Don't forget that the billiard tables and ping pong tables are in the Student Union for your pleasure, also. The tournaments for these two activities will be held later in the year and there are trophies for the women as well as the men. If you would like to see the trophies given throughout the year by the recreation committee drop down and take a look.

League Teams Play

Lutheran Students Set Meetings

The Lutheran Students Association will meet Saturday and Sunday with all students invited both times, Don Lee, president, said Wednesday.

The Saturday event will be an open house, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the Lutheran House, 1376 Alder st.

Sunday's meeting will be held at 5:30 p.m. at the same place. Don Neraas, junior in architecture and allied arts, will give a short talk on the Lutheran Students Association. Lee will talk on the Lutheran Students Convention in Interlocken, Mich., this past summer. Lee attended the convention.

The talks will be followed by a progressive dinner, with the students going to different Lutheran churches in Eugene and obtaining part of the dinner at each church.

The male salmon, as well as the female, dies after the eggs are laid.

Killing time

After dark—when visibility is poorest—danger is greatest. So be sure to slow down and be extra alert at night. Be sure, too, to keep your windshield free of mud or grime and to see that your windshield wipers do their job. Remember—what you can't see can hurt you!

Be Careful—the life you save may be your own!

WRA on Parade

"WRA on Parade," skits which will explain the various activities of the Women's Recreational Association, will be shown at 6:30 p. tonight in Alumni Hall in Eugene.

"Any University woman who is interested should definitely come and especially freshmen who would like to find a good activity to participate in," stated Joan Skordahl, president of WRA.

The program for tonight will include an introductory speech by Miss Skordahl, the skits, an imitation by Marilyn Patterson, and refreshments.

Two representatives of WRA will be in the lobby of Carson at 5 p.m. to take persons interested to the skits.

SU Sets Deadline For Petitioners

Friday at 5 p.m. is the deadline for turning in petitions for Student Union committees.

Petitions may be obtained in room 301 of the SU, the office of the program director, Olga Yevtich.

All students who petition will be placed in the activity pool. Students who do outstanding work in the activity pool will be placed on one of the 11 standing committees.

Committees open for petitioners are the art gallery, Browsing Room, concert, dance, house, movie, music, personnel, publicity, recreation, and workshop.

Petitioners will be notified of the time of their interviews.
