

SU 'Workshop' Program Sunday Features Exhibits

"Campus Workshop" is the theme of the creative arts program, to be presented at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union Ballroom under the chairmanship of Philbrook Heppner, senior in history.

The object of the "live" program is to select the best exhibits of student work on display in the SU Browsing Room, and present them in a program.

The display in the Browsing Room includes work in architecture, sculpture, painting, etching, short story writing, poetry, and weaving.

The program: "Pastorale," by John Hendrickson will be played by a wind ensemble from the School of Music. "Dark and Roving Eye," a short story, will be read by Mrs. Cecily Bonham.

"Uptown Car," a one-act play by Faber DeChaine, will be directed by Dave Swanson. The cast includes Clarire, Joice Balch; Novello, Jim Blue; Paper Boy, Mike Hemmingway; Drunk, Orville Collier; Second Man, Eric Matthews.

Poetry selections "Ancient Cambodia" and "If I Could Call Forth All My Strength," both written by Janet Patterson, will be read.

"You Left Your Echo," a ballad by John Epley, will be sung by Gordon Greene with Epley at the piano.

"The Mechanical Lover," a short story by Earle Taylor, will be presented.

A poetry series including "Invocation to Lillith, Goddess of Darkness," and "Walk With Me," both written by Roscoe Wright, and "Loyalties," "The Spider," and "Nocturnal Victory" all by Joanne Lewis, will be read.

"Greasepaint Interlude," a dance by Elmarie Wendel, will be danced by Fred Sausville.

The Julia Burgess Poetry Award will be announced by Philip Souers, head of the English department, and the prize-winning poem will be read.

Coffee will be served in the Dads' Lounge directly following the program.

General chairman for the SU creative arts committee is Barbara Bates. Philbrook Heppner is program chairman, and Catherine Black is assistant chairman. Publicity chairmen are Betty Moshofsky and Joyce Clark. Jim Albertson and Ray Nelson are in charge of the exhibit. Program chairmen are Jim McGrath and Roscoe Wright.

Faculty assistants for the creative arts program are Miss Bernice Rise, Browsing Room librarian; Mrs. Ottilie Seybolt, associate professor of speech; and S. N. Karchmer, instructor in English.

Landry Receives Sociology Award

Ruth Landry, senior in sociology, was awarded the Chi Omega sociology prize at a dinner in her honor Thursday night.

The award of $25 is made annually by the sorority to the woman student in the department of sociology deemed most worthy on the basis of scholarship, character, and promise.

Job Office Lists Several New Interviews

The graduate placement office has listed several new interviews for graduating seniors which will take place during the next few days.

A. B. White of the B.F. Goodrich Company will interview today those students who have filled out applications and are interested in the sales department of the company.

A Weyerhouser Timber Company representative will interview men interested in accounting Tuesday.

Also on Tuesday, the Gamble Western Auto Supply Company will interview men for their retail store managership training program. This program will be carried out in Medford.

The sales training program of the Pacific Fruit and Produce Company will be explained in interviews on Wednesday by Mr. Paul Henry, personnel manager of the firm.

H. E. Kirk, employee relations manager of Safeway Stores, Inc., will interview graduating seniors regarding retailing business on Thursday.

Appointments for all these interviews may be made at the graduate placement office in Emerald Hall.

Music Students Slate Recitals

A group of student recitals, featuring three pianists, an organist, and a baritone, will take place at 4 p.m. today in the School of Music Auditorium.

Winnafred May, pianist, will play Scott's "Lento," and Bach's "Prelude and Fugue in B flat major." Sally Lewis, organist, will give Bach's "Prelude in C minor" and Max Reger's "Intermezzo in A minor." Schubert's "My Peace Thou Art," and Tchaikowsky's "Why," will be sung by Malcolm Norton, baritone, accompanied by Jeanette Holloway.

LaVerne Watts, pianist, will present Rachmaninoff's "Prelude Opus 32, Nos. 3 and 12," and Betty Bagley, pianist, will perform Schumann's "Des Abends" and "Aufschwung."

Forum Topics Vary in Nature

A variety of topics were discussed at the faculty fireside held at the home of R. C. McCall, head of the speech department, Tuesday night.

Touching on everything from teaching methods in grade schools to the effectiveness of the "Voice of America" broadcasts, the students attending discussed quite thoroughly the foibles of human nature and the fact that it was the next great field to be conquered.

Refreshments were served during the meeting. Representatives of the YW and YMCA attended.

This fireside was one of a series which have been sponsored by the two organizations in an effort to further relations between instructors and students.

Frosh Picnic Sign-up Urged

p.m. at Armitage State Park, Saturday, have been made by the Frosh Council.

Freshmen who are planning to attend the picnic should sign up with the frosh representative from each dormitory, since food will be provided by the university for the ones attending from the various dorms, Class President Wayne Carothers stated.

Final plans for the Frosh picnic, which is to be held from 1 to 3:30
