New Phone Numbers . . .

. . . of all campus living organizations which have had pay telephones installed appear on Page 8.

VOLUME LIII

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1951

NUMBER 3

Frosh Orientation Program Goes into Second Week

Duckling orientation will continue this week, with open houses the main feature of the program.

The YMCA open house will be held from 2-5 p.m. today in the YMCA office on the third floor of the Student Union; the YWCA will hold its open house for all interested women from 3-5 p.m. Wednesday in Gerlinger Hall.

Thursday freshman women will meet Mrs. Golda Wickham, director of women's affairs, at a tea sponsored by the Associated Women Students from 3-5 p.m. in Gerlinger Hall.

The Women's Recreational Associtaion will hold open house from 7-9 p.m. Thursday in Gerlinger Hall. All women interested in WRA will hear about its program for the year.

Sunday is "Go-to-Church" day, sponsored by the University Religious Council. The council urges

Orientation Schedule

Monday 2-5 YMCA Open House 6:30-8 Tryouts for Assistant Yell Kings

Tuesday 7-9 Tryouts for Rally Girls Wednesday

3-5 YWCA Open House 7-9 Tryouts for Rally Girls Thursday

3-5 A.W.S. Dean's Tea 7-9 W.R.A. Open House 7:15-9:30 Oregana Open House Sunday

11: "Go-to-Church" Sunday 3 IFC Tour

al students to attend church and become acquainted with the Eugene church of their denomination. The Infraternity Council will conduct a tour of fraternity houses at 3 p.m. Sunday. Starting place for the tour will be announced this week in the Emerald.

In addition to these features, tryouts for assistant yell kings and rally squad members and an open for prospective Oregana workers have been scheduled by the Orientation committee as part of the orientation program.

Oregana Staff Plans Open House

Persons interested in working on open house from 7:15 to 9:30 p.m. silks. Thursday in 308 Student Union.

tunities with open house visitors. decile previously needed.

Ducks Arrive Early, See 'Indian', Color,

thusiasm, Oregon Ducks traveled rally squad. to Portland last weekend to view the football season opener between nied by Ron Symons and four eyethe Len Casanova-coached Oregon catching rally girls, entered the squad and the Stanford Indians as they tangled in Multnomah sta-

Early arrival in the stands seemed to be the byword and the in short order removed from the bleachers assigned to Oregon students begin to fill in the late morning, although the game was not scheduled to begin until 1:30 p.m. However, enterprising Webfoots met the lengthy wait with playing cards, newspapers, box lunches and tic-tac-toe games. Coke salesmen did a fantastic business.

Stanford Indian Ousted

The pre-game appearance of a "Stanford Indian", alias one Jack Faust, wrapped in a blanket of faded color and ancient origin and paid to them and they spent the re-

Fall Rushing Set for Women

Formal fall rushing for women will begin Oct. 5, Panhellenic President Joanne Lewis has announced.

'Quiet period," during which time there may be no contact between rushees and sorority members except during rushing functions, begins today and will run through rush week.

A meeting for all rushees will be held at 6:30 p.m. Oct. 4 in Gerlinger at which time Miss Lewis will explain rushing procedures and answer questions.

the next day and run through Oct. 8. Monday wif be preference day, with rushees turning in their preference cards following their last Bids will be picked up on Tuesday morning beginning at 6 a.m. and the new pledges are due at their respective houses by 7:15 a. m. for breakfast.

Campus clothes will be in order for all dates Friday and Saturday. the 1951-52 Oregana are invited but Sunday and the Monday prefby the Oregana staff to atend an erence dates will call for short

All those interested in rushing Oregana editor Bob Funk, Busi- are to sign up in the office of Mrs. ness Manager Chuck Isaak, and Golda P. Wickham, director of members of the Oregana staff will women's affairs. A 3 stanine is rebe present to discuss job oppor- quired to rush, instead of the 4

Sparked by pre-classroom en- hue, was cut short by the Oregon

Yell King Cy Newman, accompastadium in a "Black Maria", courtesy of the Portland Police Department, and preceded by warning blasts on a siren. The rally squad "Stanford Indian" both blanket and dignity and when last seen he was riding away in the paddy wagon attired in argyle socks and white broadcloth shorts.

Indians Present Stunt

Three members of the Stanford rally team presented themselves shortly afterward and by means of an umbrella, a raincoat, and a watering can sought to demonstrate that Oregon is considered a rainy state. Little attention was covered with war paint of varied mainder of the game vainly calling over the public address system for a Mr. Smith, apparently the only Stanford alumnus present for the > Warm-up drills by the Oregon and Stanford teams were greeted vocal encouragement by members of both schools assisted by frantic arm waving and other physical girations conducted by the respective rally squads. Music was provided by bands from Benson and Cleveland high schools in Port-riot of color. Goal posts were decorated with the lemon and green of Oregon and crimson and white of Stanford. Crepe paper streamers topped the metal poles which land, Turkey, the United Kingdom The rushing dates will begin on guard the playing area. The grass was green and the field was marked in white.

Field Proves Colorful

The Oregon football squad was dressed in green jerseys with white pants while the Stanford team wore a conservative red uniform. One young coed was heard 5-1511, extension 242. to remark, "Aren't they pretty?"

During the half-time intermis-

Planning Group Meets to Discuss Parking Problem

Because of the campus parking problem, the campus planning committee will meet Tuesday to discuss the problem and make suggestions regarding a solution to University President H. K. Newburn, a spokesman for the committee told the Emerald Friday.

Faculty parking and possibilities for reserved faculty parking space, he said, will be especially considered.

The faculty parking problem arose from the new parking setup this year, under which no areas are reserved for faculty parking. The only reserved area is that space set aside for administrative parking next to Johnson Hall. Areas which previously were reserved for faculty have been opened to both faculty and students. Also two street areas have been equipped with city meters to provide parking for University visitors.

Applications Due For Foreign Study

Deadline on applications for foreign study and teaching in 1952-53 under the Fulbright Act is Oct. 15, John D. Provart, foreign student advisor, announced today.

The Fulbright Act gives Oregon students the chance to do undergraduate work, graduate work, or teaching in 19 foreign countries. At least two college students from Oregon will be among the 1,200 Americans to participate next year, Porvart said.

Participating countries in the 1952-53 academic year will be: The football field itself was a Australia, Austria, Belgium, Luxembourg, Burma, Italy, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Egypt, France, Greece, India, Iran, Pakistan, The Philippines, Thaiand the United States.

Provart emphasized students interested should contact him immediately for further information and applications. His office is in the Registrar's office of Emerald hall. He may also be reached by calling Fulbright awards are available stipened, and living allowance.

Fall Term Enrollment Tops 3,800

As of Saturday noon, approximately 3800 students had completed registration by payment of fees, according to the University cashier, Max Bauer.

This figure is not accurate as it was obtained from the cash register and the machine records figures other than fee payments.

The main reason for the small registration number was given as the Portland game last Saturday. Students from Portland could have stayed there during the past week, saving themselves money on board and room and the round-trip fare to Portland for the game. When they begin registering today, or later, it will cost them a $1 a day in late registration fines.

The predicted registration for fall term is 4500, a 10% drop in enrollment. The drop was expected because of the students who will be serving in th armed forces and the smaller number of World War II veterans.

As mentioned above, those who complete registration on Monday or later will pay a fine of $1 a day, unless they have a legitimate ex-

(Please turn to page seven)

Emerald Staff Positions Open

New Emerald workers will have a chance to meet the upper staff and obtain an idea of the workings of the campus daily at 6:30 p.m. today in 105 Journalism.

All students interested in working on the Emerald staff are invisited to attend the meeting Lorna Larson, editor, said. Miss Larson, Managing Editor Phil Bettens, Business Manager Abbott Paine, News Editor Larry Hebart, and Sports Editor Phil Johnson will briefly talk to those attending the meeting about their sides of the Emerald.

Positions open on the Emerald include reporting, copy desk work, feature writing, news writing, sports reporting, advertising work, and night staff work.

105 Journalism is in the second in almost every field to students floor of the Journalism building, sion high school bands created with good records. Grants are for which is located opposite the new on the playing one year and usually include round science building, now under confield and entertained with school trip transportation, tuition or a struction, on University st. north of 13 th ave.

Program of Lectures by Lawyers, Law Students Begins Fall Term

fall in which the lawyers will exthe law students will teach the

The first phase of the program will be a night class conducted during fall term as a part of the General Extension Division's evening program. Eleven lectures will be delivered by leading lawyers from Lane county on Tuesday evenings beginning the week of September

The Lane County Bar Associa- by outstanding students of the ers will be judged by the Bar Assotion, the General Extension Divi- University of Oregon School of ciation on the basis of professional sion, and the University of Oregon Bar Association at their weekly Law delivered to members of the School of Law will cooperate in a meetings. Each lecture will be on three year program beginning this a recent important decision of the ing at the General Extension Divi-Oregon Supreme Court or of the plain legal matters to laymen and highest court of a neighboring tion may also be completed at the state. Winner of this "Case An- first meeting, 7:30 p.m. in room 3, alvsis Contest" will receive $50 as Fenton. This is a non-credit course; prize. Second prize is $25. Lectur- fee is $10.

competence.

Anyone interested in enrelling in the night class may do so by callsion office, 1225 Kincaid. Registra-

J School to Sponsor Press Conference

The University of Oregon campus will be the site for the 25th high school press conference on Oct. 12 and 13. Approximately 300 stu-

Panels and special speakers who will attempt to solve the various problems presented to them in 24. The lectures will be on topics of dents and teachers are expected to round table discussions will make interest to the layman such as attend the conference activities up most of the two-day program. "Negligence", "Contracts and which will center around the Stu-Liens", and "Income, Inheritance, dent Union. The conference, an va and Dr. Roy McCall of the dent Union. The conference, an va and Dr. Roy McCall of the annual affair, is sponsored by the speech department will also be fea-The second part of the program Oregon Scholastic Press of the tured speakers at the "silver anni-will be a series of fifteen lectures University School of Journalism."

S.P. to Present 'Safety First' Program; Event Scheduled Tuesday in Mac Court A safety first program in induscific in organizing the program.

try, sponsored by the Southern Pacific Railroad and brotherhood unions, in conjunction with the School of Business Administration, will be staged at 8 p.m. Thursday in MacArthur Court.

Though the program will especially interest students in business administration, particularly those in industrial management and personnel management, as well as sostudents and other members of the Oregon State Police, M. A. Nugent, to C. F. Ziebarth, associate professor of business administration, representative of Governor Dougwho is working with Southern Pa- lay McKay.

From 1800 to 2000 personnel of Southern Pacific in Oregon are expected to attend the program, Ziebarth said. The safety first program is designed to emphasize the importance of safety in industry.

Victor P. Morris, dean of School of Business Administration, will be speaker at the program, as will J. W. Corbert, vice-president in charge of operations of the Southern Pacific, Also present will be ciology and psychology majors, all Captain Walter Lansing of the Chiversity are invited, according superintendent of safety of the Southern Pacific railroad and a Gift and Estate Taxes"