

OSC Charges

cial meetings can be called by the court chairman and the court established its own precedence.

Dispute over whether or not to include "minor", which was in the original document, involved arguments as to what Student Affairs might think minor and the possibility that without it, the court would have almost unlimited power.

Motion to table the resolution was defeated 16 to 5 and the final bill passed but with two dissenting votes. Merv Hampton had postponement until the next meeting to give time for consideration. But others, including Shirley Korpela, Arlo Giles and Herb Cook, successfully pressed for its immediate approval and labeled it a move "to increase the area of student government."

ASUO Senate

phones were installed on the campuses at Oregon and Willamette university. Each house is allowed one phone for business matters only.

Eade stated that it was up to the University of Oregon whether or not the University appeals the decision and demands a hearing, though Eade added that he doubted that it would be successful.

AAA Students Schedule Party

A Halloween party featuring games, dancing, and entertainment will be held by the Associated Students of Architecture and Allied Arts from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight today in the studios of the art school.

Jeans and pedal-pushers will be in order for the party which is stag or date. Refreshments will be served.

ASAAA membership cards will be required for admission. The cards will be sold at the door.

General chairmen for the social event are Melita Moyer, Diane Stout, and Dick Word.

Fellow Named Crosby In SU Sunday Movie

"Reaching for the Moon" will be shown at 2:30 and 4:15 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union ballroom, as the third movie in the series sponsored by the SU movie committee.

The picture was produced in 1931 and introduced Bing Crosby to films. Douglas Fairbanks, Sr., is the star of the film, with featured roles being taken by Edward Horton and Bebe Daniels.

The film, which is issued by the Film Classic Exchange, is light and entertaining and should be most interesting since it is Bing Crosby's first picture, Sandra Price, SU movie chairman, stated. Admission price is 30 cents.

Health Education Consultant to Speak

Elizabeth Avery, health education consultant for the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, will speak to professional graduates and undergraduate students in health and physical education at the University Nov. 1.

The subject of her talk will be trends and opportunities in the field. Her headquarters are in Washington, D.C.
