

British Professor To Speak Here

Leonard Marsh, social researcher and professor of planning at the University of British Columbia, will speak on campus this week.

Thursday Marsh will meet with members of the faculty and graduate students in the Faculty club. He will speak on "Problems of Teaching and Research in the Social Sciences".

Thursday evening he will be principal speaker at a dinner given by local government officials and interested citizens. His topic will be "City Planning".

Friday at 9 a.m. Marsh will speak in an open meeting in 105 Commerce. His subject will be "Differences in Approach to Problems of Social Welfare", contrasting England, Canada and the United States.

Marsh is one of the principle authors of the Canadian Beveridge Report, which corresponds to England's report on social welfare programs by the same name.

Before joining the faculty of the University of British Columbia, Marsh headed the Institute for Social Research at McGill university in Montreal.

Holmes to Work In US Capital

Anita Holmes, Emerald Editor last year, has left for Washington, D.C., where she will begin work next Monday as a reporter in the women's department of the Washington Post, capitol newspaper.

Miss Holmes, a journalism major, was elected to Senior Six of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary, last term. She plans to complete the six hours needed for her bachelor's degree in journalism while in Washington.

Other activities while at Oregon included Mortar Board, senior women's honorary and Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism fraternity. She was attending school this year on a Standard Oil scholarship. She was also news bureau correspondent for the Oregonian.

Alumni Firesides Start January 20

The second annual series of winter term firesides for alumni will open on the University of Oregon campus Jan. 20, according to Les Anderson, alumni director.

The firesides, scheduled for four Sunday evenings during the term, in the Dad's lounge of the Student Union, will feature talks by University faculty members with a coffee hour following each talk. They will take place at 7 p.m. each scheduled Sunday night.

Paul S. Dull, associate professor of political science and history, and a member of the faculty Far Eastern Studies committee, will open the series Jan. 20 with a talk on "What Next In Asia?" On Feb. 10, William S. Laughlin, assistant professor of anthropology, will lecture on "New Use for Old Bones". The talk on Feb. 24 will be given by Kenneth J. O'Connell, professor of law, with "Adam's Rib" as the topic. A music specialty talk will be "Music As You Like It" by George Hopkins, professor of piano, on Mar. 9.

The planning committee for the firesides includes Mr. and Mrs. Otto Vonderheit, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield H. Atkinson, Dr. and Mrs. Robin M. Overstreet, Mr. and Mrs. Willis C. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Deffenbacher, Dr. and Mrs. Verne L. Adams, Joe Earley Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Anderson.

The governing officials of the World Health Organization have announced the establishment of an expert advisory panel for the International Pharmacopoeia. It consists of seventeen members, three of whom are from the United States.

Read and use Emerald classifieds.

Ph.D Fellowships Being Offered By National Science Groups

The National Research council and the National Academy of Sciences have announced that all applications for post-doctoral and pre-doctoral fellowships under their administration must be made by Jan. 15.

The fellowships under their administration include fellowships sponsored by the National Science foundation, Merck and Company, Inc., the Lilly Research laboratories, the Radio Corporation of America, Rockefeller foundation, the National Tuberculosis association and the American Cancer society.

There are fellowships in the agricultural, biological, engineering, mathematical, medical and physical sciences at both the pre-doctoral and post-doctoral level, the academy said.

Many pre-doctoral fellowships are being offered by the national science academy for the first time. These fellowships are open to anyone eligible to begin or continue graduate study during the year 1952-53. The tenure of a fellowship is one year and will pay the winner $1400 to $1600 plus tuition and laboratory fees.

Applicants for these fellowships will be required to take a fellowship board examination on Jan. 18, at examination centers yet to be announced by the foundation.

The post-doctoral fellowships offered by the National Research council are open to any citizen of the United States who has completed all the academic requirements for a Ph.D., Sc.D., or M.D. degree.

Because of the large range of fields in which the post-doctoral fellowships are available, potential applicants have been asked to write to the National Research council stating their field of study, age and study plans so that appropriate information may be sent.

Information and application blanks may be secured for any of the fellowship programs by writing the Fellowship Office, National Research Council, 2101 Constitution Ave., Washington, 25, D.C.

Radio Time Salesmen Teaches Advertising

William Karl, a radio time salesman for Station KUGN, will teach the journalism-business administration course in radio advertising this term. He succeeds Price Burlingame, instructor of journalism and business administration, who resigned at the end of the fall term to become a production specialist with the Kelso Norman advertising agency in San Francisco.

Karl, a graduate of Kansas State college, had previous radio experience on KRUL in Corvallis before coming to KUGN. The course, listed as both J and BA 441, has been changed from 10 to 8 TuTh.

FRATERNITIES NAME PLEDGES

Thirty-nine men were pledged by University of Oregon fraternities during fall term open rush, the office of men's affairs announced this week.

The first fraternity rush period for freshmen will be held this term, under a plan of deferment set up this year. Men pledged during fall term were upperclass men—either old students or transfers. The freshmen as pledged will continue to live in dormitories.

Pledged by fraternities during fall term were:

Beta Theta Pi—Craig Beairst and Ron Sogge.

Chi Psi—Thomas Hatfield and James Casper.

Delta Tau Delta—Robert Berry, James Gleming, Jr., Thomas Shepherd, Richard Weakley, Philip Sanders, George Weir and Patrick Van Winkle.

Delta Upsilon—Bill Norval. Kappa Sigma—William Evans. Lambda Chi Alpha—Samuel Berstrom, John Sutton and Richard Woodward.

Phi Delta Theta—Allan Wherry. Phi Kappa Psi—Jack Cady.

Phi Kappa Sigma—James Myers and Richard Schwary.

Phi Sigma Kappa—John Waugaman and Dick DonTigny.

Pi Kappa Phi—Robert Bartholomew, James Toner, Robert Boyl and Quentin Randall.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon—Dick Peters.

Sigma Chi—Gerald Garrett and John Loftis.

Sigma Phi Epsilon—Harry Fuller, Jr., Lawrence Tycker, Alan Oppiger, John Fraunfelder and Walter Brown.

Theta Chi—Joe Almand Jr. and Allan Murray.

Tau Kappa Epsilon—Don Allen, Roger Kuykondall and Otto Zundritsch.

Y Joint Cabinet Plans Discussed

Plans for more cooperation between the Oregon YMCA and YWCA were discussed by the cabinets of the two organizations during a meeting held at the end of fall term.

The meeting, the first of its kind for the two cabinets, was the result of a number of conferences and plans by the presidents of the two groups, Ann Darby and Dave Hobbs, and other members of the Y.

It was noted that a number of committees within the groups correspond and that working together would benefit each of them. The public affairs and international affairs committees are already cooperating on projects.

The marriage and family lecture series and a clothing drive are sponsored jointly by the two organizations.

Another meeting is planned for sometime this month at which time they will discuss suggestions including the possibilities of monthly joint cabinet meetings and other areas of cooperation.

DON'T WAIT

YOU have an opportunity NOW to better prepare yourself for tomorrow's lifetime work. Practical application of college training in:

- Advertising
- Layout
- Space-selling
- Secretarial Work

APPLY TODAY

The importance to you of starting at the beginning of the term is obvious.

• • • •

SEE BOB GREENLEE OR JACK CADY AT THE "SHACK" NOW.

