

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Fluked The Finger-Nail Test

DON'T let those stripes fool you. J. Paul was no prisoner of love! His hair looked like a tiger rag, and he was feline mighty low. But did Sheedy buy a wig? No! He's not a cheetah! "I hate to be catty," his roommate said, "but even an ugly puss looks better with Wildroot Cream-Oil! Non-alcoholic! Contains soothing Lanolin! Relieves annoying dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the fingernail test!" Sheedy got Wildroot Cream-Oil, and now he has every girl on campus waiting in line for a date! So, be cagey... get a tube or bottle of Wildroot Cream-Oil Hair Tonic at any drug or toilet goods counter today. And ask your barber for professional applications. Then you'll be the cat's pajamas. But don't delay. Meow is the time!

Co-op Cashes Many Checks; Loses Little

Every fiscal year the University Co-op cashes about one and one-half million dollars worth of checks as a service to students, yet last year the Co-op lost only $63 in bad checks, according to information by Gerda Brown, Co-op office manager. Of the $63, Mrs. Brown said, about $35 was lost as the result of intentional bad checks, written by a professional bad check writer.

1952 Oregana Reservations On Sale at SU

Reservations for copies of the 1952 Oregana will be on sale beginning Wednesday in the Student Union ballroom, Chuck Isaak, business manager, announced Saturday. The Oregana salesmen will be stationed near the registration lines.

Major changes in the format of the yearbook are being contemplated, according to Editor Bob Funk. The theme of the book will correspond with the University's seventy-fifth anniversary this year, and special attention will be given to University of Oregon history.

The upper editorial and business staffs of the Oregana are not yet complete; however, a number of appointments have been made, some of them subject to the approval of the Student Publications Board.

Editorial appointments are Bonnie Birkemeier, layout editor; Pat Mullin, associate editor in charge of living groups; Sarah Turnbull, associate editor, copy; and Kay Keller, art editor.

Appointments to the business staff are Ron Kovar, advertising manager; Dolores Parrish, assistant business manager; Jon Eremeeff, assistant advertising manager; and Alan Opplinger, organization manager.

Jody Greer will be in charge of publicity and promotion for the yearbook. Jim Goldrainer will assist Miss Greer.

Two open houses have been planned one by the editor and one by the business manager. Persons interested in working on the book have been requested to attend either or both. The first will be Thursday and will be held in conjunction with the Student Union open house. At that time the Oregana offices will be open, rooms 307-308, third floor, Student Union.

The regular annual Oregana open house will be held from 7:15 to 9:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 27, at the Oregana offices.

University Orchestra Needs Musicians

Any student interested in joining the University orchestra should sign up at the Music school, E. A. Cykler, orchestra director announced.

Rehearsals will be held Monday and Friday afternoons from 4 to 5 p.m. and Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. First rehearsal will be held Sept. 24.

Since the first program is scheduled for the evening of Nov. 1 in conjunction with the formal opening of the 75th anniversary jubilee, it is necessary that all students, music majors and others, indicate their interest immediately, Cykler said.
