

Ducklings Beat Pacific U. JVs

Led by ex-Marshfield high star Howard Page, the Oregon JV's trounced the Pacific JV's 62-42, Tuesday night.

Except for a few minutes in the first period, Oregon led all the way, building up their lead, and winning going away. At the end of the first quarter Oregon held a 18-12 margin, but before the end of the half, the visiting Badgers closed the margin 29-27, on buckets by Proffit and Gibbs.

In the third period, Page scored 9 of his 16 points to fashion a 46-38 lead for the Ducklings.

The final period saw the young Badgers score only 5 points, while Page, Choat, Hempe and Blodgett were all throwing in counter for the JV's. For Pacific Proffit and Metcalf were high with 9 apiece, although Proffit fouled out early in the fourth period. Marxer hit nine and Seigmund scored 8, all his points coming on four consecutive buckets in the first quarter.

Oregon controlled the backboards throughout most of the game, and harried the Badgers into hurried shots. The Ducklings victory was very decisive, seeing them able to score when the points were needed, and keeping the Badgers constantly on the defense. Rogers and Philips put in a good game on the backboards.

KEN HUNT shared scoring honors with Chet Noe in the Tuesday night tilt with WSC. Both came out with 15 points on the tally sheet. Hunt's superb performance aided the Duck come out on top with a 59-45 score.

Oregon Ducks Cop Series from WSC

By Larry Lavello

University of Oregon's league leading Ducks spanked the barnstorming Washington State Cougars again 59-45 Tuesday night in McArthur Court.

A crowd of 6,125 sat in on a carbon copy of Monday night's opening Northern Division PCC contest which was also won by Bill Borchers' Ducks, 59-45.

Oregon Tops Conference
Oregon, the only undefeated team in the entire Pacific Coast Conference, thereby stretched its margin over idle Washington, Idaho and Oregon State to a full game.

Forward Bob Peterson, who only Monday broke a PCC rebounding record by recovering 21 times, adjusted the league mark again by cleaning the backboards on 25 occasions.

Noe and Hunt High Scorers
Los Angeles' Chet Noe and Coos Bay's Kenny Hunt paced the scoring parade with 15 points each. George Rosser, Cougar center rustled the mesh for eight tallies.

The lead changed hands twice in the opening quarter and was even but once, at the 10-minute mark, 11-11. Rosser kept the Ducks off-balance with a pair of scintillating overhand hooks while the Ducks' scoring output was widely distributed.

Ducks Lead at Half
The dam broke for Jack Friel's double platoon in the second period as Noe accepted passes off Borchers' fast break for three consecutive buckets, one a whirling twister. Rosser cut loose for a left hander, after Noe's second bucket, to interrupt the outburst. Oregon mounted the 17-13 advantage to a 27-20 halftime count.

Noe led off the post-intermission half with a tip in, following a wild under the net scramble and Mel Streeter quickened the pace with a 10-foot cast. Eric Roberts, a Hollywood, Calif. importation, brushed by his cross-city rival, Noe, for a layup and was fouled in the act of shooting. Roberts added the extra point and the men from the "Inland Empire" were as close to setting the pace as the Ducks would allow them, 31-23.

Peterson, who was well on his way to establishing the rebound record with a half-time total of 16, continued to clear the backboards, and teamed with the stylish Hunt to give the Webfoots a 43-30 three-quarter margin.

Cougars Fall Behind
Peterson's one hand shot from the free throw line midway in the finale gave the Ducks their longest lead of the night, 53-36.

Officials Tim McCullough and Len Patterson whistled 32 violations; Oregon committed 16—12 in the second half. The Webfoots' shooting average was 29.5 and Washington State's, 23 per cent.

The visiting Cougars again seemed to be unable to stop the vastly-improved run and pass offense of the Ducks, and able to break through for a sparse number of close in shots or layups.

Following is the summary:
WSC Roberts (7) F. (10) Peterson Mullins (0) F. (4) Streeter Rosser (8) C. (15) Noe Brown (3) G. (15) Hunt Swanson (2) G. (4) Wegner

Who Did You Say Is a Boy's Best Friend?

Once there was a sophomore whose father had a bad habit of saying "No". Vehemently. Particularly about money. Ask him the Big Question and his jowls would turn a fetching shade of vermilion.

So Junior, his need needed by three days of living on Pup-O-Nip (liver-flavor) sandwiches, cast about for a New Approach. Found it, too. Right at the Western Union office. He just sat down and worked out a wire to Negative Polarity Pappy. A brisk little wheeze . . . to wit: "Must have twenty dollars immediately. Urgent. Please flash by telegraphic money order." Results? Our sophomore was earstraining the cash within two hours.

What's Junior's major? Psychology, of course.

It's darned good psychology to wire home at other times than just when you need help and comfort. For holiday greetings—Mother's Day—good news about grades—things that would make Home Happier. Try it next time. Just head for your local Western Union office.
