

Record Suggestions Wanted by Committee

Suggestion sheets to obtain the wishes of students on records they want in the new $450 Arley Norcross Memorial Collection of "quarter classics" were mailed to all living organizations Tuesday morning by the Student Union record-lending library committee.

The committee, set up to handle the new record-lending library, consists of Robert Koutek, Diane Dimon, Barbara Dickson, Loewy Ann Charles, and Trudy Eberhardt, under the direction of Jim Krueger, SU board member. The Arley Norcross collection will be the first records in the library.

Records purchased by the committee will be determined by the suggestions the students turn in, Miss Eberhardt, secretary, said. The committee hopes students will indicate their preferences, she stated, and would like to have the suggestion sheets returned within 10 days after receipt, so the records may be ordered before Christmas vacation. This would provide time for the records to arrive by the end of winter term, she said.

The money, donated to the University by friends of Miss Norcross, former Oregon student, will be used to purchase records of such music as that of George Gershwin, Ferde Grofe, and musical shows, according to the wishes of the donors, the committee said. The records, however, will not be restricted to American composers, the committee added.

This type of music was selected by the donors because they felt it would endure throughout the years. The collection will not be classical, nor will it consist of popular recordings, the committee explained.

The library, when set up, will be located in 206 SU, a music listening room. Its facilities will be available to all members of the University family.

SU Art Gallery Has Mead's Work

An exhibition of the works of Robert Mead, including copper engravings, prints and wood engravings, will be on display in the Student Union art gallery Monday through Dec. 4, Donna Covalt, chairman of the SU art gallery committee, has announced.

Mead, who lives in Carlsbad, N. M., has had works represented in many collections, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Carnegie institute, Library of Congress, and the Victoria and Albert museum.

The exhibition is a loan from the George Binet Print collection of Brimfield, Mass.

Theater Season Tickets Sales End

Deadline for purchase of University theater season tickets is 8 p.m. Saturday, it has been announced.

Due to the tremendous increase in season ticket sales this year, it won't be possible to continue the sale all year, as was the policy previously, according to Gene Wiley, theater business manager.

There is a possibility that general admission tickets won't be offered for all performances due to the limited capacity in the arena theater, and the increase in the number of season ticket holders, Miss Wiley said.

Season tickets are $5 and include six plays, some of which will be a double bill musical. Several bonus productions will be offered.

Cosmopolitans Date Open House Friday

The Cosmopolitan club will hold an open house at 8:30 p.m. Friday at Plymouth house, next to the Congregational church.

There will be a program, ball-room dancing, and refreshments. Semiformal dress (short silks for the women, suits for the men) will be in order.

Henry Fellowships Available to Grads

Four Henry fellowships to enable American students to study at Oxford and Cambridge universities in England next year have been announced by the American Trustees of the Charles and Julia Henry Fund.

Four American students, either men or women, will be selected for the fellowships, which provide a grant of 650 pounds ($1,820) to each fellow selected.

Students who will graduate in the spring of 1952 and recent college graduates from all parts of the United States, are eligible to apply for the fellowships.

Applications must be submitted on or before Jan. 15, 1952, to the Office of the Secretary of Yale University or to the Secretary to the Corporation of Harvard University, the trustees stated.

American Trustees of the Henry Fund are James B. Conant, president of Harvard (who gave the main address at the 75th anniversary convocation Friday); Wilbur J. Bender, and David W. Bailey, also of Harvard; and W. Whitney Griswold, president, William C. Devane, and Carl A. Lohmann, all of Yale.

Various Positions Open to Archivists

The General Service administration of Washington D. C., will offer various positions for archivists (record keepers) to be filled from the candidates in the social science option of the junior professional examination which will begin Tuesday.

Duties of archivists in government include arrangement and analysis of government records, preparation of inventories and lists, and other work concerning records. Archivists also perform reference and research work in various fields of government activity.

Additional information may be obtained at the graduate placement office in Emerald hall.

Junior Panhellenic Elects Officers

Ginger Loudon, Delta Delta Delta, was elected president of Junior Panhellenic, composed of presidents of sorority pledge classes, at the group's first meeting of the year Wednesday.

Other officers elected were Ann Bankhead, vice president; Jackie Stuart, secretary-treasurer; and Nan Mimnaugh, reporter.

Sally Hazeltine, last year's president of the group, spoke on the organization's activities last year and described the rotation system used in selection of the president.

Joanne Lewis, president of Senior Panhellenic, spoke on the functions of Panhellenic. Clara Belle Roth, second vice president of Panhellenic will be adviser for the junior group.

Meetings will be held the first Thursday of each month and will alternate among the women's houses alphabetically. The next meeting will be held at Alpha Delta Pi on Dec. 6. At that meeting the board will discuss plans for the coming year, speakers and projects.

Friendly Hall's East Wing Razed

Friendly hall's east wing, formerly the site of the alumni offices, is now being razed.

The site will be an open area when the structure is torn down, I. I. Wright, physical plant superintendent, said.

Some classes were held in the wing this year before the razing began.

Halftime Skits Asked for Game

Skits for half-time entertainment at the Homecoming game between Oregon and OSC Nov. 25, have been called for by Rex Balentine, half-time entertainment chairman.

Persons interested in submitting skits may contact Balentine at Phi Sigma Kappa or phone 5-9544 before Nov. 15.

IRC Open Forum Slated Thursday

Discussion topic for the International Relations club monthly forum meeting at 7 p.m. tonight in the Student Union will be: "Should there be a West German state?"

Maj. Murray F. Gibbons, assistant professor of military science and tactics, will present the affirmative viewpoint, and the negative side of the question will be presented by Walter Schwarzlose, who is now studying in the journalism school at Oregon.

Major Gibbons received his law degree in 1941 from the University of Oklahoma, and he has been teaching at the University since 1949.

Schwarzlose, who is studying at the University under a state department exchange program, is editor of a German newspaper.

Students and faculty are invited to the forum.

Theme Selected For Water Show

"Seasonal Watermoods" has been chosen as the theme for this year's Amphibian water ballet. The women's swimming honorary's show will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday nights, Nov. 14 and 15 at the Men's pool.

The four seasons will be depicted by various formations and movements. Writing the script are Ashley Dixon, Joan Skordahl and Monnie Gutchow.

Committee heads are decorations, Monnie Gutchow and Jane Durno; programs, Ann Ostenson; publicity, Belle Doris Russell; and promotion, Joan Walker.
