Chinese Red troops expanded a threatening bridgehead across the Coyang River on the central Korean front Monday despite the pounding of American guns.

These forces northeast of Chunchon may spearhead a second spring offensive by the 500,000-man Red army, expected in about ten davs

Elsewhere along the 100-mile front United Nations patrols probed no-man's-land with little opposition. However, two sharp clashes broke out on the western front.

One American task force ran into a Chinese ambush and pulled back after a determined battle. The second prolonged fight began when an armored American outfit ambushed a Chinese patrol.

For the first time in the war U. N. forces are getting a small but steady trickle of Chinese deserters, AP Correspondent John Randolph reported from this front. The deserters, often showing up with surrender leaflets, include some officers.

The Reds appeared to be avoiding strong contact while rushing fresh troops into buildup areas on the west and central fronts.

A Worldwide Ban on Shipments . . .

... of war goods to Communist China was voted by the U. N. Sanctions Committee Monday. The vote was 11 to nothing, with Egypt abstaining. The Sanctions group, formally known as the Additional Measures Committee, is a 14-nation body set up to consider punishment of Red China for her intervention in Korea. The committee's vote is only the first step toward imposition of the worldwide embargo. Countries voting for the proposed embargo were: the United States, Britain, France, Australia, Canada, Belgium, Brazil, the Philippines, Turkey, Mexico and Venezuela, Ernest A. Gross, United States delegate, told the committee before the vote that adoption of the resolution would demonstrate U. N. unity and make it clear the U. N. intends to meet and repel aggression in Korea.

The Navy Seaplance Tender Valcour . . .

. . and the S. S. Thomas Tracy, a collier, collided and caught fire shortly before 9 A. M. (PDT) Monday five miles east of Cape Henry, Va.

One man was known dead on the Valcour, a naval spokesman said. Shortly after 12 p.m., the navy cargo ship Thuban docked at Norfolk with six stretcher cases and 115 walking survivors aboard. The Thuban docked 15 minutes after the Thomas Tracy came slowly into Hampton Roads harbor. Observers saw no traces of fire or smoke. The fire on the Valcour was completely extinguished by 10:45 p.m., according to navy spokesmen. An hour later, salvage vessels were trying to bring the ship into port.

The Valcour had a 10-foot gash below the water line in ner starboard quarter. She was struck there by the Thomas Tracy.

Adoption of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's ...

... Korean war proposals would seriously affect Gen Dwight D. Eisenhower's European defense plans, was the fear expressed by Secretary of Defense George C. Marshall Monday.

Winding up seven days of testimony on MacArthur's ouster Marshall also said:

He believes Eisenhower supports President Truman's limited Korean war program.

Administration military leaders-including Gen. Matthew B. Ridgeway in his understanding-present a solid front in support of the President's plan and in opposition to MacArthur proposals for blockade of China, bombing of Manchurian bases and use of Chinese Nationalist troops.

MacArthur testified 10 days ago that it was his understanding that Ridgway, his successor in the far eastern commands, had similar views to his on how the Korean war should be conducted. He said he thought other military leaders there also agreed with him.

Britain Told Its Trouble-Shooting

... 16th Independent Parachute Brigade group Monday to bring itself at once to a state of readiness.

Simultaneously Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison-interrupting his Whitsun holiday on the isle of Wight-kept in touch with the foreign office by phone on the latest developments in Iran.

There was speculation that the two events were connected, and that Britain was ready to make a strong stand, if necessary, to hold its rich oil concession in Iran.

But this speculation was without official confirmation. A War Office spokesman stressed that the parachute brigade was not under sailing orders. He described the alerting order as routine war office business.

The unit now is assembling itself at Aldershott, 35 miles from London. It is known as the "fire brigade," because it is geared for emergencies.

The Congressional Check-up . . .

. . of administration economic controls switched Monday to President Truman's new Wage Board, which Senator Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) says he doesn't like at all.

The Wage Board set-up was recommended by labor, and endorsed by Truman's Farm and Public Mobilization advisers, but bitterly opposed by his industry advisers.

Labor agreed to go along with the mobilization program-after its walkout in January-only if the Wage Board was given authority to reccommend settlement terms in defense industry labor disputes. It was designed originally simply to fix limits for wage increases under the government stabilization program.

A New Strategy for House Republicans ...

... seeking to force Dean Acheson out of office as Secretary of State was proposed by Rep. Phillips (R.-Calif.) Monday.

Such a campaign has been under discussion in House cloakrooms for several weeks, and administration leaders have conceded privately they are not at all sure they can stop it.

Phillips, a member of the Appropriations Committee, has drafted an amendment which would strike Acheson from the state department payroll without mentioning him by name. Attempts to eliminate individuals by name have been blocked in the past by court rulings. top top 1.1

lean-up man on the baseball nine, this slugger doesn't like to reach for 'em . . . wants it right over the plate. And that's the way he likes his proof of cigarette mildness! No razzledazzle "quick-puff" tests for him. No one-whiff, one-puff experiments. There's one test, he's discovered, that's right down the alley!

It's the test that proves what cigarette mildness really means. THE SENSIBLE TEST ... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as a steady smokeon a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis.

After you've enjoyed Camels-and only Camels-for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), we believe you'll know why ...

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
