

Twelve Try for Fulbright Award

Twelve applications for Fulbright awards for study abroad are being examined by a screening committee composed of eight faculty members, according to John Provart, foreign student adviser.

The twelve applicants will be interviewed during the week of Oct. 22 to 26. Two top applicants will be selected for consideration in the state contest. The other ten applications will be sent to the national committee for consideration at large.

Under the Fulbright program 1,000 awards are expected to be made Provart said. Those applicants who do not place in the state contest still have a chance for awards in the national contest, he explained.

Johnson President
First university president was John Wesley Johnson, one of the five faculty members, whose name was given to Johnson Hall. The other prominent figure in the first faculty was Thomas Condon, for whom Condon Hall was named, who taught geology and social sciences.

Preparatory instruction was handled by Mary Spiller, who was honored by the naming of Mary Spiller Hall, oldest dormitory on the campus until it was torn down this past summer. Other members were Mary Bailey and John Straub, the latter added to the staff in 1878. John Straub Hall, men's dormitory, was named for Straub.

Weede's Concert

and a trio of Negro spiritual type songs: "Down to the River" by MacGimse, "A City Called Heaven" arranged by Hall Johnson, and "The Animal Man" by Gus Klemm. Final encores included Leoncavallo's "Mattiata", Stephen Foster's "O Lemuel", "The Jasmine Door" by Alicia Scott, "Old Man River," and "Good-bye, My Little Captain of My Heart" by Stolz, a favorite, he reported, when he sang in Guadalcanal in the last war.

Dog Joins Audience
A non-paying guest at the evening concert was pointed out to the audience by Weede—a large red dog which attended the performance.

Weede will perform in Los Angeles Oct. 26 to Nov. 3 in the operas "La Traviata", "La Forza del Destino," "Tosca" and "Rigoletto." Some of the operas which Weede has had sizable parts in include "Pagliacci," "Khovanchina," and Gian Carlo Menotti's "The Old Maid and the Thief", which will be performed on campus spring term; Bernard Hermann's "Moby Dick", and William Grant Still's "Troubled Island."

On July 8, 1899, John L. Sullivan beat Jake Kilrain in 75 rounds in the last championship bare knuckle bout.

MEETINGS---

KWAX Staff

KWAX staff members will meet at 7 p.m. tonight in the conference room, third floor Villard, according to Dick Hardie, station manager.

Les Thelemites

Les Thelemites, French club, will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Westminster House.

Folklore Society

The Oregon Folklore society will be organized at a meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m. in Studio A of the University of Oregon Library on Thursday, according to R. V. Mills, assistant professor of English.

Don Hunter, director of the audio-visual department of the University library will present recordings of Oregon folk music from the collections he has made, and Kenneth W. Porter, visiting professor of history, will speak on "Folk History," a discussion of the use of folklore in the study of local history.

The society is being formed to encourage the collection, preservation and study of folklore in Oregon, Mills said. It is interested in local legends, place names, customs, sayings, songs, and crafts that are examples of the folkways of the people of Oregon.

Membership in the society is open to anyone interested in any aspect of American folklore or Oregon history, Mills stated.

The meeting is open to the public.

Science Building To Get Equipment

The new science building should be ready for the start of equipment installation by Nov. 1, according to physical plant superintendent, I. I. Wright.

More interior finish work is necessary before equipment can be installed, he said. Workmen are now putting in floor tile, with floor tile already installed on the second floor.

Painting and plastering are also not completed in the building, Wright added.

Fashion Magazine Sends Contest Rep To UO Campus

Women wishing interviews with the representatives of Mademoiselle, women's fashion magazine, who will be on campus next Monday may leave their names in the office of Mrs. Golda Wickham, director of women's affairs.

Interviews are in connection with the Mademoiselle college board contest. Deadline for entries in the contest is Oct. 31.

Lack of Materials Causes Short Delay

Work on the new business administration-social sciences addition is somewhat behind schedule due to delay in procurement of reinforcing steel, I. I. Wright, physical plant superintendent, said Monday.

The footings have been installed, he said, and the foundation walls—up to the first floor—will soon be poured. He added that workmen will soon be ready to pour the first floor slab.

Killing time

After dark—when visibility is poorest—danger is greatest. So be sure to slow down and be extra alert at night. Be sure, too, to keep your windshield free of mud or grime and to see that your windshield wipers do their job. Remember—what you can't see can hurt you!

Be Careful—the life you save may be your own!
