SU Movies Feature Christmas Theme

"King of Kings" and "The Littlest Angel" will be shown at 2:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union ballroom, under the sponsorship of the SU movie committee.

The story of Magdalen, from the conversion of Magdalene to the Resurrection, is portrayed in "King of Kings," which stars Joseph Schildkraut and H. B. Warner, and is produced by Cecil B. DeMille.

"The Littlest Angel" is a short, animated cartoon taken from a Christmas story. Admission price is 30 cents.

First Fraternity Installed On Oregon Campus in 1900

National fraternities have been on the University of Oregon campus since the turn of the century. Sigma Nu was installed Dec. 1, 1900. The first national sorority, Gamma Phi Beta, was installed Dec. 18, 1908.

These and the later organizations have had at least two different houses apiece through the years. Many rented large, old houses until a new home could be built.

Sigma Kappa has the newest and most modern house on campus. Among the buildings which have housed Greek organizations for the greatest number of years are the Kappa Sigma and Phi Gamma Delta houses.

Several fraternities and sororities moved into new houses during the fall term of 1910. The Kappa Sigs' house at Alder street and 11th avenue east was being completed then. An Emerald story that year described it as a Swiss chalet with a rough finished and stained exterior. The Kappa Sigs are still living in the same house. They originally occupied what was the Anchorage on the Mill Race.

Lambda Rho on Campus
 Lambda Rho, a local sorority, had a new home late in 1910. The southern colonial house with two-story pillars in front and a sloping roof was located on Alder st. between 13th and 14th. On Oct. 13, 1913, Lambda Rho became Alpha Delta of Delta Gamma.

The DG's purchased that house for $10,000 in October 1921. The Emerald described it as one of the largest houses on campus at that time.

During the year of 1928-29, the DG's moved into their present house and Bachelordon, a man's living organization, took over the old colonial-style home. Bachelordon was active on the UO campus in the early Twenties and was reorganized in 1927.

About 1932 that same house became Chi Psi lodge. The Chi Psi's were still there in 1934. By 1938 the Fiji's, who had been living in Sherry Ross hall due to the depression, were in their present house. That house is the same one pictured in the early Oreganas as the Lambda Rho house.

ATO's, Thetas Next
 Other Greeks moving into new houses in 1910 were Alpha Tau Omega, Oak between 11th and 12th, and Kappa Alpha Theta, 12th ave. and Hilyard st. E.

The present Pi Beta Phi house was shown in the old Oreganas as early as 1924 and in 1925 Delta Delta Delta, Alpha Tau Omega and Kappa Kappa Gamma were at the present addresses.

The most recent construction, the Sigma Kappa house, was begun in April 1949 and was sufficiently completed for members to move in by the following fall. The group had formerly lived at 1761 Alder st., Sigma Alpha Mu's present house.

W. W. Hurdie and Sons, Eugene, were contractors for the Sigma Kappa house. The exterior is Washington red cedar siding with washing white pine. The living room and dining room open onto a large, partly covered terrace with an outdoor fireplace. Radiant heating and fluorescent and incandescent lighting are used throughout.

For 3rd Production Tryouts Set Today

Tryouts for the University theater's third production of the year will be held at 7:30 p.m. today in the lab theater, room 102 Villard.

Horace Robinson, associate professor of speech and director of the University theater, will direct the play.

Name of the play has not been announced because a release from the publishing house has not yet been received, the theater said. Robinson reported that the play is a "unique modern American drama."

A wide variety of roles for men and women, straight and character parts, will be available. Robinson said.

YW Members Sell Breakfast Tickets

Tickets for YWCA waffle breakfast are still available in women's living organizations for 50 cents. The breakfast will be held in Gerlinger hall beginning at 9 a.m. Saturday.

House representatives selling the tickets are requested by ticket chairman Bobbett Gilmore to turn in their money and unsold tickets to Cleo Cadwel at 506-C Carson hall by 10:30 tonight.

A style show of holiday fashions modeled by 12 freshmen women will be presented during the breakfast by Kaufman's, Eugene department store.

Arrangements for the breakfast are being handled by the freshmen commissioners under the general chairmanship of Ann Gerlinger.

The models for the fashion show which will be held at 9:30 a.m. are Margie Davis, Billie Pence, Cora Mae Petersen, Tricia Lawrence, Colleen Moore, Gail Bowman, Carol Walker, Ellen Burbano, Ann Gerlinger, Pat Bingham, Josie Boylen and Gerri Gibson.

The University of Michigan was the first state university.

This sign language can save your life

• Right turn

• Left turn, pulling away from curb, or backing up

• Stopping or slowing down

If other drivers were mind-readers, you wouldn't have to give hand signals. Unfortunately they're not. So when you make a sudden turn or stop without signalling, you run the risk of an accident.

Protect your car and yourself by learning the correct, legal signals and using them properly. In this way you tell other drivers what you are going to do before you do it.

Remember—hand signals are more important today because there are more cars than ever on the road. Don't take a chance—make hand signalling a habit.

Be careful—the life you save may be your own!
