

... a Shady Place . . .
 The millrace, once a swift flowing stream favored in song and story, is now not much more than a muddy slough. A story about its past and its future appears on page 1 as the first article in a series dealing with this campus landmark.

Campus Briefs

An idea in direct mail promotion, used by Oregon Alumni Director Les Anderson, is reproduced in the December, 1951, issue of the Report of Direct Mail Advertising, a national trade journal. The letter, printed in reverse, is held up to a mirror to be read. It has been used by Anderson for obtaining renewals of membership in the University of Oregon Alumni association. It is used by the publication as a good example of direct mail promotion.

Six new members have been initiated into Phi Epsilon Kappa. They are Frederick Adams, Ralph Hassman, Mark Seelen, Thomas Laughran, Giles Godfrey, and Milton Kotoshirodo. The university chapter, established here in 1928, is the only active chapter in the state.

Twenty men were initiated to Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, at a meeting last month. New members of the group include: Byron Tarr, Ivan Midlam, George Weir, Walt Brown, Alan Spangler, James Light, Andy Berk, Leonard Potter, Dave Meck, Herb West, Mel Westfall, Harry Hankinson, Bob Jones, Ken Hobbs, Tom Shepherd, George Smith, Ben Schmidt, Bob Simpson, Richard Tryznka and Richard Holbeck.

Petitions for the annual International Festival chairmanships due at the YWCA headquarters in Gerlinger Wednesday. The festival, to be held Feb. 16, is sponsored by the YWCA and the YMCA. Foreign students from Oregon colleges and universities will take part. Chairmanships open include general secretary, registration, arrangements, programs, invitations, publicity, luncheon and coffee hour.

The YMCA will sponsor a general membership drive from Jan. 23 to Feb. 1, executive secretary Jack Merner has announced. All YMCA committees will be especially active that week in order to attract as many new members as possible, Merner said. Representatives in each living organization contact each man about membership in the YMCA.

Houses Get Copies of UO Fight Song
 Copies of the new Oregon fight song were mailed to all house presidents Saturday by the rally board. Members of the board asked that students learn the song as it will be used at basketball games. The song was composed by John M. Moyer, senior in general science, and introduced to the student body during fall term. The ASUO senate officially adopted the song after its favorable acceptance by the students. Night Editor: Don Mickelwait

Job Opportunities

A listing and description of job opportunities available to college and university students or graduates begins in today's issue of the Emerald.

The Emerald will publish additional information on job openings in a similar form during the remainder of the year.

Examinations for the position of income tax auditor I, paying $272 to $336 a month, are now obtainable at offices of the State Tax commission. The job involves auditing, reviewing and examining income tax returns of individuals, partnerships, estates and trusts to determine that all items of income have been included and that deductions claimed are allowable. The examination consists of a written test covering accounting and auditing and the ability to conduct correspondence with the public. Veterans are given preference points. Any person who has graduated from a four-year college or university including or supplemented by course work in accounting is eligible.

Job openings for graduating science majors as aquatic biologists with the Washington state department of fisheries are now available. Vacancies will be filled through merit examinations for Aquatic Biologist I, II and III. Opportunities exist for permanent appointments providing salary increases, vacation, sick leave, retirement and other benefits under the state merit system. Beginning salaries are $288, $314 and $358 a month at the I, II and III levels, respectively. College graduates with a major in fisheries biology or a closely related science are eligible to apply for Aquatic Biologist I. One year of graduate study in fisheries or one year of experience in aquatic biology is also required for Aquatic Biologist II. One year of graduate study in fisheries and one year of experience or two years of experience are also required for Aquatic Biologist III.

Persons who will meet the requirements by June 1952 may apply for the initial examination to be held this month.

Application forms and further information may be secured from the State Personnel board, 1209 Smith tower, Seattle 4, Wash.

Examinations for filling cartographer and cartographic aid positions at salaries ranging from $2,200 to $7,600 a year, and for cartographic draftsman positions paying from $2,200 to $3,825 a year have been announced by the U.S. Civil Service commission. The positions are located in Washington, D.C., and vicinity. A new field-service-at-large positions will also be filled. Applicants will not be required to take a written test but must have had from 3 months to 3 years (depending on the kind and grade of position) of appropriate experience. Appropriate education may be substituted for all of the required experience for positions paying up to $3,100, and for part of the experience required for the higher-level positions.

For the cartographic draftsman positions, applicants must submit with their application a sample of their work. Information and application forms may be secured at post offices, civil service regional offices or from the U.S. Civil Service commission, Washington 25, D. C.

Commissions will be awarded by the U.S. army to civilian specialists in transportation, engineer, chemical, signal and ordnance corps, the Sixth army has announced.

The commissions, ranging in rank from second lieutenant to captain, require no prior military service, but a degree from a recognized college and some experience in the specialized field are necessary. Each year of completed graduate study at a recognized college will count as experience for higher rank. Upon receipt of their commissions, officers will be ordered to active duty for a period of three years with a 30 day delay prior to reporting for active duty.

Monthly pay and allowances for a captain with no dependents and no prior military service total $430.50; with dependents, $445.50. Single first lieutenants with no prior military service and no dependents receive pay and allowances of $358.88; with dependents, $373.88. The monthly pay and allowances of second lieutenants with no previous military service total $315.75; with dependents, $330.75. Further information is available at any army installation or recruiting office.

World Problems On Term Agenda

Nine speakers will discuss current world problems and great literature during the winter term Browsing room lectures.

The lecture series will be conducted each Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the Browsing room of the Student Union.

Subjects to be discussed during the series are: "The Chinese Novel," "Islam in Mid-Twentieth Century," "Art is the Hand Maid of Religion," "Impact of Communism on Western Europe," "East-West Conflict," "F. Scott Fitzgerald," "Australian Poetry," and "John Milton."

Paul S. Dull, associate professor of political science and history, will lead off this Wednesday with the topic "Chinese Communism: Orthodoxy or Heterodoxy."

Frederick M. Hunter, honorary chancellor of the state system of education, is chairman of the program committee for the series.

J. H. Gilbert, professor emeritus of economics and former dean of the college of liberal arts, is president of the Association of Patrons and Friends of the University library who sponsor the lectures jointly with the University of Oregon library.

The lecture series is open to members of the association, faculty, students and townspeople.
