S
Cascade
DRIVE-IN THEATRE
 SEE A MOVIE FROM YOUR CAR

"The Fuller Brush Man"
 Red Skelton also
 "Campus Honeymoon"
 Lyn and Lee Wilde

Retail Honorary Selects Oregon Students at Meet

Thirteen Oregon students were elected to Eta Mu Pi, national retailing honorary, during the 12th annual Oregon Retail Distributors Institute held here Sunday and Monday.

New Eta Mu Pi members are Carl Cheesman, William Perrett, Henry Adams, John Martel, Frank Preston, Richard Blenkinsop, Robert Johnson, Bonnie Gienger, Fred W. Heryford, Helen Triska, Thomas Snyder, Richard Rawlings and Don Strand.

Speakers for the Institute included James Crutchfield, price economist from the office of price stabilization's Seattle branch, who emphasized that the American economy will be subjected to a "creeping" inflation unless price controls are made effective.

Bernhard Goldhammer, chief of the system development section of the Bonneville power administration, pointed out to retailers that by 1960 the Pacific Northwest's power requirement will be three times the kilowatts available today.

New officers of the Institute which drew more than 200 retailers from all parts of Oregon are G. Vandenynde, Salem, re-elected president; Charles E. Snell, Portland, first vice-president; Elmer Calef, Portland, second vice-president; M. K. Lucas, Klamath Falls, third vice-president; W. F. McKinley, Portland, fourth vice-president; Henry R. Burch, treasurer; and Peter G. Cosovich, Astoria, and Floyd E. Miller, Portland, directors.

Sprague to Speak At Chest Dinner

The annual Community Chest dinner is to be held at 6:30 tonight in the Eugene Hotel, with Ex-Governor Charles Sprague as the main speaker. He will discuss the Oregon Community Chest.

Ervin M. Molholm, the new Lane County Chest executive secretary, will be introduced. Student members of the YM and YWCA are taking part in the dinner along with their advisory board members.

Friday Terrace Dance Features Presentations

"Riviera Rendezvous" is the theme of the Junior Weekend Terrace Dance to be held from 4 to 5:15 p.m. Friday on the Student Union terrace.

The first official presentation of the Junior Weekend princesses will be made at 4:30 p.m. by Merv Hampton, general chairman of Junior Weekend.

The Alpha Phi Omega service group will also be awarded during the intermission ceremonies to an underclassman who has done outstanding service for the University. Trophies for the campus clean-up will be presented to the contest winners.

The dance is a no-date affair, and there will be no admission charge. Campus clothes are in order for the dance. Parents of students are invited to attend, Joan Skordahl, general chairman of the Terrace Dance, has announced.

Cokes, coffee, and doughnuts will be served.

Chairmen for the Terrace Dance are Miss Skordahl, general chairman; Maggie Powne and Sarah Turnbull, decorations; Joanne Abel and Pat Rice, promotion; Jody Green, intermission; Rena White, properties; and Edith Kading, publicity.

Judges to Give 'Best Library' Cup at Sing

The Josephine Harpham silver cup will be awarded Friday at the All-Campus Sing to the student living organization which has developed the best reading program during the past year.

Any student living organization at the University which participates in the house library program will be eligible to compete for the award.

The following criteria, as applied to the records kept by the house librarians of books borrowed from the house library collection, will be employed by the judges in awarding the cup: (1) number of books borrowed per student in the house, (2) quality of books borrowed, and (3) the improvement of reading during the year in amount, quality and range.

The award will be made by Carl Hintz, University librarian.

Judges for the contest are Miss Bernice Rise, Browsing Room librarian; S. N. Karchmer, instructor in English; and Leona E. Tyler, associate professor of psychology.

'O' President Warns Violators to Appear

Air Force Cadets Receive Awards For Honorary

Recognition awards for initiation into Scabbard and Blade, national military honorary, will be made to six Army ROTC cadets during drill period at 1 p.m. today.

The cadets are Elmer G. Hibbs, Jay D. Huston, Tetsuo N. Takasumi, Ronald J. Terjeson, Richard B. Morton, and Kenneth L. Butts.

Twelve air force ROTC cadets were recognized for their initiation at the Tuesday drill period. They were Norman A. Peterson, Beldon E. Owens, John E. Jones, Clarence W. Hultgren, John G. Holden, James E. Hanns, Jim L. Bradford, Clarence E. Ford, Everett E. Eldridge, Robert J. Massingill, Donald R. Furtick, and Donald J. Ford.

Also recognized Tuesday by the group commander, Cadet Colonel Richard Kadink, were the members of the newly-organized "Command Squadron," made up of outstanding basic Air Force students.

Co-op Receipts Due by May 21

All Co-op members must turn in their receipts before 5 p.m. May 21 at the Co-op, according to G. E. Henson, Co-op manager.

The tickets must be listed and totaled before being turned in, he said. After May 21, the Co-op Board will meet to decide what percentage can be returned to the members. Co-op membership lists were closed May 1.

Weekend Court To Hit KERG

Interviews of the Junior Weekend princesses and the general chairmen of Junior Weekend will be heard at 8:30 p.m. tonight over KERG, Eugene radio station.

The general chairman will discuss plans for Junior Weekend, Cathy Swick, sophomore in speech, who is chairman of radio promotion, announced.

General promotion chairman for the weekend is Kay Kuckenber, junior in political science.

The traffic fatality total leaped from 31,800 in 1940 to 40,000 deaths in 1941.

Tommy Edwards, president of Order of 'O', warned all Junior Weekend Traditions Week violators that those who do not appear at 12:30 at Fenton Hall for their punishment will be caught and punished at the All-Campus luncheon Saturday. He also asked that Order of the 'O' members meet on the steps of Fenton at 12:10 today.

Violators cited in Wednesday's Emerald who did not appear for punishment include: Barry Mountain, Bill Carey, Don Smith, Wayne Carothers, Dick McLaughlin, Steve Church, and Steve Button.

Also on Wednesday's list were: Tom Bowman, Nancy Miller, Barbara Baker, Shirley Vandere, Wilma Hamilton, Don Sloan, Lynn Hartley, Barney Holland and Shirley Bonner.

Gayle Patee, Pat Lister, Dick Morse, Dick Stearns, Ted Anderson, Mary Fowler, Herb Cook, Bob Gray, Diane Bekins, Don Hedgepeth, Orlando Hollis and Bob Jones.

Bill Miller, Lee Jackson, Carol Lee Tate, Joan Kappel, Elizabeth Bell, Paul Hawkins, Joan Beal, Ron Chevrier, Marigene Pelouze, Ann Carson, Barbara Keeland, Dick Ziedar and Louise Finzer.

Moletta Moyer, Pat Howard, Clark Miller, Sue Johnson, Marjorie Williams, Betty Miller, and Jim Ramsey.

McCosh Display Now at Gallery

An exhibition of paintings and drawings by David J. McCosh, associate professor of art, is now being shown in the gallery of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts.

McCosh, who has been a member of the University staff since 1934, has been an exhibitor in national and regional shows for many years.

One of his paintings was included in the exhibition of American Painting recently held at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. This canvas is included in the group now being shown in Eugene.

Murals by McCosh are permanently installed in the Post Office Building in Kelso, Washington, and in the Department of Interior Building in Washington, D.C.

The entire group of oils and watercolors currently being shown was selected from work done by McCosh while on a sabbatical leave from the University during the past year.

Christensen Wins De Cou Award In Mathematics

Dorothy Jean Christensen was awarded the $50 De Cou Prize in recognition of her achievement and outstanding record in mathematics at a meeting of Pi Mu Epsilon, national mathematics honorary, Friday.

The prize is presented each year to the outstanding senior in mathematics by Mrs. E. E. DeCou.

New officers elected by the honorary are Wes Nicholson, director; Roger Moore, vice-director; and Sam Saunders, secretary-treasurer.

Nineteen new members were initiated into the group. Initiates are Kermit Clemens, Diane Ford, Bruce Koppe, David Lanning, Calvin Long, Cyrus McAllister, Gerald Owsley, William Parker, Donald Robison, Sam Saunders, Robert Silva, James Skelton, Frank Snyder, Donald Stark, Jochanan Stench, Karl Stromberg, John Toomey, LeRoy Warren, and Thomas Williams.

Princess Interviews

Rehearsals for the Junior Weekend princesses and their escorts will be held at 7:45 p.m. tonight in McArthur Court, Barbara Clerin, co-chairman of the queen selection and coronation committee, has announced.

CHOCOLATES

REMEMBER MOTHER ON HER DAY—MAY 13

SUGAR PLUM

63 East Broadway

Open Evs. 'Til 9

ORCHIDS from "Far Away Places" for MOTHER

ORCHIDS for every budget from $1 up

KNOW YOUR ORCHIDS—SEE THE CO-OP WINDOWS

- CO-OP-on campus ● EUGENE HOTEL-in the lobby
- SACRED HEART-12th & Alder Almost
- FLOWERS UNLIMITED-193 E. Broadway

--As near as your flower-phone 4-6244

BY WIRE, BY AIR, OR BY SEDAN DELIVERY