Ducks Work Out Lightly

The Oregon Ducks concentrated upon fundamentals, conditioning, and strategy in a light workout Monday afternoon.

After some sprinting exercises and work at blocking and tackling, Coach Len Casanova's gridders spent some time attempting to correct mistakes which were costly in Saturday's Stanford game. Pass defense and pass offense were stressed.

The practice closed with a light scrimmage. Halfback Bob Ashworth, Fullback Ron Lyman, and Halfback Dennis Sullivan did not participate. Ashworth has a slightly-injured leg, and Sullivan a minor shoulder injury.

Lyman might remain out of action for three or four days, but Ashworth and Sullivan are expected to recover rapidly.

Guard Howard Allman and Fullback Tom Novikoff have sprained thumbs. Oregon meets Arizona at 1:30 Saturday on Hayward Field.

Managers Wanted

Duck Varsity Football Manager Stan Goodell announced Monday that he needs several assistants to help manage the varsity or junior varsity games. He can be contacted at 5-9120.

and Warren's Astoria gridders were undefeated in 1928, 1929, and 1931.

When the highly-successful prep mentor became Oregon Frosh football and basketball coach in 1935, he had amassed a prep coaching record of 306 basketball wins against 36 losses and 56 grid triumphs against 14 setbacks.

Warren's seven Frosh basketball squads won 108 games while losing only 12, and his Yearling football elevens won 18 and lost 10.

Warren bossed the draft-riddled varsity football squad in 1942. Although his pigskin-packers won only two of eight games, one of the wins was a 14-7 upset of the UCLA eleven which later went to the Rose Bowl.

Oregon then discontinued football, and Warren was placed in charge of the A.S.T.P. program, a military venture on the campus. When Basketball Coach Howard Hobson left the campus in 1945 for a year of military service, Warren became head basketball coach.

Frosh Lead
Led by three talented freshmen, Dick Wilkins, Jim Bartelt, and Reedy Berg, Warren's Ducks captured the Northern Division title and went to the Western NCAA playoffs at Kansas City, where they placed fifth in the national standings.

The Ducks started slowly in the Kansas City tournament, and they soon found their first-round opponents, the Arkansas Razorbacks (leading by 20 points). Oregon then rallied and tied the score at 76-76, but the Razorbacks, scored three in the final minute to win 79-76. Oregon dropped Utah 69-66 in the second game.

Text of Warren Letter

Following is the full text of Warren's letter of resignation to Athletic Director Leo Harris.

Dear Sir:

Because I am going into business in Eugene, I tender my resignation as basketball coach at the University of Oregon as of October 1, 1951.

Having graduated from the University and having been here as a coach for 16 years, I naturally have a deep affection for the University of Oregon and I will miss the boys and my basketball team. However, because of the uncertainty and pressure on a coach and his family, I feel it is advisable to go into something more secure.

I realize this is late in the year to resign but I have an opportunity now to go into a business. I feel sure you will be able to hire a satisfactory basketball coach before the season starts, but in case of some unforeseen difficulties I will continue coaching to November 1, 1951 rather than leave without a coach the boys I regard so highly and am so fond of.

Yours Truly,
John A. Warren

J.C. Tennis Star Enrolls at U of O

Paul Willey, National Junior College singles finalist and a member of the championship doubles team last season, enrolled at Oregon Monday to add further strength to the Duck tennis squad for next spring's campaign.

Willey, a transfer from Modesto JC, will be a junior. In other net tournaments last season he won the Northern California title in the doubles and was a finalist in the singles.

The new Duck is a resident of Vancouver, British Columbia, and in 1949 won the Canadian Junior singles title.

IM Entries Due

Assistant Intramural Sports Director Everett D. Peery announced Monday that fall term intramural sports entry blanks are due at 3 p.m. today.

The blanks can be picked up at the IM office or the Physical Education office. Both offices are in the Physical Education building. If an organization has lost its blanks, they can be picked up in either office.

Peery also asked that students interested in becoming Intramural touch football and volleyball officials contact him at the Intramural office, Room 106 in the Physical Education building. Standard U of O wages will be paid.

Five Game JV Slate Released

The Oregon Duck Junior Varsity grid squad, coached by Bill Bowerman, will open the 1951 season with an October 6 clash at Eugene with the Portland Air Force Base squad.

This Saturday game will be played on the same day that Coach Len Casanova's Oregon varsity meets the College of Pacific Tigers at Stockton.

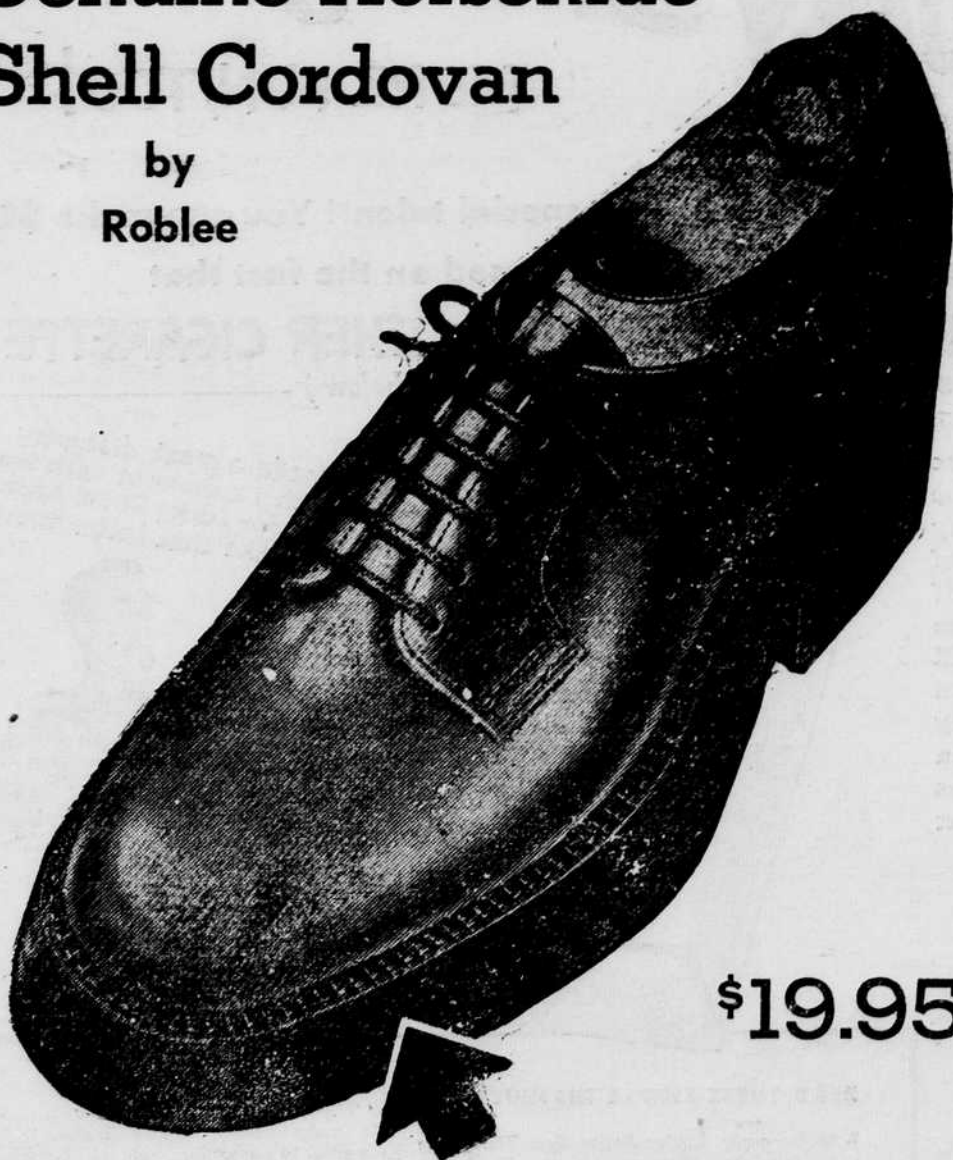

The Jayvees will not see action on the following weekend, when the Duck varsity will be battling with Washington at Portland, but the Oregon juniors will meet the Oregon State Jayvees six days later, on October 19, at Eugene.

The fourth Jayvee game will be a November 9 clash with the Willamette University Junior Varsity at Salem. The Webfoot varsity will be away from home on that weekend, since they meet Boston U. at Boston on November 10.

The final Duck Jayvee encounter will be a Corvallis meeting with the OSC juniors on November 17, the second battle between the two clubs. Oregon's varsity will meet the California Bears at Berkeley on the same day.
