

Webfoots Finish Drills For Tough COP Tigers

Ducks Entrain South For Only Night Game

The Oregon Webfoots tapered off Thursday night in preparation for their only night tilt of the year Saturday with the College of Pacific Tigers in the Pacific Memorial Stadium at Stockton. The Ducks leave Eugene tonight by train.

In a closed practice Thursday, the Ducks polished both their offensive and defensive games. The first team ran through a dummy offensive exercise against a reserve unit holding blocking pads. At the other end of the field, the Junior Varsity team ran COP plays at less than full speed to sharpen the Oregon first defensive platoon.

Punting and punt returns were also rehearsed with Monte Brethauer and Tom Novikoff handling kicking chores while Tommy Edwards and George Shaw cavorted in the safety positions.

Tigers Blood Thirsty
The COP Tigers are apparently "loaded" this season. The Ernie Jorge-coached squad has scored 79 points while winning its first two games of the season. Duck Backfield Coach John McKay said that halfbacks Eddie Macon and Tom McCormick were as good as any in the country and were drawing the expert eye of Cleveland Browns Coach Paul Brown.

The COP defensive unit has held Hardin-Simmons and Loyola to a total of 100 yards rushing, while the offensive platoon has ripped off 785 yards in their wins over Hardin-Simmons by a 33-7 count, and Loyola by a 41-28 mark.

After spending the first three days of the week fighting rain and mud, besides their opponents, intramural pigskin-packers went on a rampage Thursday, displaying heretofore hidden offensive talents. Alert and hard-driving defenses played an important role though as seen by the majority of low scores.

In perhaps the roughest scrap of the day, Sigma Nu pounded its way to a 2-0 triumph over Alpha Tau Omega. For three periods, neither team could score, but then the Sigma Nus hit paydirt and were never caught.

Midway in the fourth quarter, Rich Terjeson broke through the ATO forward wall and nailed Bob Ward in the end zone for a safety. That score doesn't tell the whole story, though, for earlier in the game, Joe Segura flipped a 25-yard aerial to Terjeson for a Sigma Nu TD, only to have it called back on account of unnecessary roughness.

ATO Holds Line

They threatened again in the third quarter, but a stout ATO defense held the line for four downs on their own 7-yard line.

The highest score of the day was posted by Gamma Hall in its victory over Alpha Hall. Led by Bill Nikkelson, star tailback, the Gammas piled up 28 points while holding their opponents scoreless. One way or another Nikkelson was responsible for every tally. Early in the first half, he passed to Chan Sogge for the initial TD, and then to John Gamiles for the extra point.

Sederstrom Wins

Sederstrom Hall kept its win streak alive with a 6-0 triumph over Hunter Hall. The victors countered early in the first quarter on a pass play from Howard "Lefty" Page to Pat Ford.

Previously, Page had completed three straight aeriels to set up the touchdown play. The try for conversion was no good. After that quick scoring spree, the Hunter defenses stiffened and the fracas turned into a knockdown, drag-out defensive tussle.

Another high-scoring game was the Kappa Sig-Tau Kappa Epsilon contest. The Kappa Sigs combined passing offense and top-notch defense to down the Tekes 19-0. Bill to raise a protest. It was the second time this year the Negro outfielder had stolen home.

The Giants scored no more until Dark dumped his drive into the left field stands in the sixth inning, but the way Koslo was whipsawing the Yankees, runs were a surplus commodity.

The Yankees scored their only run in the second inning when Gil McDougal cracked a double to left and moved to third on a single by Coleman. When Thompson bobbled the ball for an error, he came home. It would have been an unearned run but a subsequent single by Pitcher Reynolds took the onus off Thompson.

The big Giant sixth inning just put the string around the victory package that Koslo was wrapping up. Catcher Wes Westrum singled with one out to start the rally. Koslo moved him along with the first of two neat sacrifice bunts. Eddie Stanky drew a walk. Not that it mattered in the light of subsequent developments, but the Yankees just missed picking Westrum and Stanky off base, Westrum on the fourth ball to Stanky when he was slow returning to second, and Stanky after he took a fat lead off first.

Duck Reserves Host Portland

Bill Bowerman's University of Oregon Junior Varsity eleven takes over dormant Hayward Field tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 with the Portland Air Base Flyers listed as the opposition.

The Duck reserves will number slightly in excess of 30, Bowerman, varsity track mentor and Casanova's end coach, announced. The Jayvees will utilize the Oregon system, the "T" formation offense included.

The University Athletic Office listed the price of admission as the customary student athletic card.

The starting Oregon lineup as revealed by Bowerman:

OUT OF THE CELLAR

While burning up the alleys yesterday with a hot 102 I happened to glance over in the next alley where a cool 231 met my eyes. The score belonged to Mr. Gelhausen of the music school who rolled a 225 last week for the highest mens score. I wonder what his secret is?

Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Theta Chi, Kappa Sigma, Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Phi Epsilon and Pi Kappa Phi square off at 6:30 Tuesday evening as the fraternity league gets under way. These houses produced some of the finest bowlers on the campus last year, so should be a good race.

Wednesday evening at 6:30 the dorm league starts with Alpha, Gamma, French and Sherry Ross in the race. Thursday Minturn, Alpha, and the Frosh councillors start their play. There is still time to enter a team in the dorm league before plays begin next week.

"What's his race or religion got to do with it— He can Pitch!"

You admire this kid, don't you? He's got guts enough to stand up for his pitcher against the whole opposing team.

But this kid has more than guts! He has grasped one of our very oldest American traditions—that men and women have the right to be judged on the basis of their individual merits. Being "foreign" is nothing against an individual—nor is his race—nor is his religion.

It's up to each of us to keep disunity from our families, our community and our country.

Make sure that you are not spreading rumors against a race or a religion. Speak up, wherever you are, against prejudice, and work for better understanding. Remember that's being a good American citizen.
