Student Entry In Libe Contest Deadline Friday

Deadline for entries in the Library Day Contest is 9 p.m. Friday, Miss Bernice Rise, Browning Room librarian, has announced.

"Sixty-eight students have entered their libraries in the contest, and we hope to at least equal the 77 entries of last year, if not surpass it," Miss Rise stated.

The libraries will be on display in the reserve book room of the main library Saturday. Judging will take place Saturday, with the nine winners to be guests at the 6:30 banquet of the Association of Patrons and Friends of the Library.

First prize in all three divisions of the contest, the undergraduate student's general library, the graduate student's library, and the undergraduate student's specialized library, is $25 in books. Second and third prizes in each division are $15 in books and $10 in books.

Community YWCA 66 66 6. The community YWCA is looking for a lifeguard to handle a swimming class three times a week, beginning Saturday and running through the end of June.

Classes will be conducted at the city pool and are in conjunction with the "Junior Miss" program. Anyone interested may contact Miss Lois Greenwood at the campus YWCA or Miss Marian Pavlovich, city Y director.

'Battle of Human Mind' Topic Of McCall Fireside Discussion

"Pioneering for the Battle of the Human Mind" will be the topic of discussion of R. C. McCall, head of the speech department, at the fireside at his home Tuesday evening.

In explaining his topic, McCall said that most battles are not important, for we should be battling for ideas, thoughts, and convictions instead of territories.

Another Carey

Bob Carey Jr., 1950 Oregon football player, has been elected vice-president of district 5 of the Oregon Junior Chamber of Commerce. Carey was elected at the Jaycees' annual state convention which was held in Portland last weekend.

At present, Carey is manager of the La Grande Chamber of Commerce. He is the brother of Bill Carey, newly-elected student body president.

KWAX Will Air All-Campus Sing In Friday Show

KWAX, the University FM radio station, will be the only station to carry a live broadcast of the All-Campus Sing at 8 p.m. Friday in McArthur Court, Jack Vaughn, manager, has announced.

In past years, local stations have carried transcriptions of the Sing, but this will be the first time the event has been broadcast directly from McArthur Court, Vaughn continued.

Handling the broadcast will be George Drougas and Clifton Cole, juniors in speech; and Richard Hardie, senior in speech.

Biology Seminar

Friday's biology seminar will be conducted by Gertrude Beyl, who will continue her discussions from last week on problems relating to radioisotopes.

Miss Beyl holds the master's degree in chemistry and has worked for two years in the biochemistry laboratory at Oakridge, Tenn.

The seminar will be held at 4 p.m. in 103 Deady.
