

Partly Cloudy . . .

. . . today. Saturday in Portland, showers. Both days, high 65, low 45.

Oregon Daily

OREGON'S 75th YEAR

EMERALD

Fifty-third Year of Publication

VOLUME LIII

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1951

NUMBER 17

Journalists from 86 High Schools To Arrive for 25th Annual Meeting

The 25th annual high school press conference will open at 1 p.m. today when 426 students and 76 advisers from 86 of Oregon's high schools will begin registering at the Student Union.

Sponsored by the Oregon Scholastic Press and the Association of Journalism Advisers, the conference Friday afternoon and Saturday morning will be made up of panel discussions moderated by University journalists. Friday afternoon will also feature a group of "bull sessions" for discussions of problems relating to papers and year-books.

Cartoonist Bibler To Visit Emerald, Talk at Conference

Dick Bibler, the creator of the "Little Man on Campus" cartoon, will arrive on campus this morning to attend the high school journalism conference.

At noon, Bibler will lunch with the staff of the Oregon Daily Emerald in the Student Union.

DICK BIBLER: A Self-portrait

erald in the Student Union. He is to be drawing cartoons for the Emerald during the afternoon.

Saturday noon, he will present a chalk talk as the featured speaker at the final event of the conference, a luncheon in the SU ballroom.

The "Little Man on Campus" cartoon runs in 21 daily and 96 weekly school papers, the Emerald being one of them. Gordon A. Sa-

Want a Cartoon?

Cartoonist Dick Bibler will be at the Emerald Shack today drawing cartoons for the Emerald. Any campus organization wishing a cartoon may make arrangements to have him draw one by calling the Shack, ext. 217.

A small fee will be charged for each cartoon.

bine, dean of the journalism school, suggested the cartoon title.

Bibler is studying at Stanford University, preparing to teach. He studied education at Colorado State college last year and the year before, received his master of fine arts degree from the University of Kansas.

SU Music Rooms To Open Today

The music listening room in the Student Union will be open today, Carolyn Welch, SU music committee chairman, has announced.

Hours for the room, which is adjacent to the Browsing Room, are 3-5 p.m. and 8-10 p.m. Monday, Thursday, Saturday, and Sunday; and 3-5 p.m. Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday.

Friday at 6:30 p.m. there will be a banquet in the SU ballroom at which R. C. McCall, head of the speech department, and Len Casanova, head football coach, will speak.

Sabine to Speak

Gordon A. Sabine, dean of the journalism school and director of OSP, will act as master of ceremonies. Following the banquet, the delegates and their advisers will see the movie, "Call Northside 777," which concerns the exploits of a news reporter.

"Journalism Over the World" will be discussed by Wilhelmus A. Van Eekeren from Holland, M. S. Venkataramani of India, and Walter Schwarzlose of Germany at a breakfast Saturday morning at 8 a.m. in the SU ballroom. The three speakers are foreign students doing special work in journalism here at Oregon.

While the students are attending panels Saturday morning, the advisers will meet for a series of discussions of their own.

Awards Announced

Presentation of the first place awards in the 1951 Newspaper Improvement contest will be made at the Saturday noon luncheon in the SU ballroom. Slated to receive the awards are the Milwaukie High Milwaukian, the Sandy High Pioneer Press, and the Parkdale Satellite.

Featured speaker at the luncheon will be a chalk talk by Dick Bibler, creator of "The Little Man on the Campus" syndicated cartoon.

PORTLAND PRE-GAME ACTIVITIES SCHEDULED

Student activity in Portland in connection with the Oregon-Washington football game Saturday afternoon will include a rally Friday night at the Paramount Theater and a car parade to precede the game, Cy Newman, yell king, announced.

The rally in the Paramount Theater will begin at 8:30 p.m. Students are urged to get to the theater early, however, Newman said. There will be 1,000 seats saved on the main floor. Admission will be 65 cents with a student body card.

Several acts will be presented by campus groups, and the rally squad will lead the songs and yells. Roll Call of living organizations will also be taken.

See Films

Following the rally, a sneak preview of a top film will be shown plus a studio preview of "People Will Talk" starring Jeanne Crain and Cary Grant.

The car parade will form Saturday at 11:45 a.m. in Holiday Park. Led by the rally squad, the parade will move down 10th to Burnside, Burnside to Broadway, Broadway to Jefferson, Jefferson to 10th, 10th to Burnside and then to Multnomah Stadium. Parking will be available at the stadium Newman said.

Stadium gates will be open at 11 a.m. Saturday, Howard Lemons,

'THIS IS KWAX...'

KEN WARREN, left, KWAX news and talks producer, and D. Glen Starlin, station faculty adviser, are shown as they opened the UO radio station's first broadcast of the year Monday night.

—Photo by Pete Moe

athletic business manager anomah Stadium. Parking will be B and Lemons encouraged students to be in their seats by 12:45 p.m.

Students Seated

The student section will be in the west bleachers in front of the main grandstand and the south bleachers in front of the Multnomah Athletic Club. Admission will be by athletic activity cards only, which may be picked up at the athletic department in McArthur Court until 5 p.m. today. No athletic cards will be issued at the stadium.

Dress for women students will be campus clothes, Karla Van Loan, campus social chairman, has announced. This was decided by a vote taken in all women's living organizations.

Audience Approves Marine Band; Mac Court Nearly Full for Concert

The United States Marine Band, sponsored by the Student Union Board and directed by Major William F. Stanleymann, performed a very well received program before an almost full house at McArthur Court Thursday night.

The first part of their program consisted of the Star-Spangled Banner, the Overture "Carnival Romaine" from the opera "Benvenuto Cellini" by Hector Berlioz; "Rumbalero" by Salvador Camarata; a harp solo "La Rougette" by David Bennett, transcribed and played by Claude Pedicord; and Eduard Lalo's "Norwegian Rhapsody."

A march by Carl Teike, (a German competitor to John Philip Sousa, according to the program), "Old Comrades"; the "Andante and Rondo Capriccioso" by Felix Mendelssohn; a trombone solo by Robert Isele, "Atlantic Zephyrs" by Gardell Simons; Waltzes from "The Bat" by Johann Strauss; and, leaving the best till last, according to some band members interviewed, Peter Tschaiakowsky's "Capriccio Italien," made up the second portion of the program.

The response was so great that there were encores after every number, including the "Halls of Montezuma" (the Marine Song); the Sousa "Washington Post"

Gillmore Named Weekend Boss, Senate Confused

Francis Gillmore was appointed Homecoming chairman and Karl Harshbarger assistant chairman at Thursday's senate meeting but parliamentary procedure turned out to be the evening's hottest item.

Also appointed were eleven new members to the Rally board and a new senior class representative, Jean Gould. Rally board members are Lyn Hartley, Sunny Allen, Pat Booth, Bob Glassen, John Gram, Davia Saul, Paul Weller, Janet Shaw, Jack Nicols, Bob Stageberg and Joan Lawson.

Procedure Debate

Debate on procedure followed a vote which confirmed Gould's appointment as senior rep. President Bill Carey turned the chair over to vice-president Merv Hampton in order to voice his own opinion. A roll call vote was taken with Hampton still in the chair confirming Gould nine to eight.

Then Virginia Wright, member at large, challenged the action. "Was it necessary for the chairman to resume the chair before the vote was taken?" Nobody, including parliamentarian Tom Barry, could say for sure.

It was later learned that Carey had done the correct thing. Robert's Rules of Order says that once the president leaves the chair to speak he should not return until the question is disposed of. This would mean until the vote was taken.

Voting Discussed

Informal discussion following adjournment also disclosed the chairman (apparently anyone in the chair at the time of a vote) can cast two votes on occasion. The chairman, as a member of the senate can cast one vote to tie a decision and another, as chairman, to break it. But Hampton, who was

(Please turn to page seven)

UO Blood Drive Collects 609 Pints

The two-day campus blood drive ended Thursday as the Portland bloodmobile left the Student Union with a total of 609 pints, 9 more than the University quota.

The drive fell slightly behind Wednesday with only 281 pints, but Thursday's total of 328 more than compensated for the Wednesday mark.

Donations of non-student Lane County residents definitely helped to fill the quota, but student donations also played a major role.

Mrs. Cora I. Pirtle, manager of the Lane County chapter of the Red Cross, stated Thursday night that she was very grateful for the assistance of Bill Strong, county blood drive chairman, Gerry Pearson, campus blood drive chairman, all others who voluntarily assisted with the program, and all who gave blood during the bloodmobile visit.